BUSINESS PUSHES MARCH TOWARD HIGHER GROUND

Fourteen Large Utilities Announce Substantial Spending Program

RETAIL SALES QUICKENED BY LOWER TEMPERATURES

Evidence Comes Railroads Must Begin Buying More Steel Soon

By Thomas E. Flanagan
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Business continued on the march to higher ground this week.

Fourteen large utilities announced a substantial spending program for the next two years. Retail trade, stimulated by cooler weather, caught up with the industrial parade. The railroad industry stepped up to the equipment buying counter.

The utility companies, joining with the government in its national defense program, said they would spend about a billion dollars a year to increase power production facilities.

It was announced that "definite commitments" had been made for new equipment capable of turning out 1,000,000 kilowatts. Some utility experts present at a meeting with government officials said, however, that this addition to plant and equipment would represent only about one-third of the rate of increase which prevailed annually during the expansion of the 1920's. Some of the utility representatives who attended the conference also expressed skepticism privately, but others contended the program would prove an important aid to business.

In recent weeks unseasonally hot weather in many sectors had put a dent in retail sales. This week, lower temperatures quickened turnover and put new life into wholesale markets. So brisk was the demand for goods at wholesale in some centers that it caught some dealers without sufficient stocks.

For many months the steel industry has complained of the dearth of business from railroads. During the week, evidence came to hand that some roads had reached a point where they could no longer defer new equipment

VOTERS TO GIVE MANY BIG JOBS

Positions To Be Worth $11,500,000 To Winners Of Elections

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Eleven and a half million dollars worth of top state and federal jobs will be handed out by the voters a week from Tuesday.

How much it will cost the candidates and their supporters to win, or lose, these jobs is largely a matter of conjecture; but if the spending runs true to past performances, it will cost at least $11,500,000.

The jobs figure out like this:

Thirty-two governors are being elected. Their terms range from two to four years, the pay from $3,000 a year in South Dakota to $25,000 a year in New York. The jobs are being sought by 112 candidates. Salaries for the terms run up to a total of $676,000.

Thirty-five senators are being picked from among 107 contestants. The pay is $10,000 a year. Figuring the three short terms—to fill vacancies in unexpired terms—and the 32 full six-year terms, these 107 candidates are tussling for a share of $2,040,000 in salary.

All house seats save the three already filled by the early Maine election are to be handed out. There are 432 of these, with 972 trying to get

MINDEN ROBBERY SENTENCE IMPOSED

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Frank Denman, 44, was sentenced by Federal Judge Ben C. Dawkins today to serve three years in the federal prison at Atlanta for being an accessory before and after the robbery of the Minden Bank and Trust company June 8.

Denman, a brother-in-law of Harry Mahoney, and his wife allowed Harry and Truman Mahoney, Herbert Skaggs and Dando Davis—who have been convicted of the Minden robbery—to stay at the Denman home on Lake Bisteneau before and after the robbery, testimony showed.

The four convicted robbers received heavy prison sentences earlier this week for participation in the crime. Denman's wife is under 18-month sentence for her part in harboring the bandits.

FOUR CONVICTED OF CONSPIRACY

Found Guilty Of Harboring Alvin Karpis And Given Two Years Each

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Mrs. Grace Goldstein and three former police officials of Hot Springs, Ark., were convicted in United States district court here today on a charge of conspiring to harbor the gangster Alvin Karpis at Hot Springs during the year preceding his capture at New Orleans in May, 1936.

The jury which sat through the 12-day trial deliberated less than two hours. Immediately after the verdict, Presiding Judge T. C. Trimble sentenced the defendants to two years each in a federal penitentiary, maximum under the law.

Convicted were:

Mrs. Goldstein, 32, operator of Hot Springs houses of prostitution, who told the court she had lived with Karpis as his common-law wife during the latter half of 1935 and the first part of 1936.

Former Chief of Police Joseph Wakelin, 60.

Former Chief of Detectives Herbert (Dutch) Akers, 44.

Cecil Brock, 34, former police lieutenant and head of the Hot Springs identification bureau.

Defense attorneys indicated motions for a new trial, or an appeal, would be made within the five days allowed for such action. They entered exceptions on the record to the immediate sentencing and to a denial of bail.

Jointly charged in the conspiracy indictment, but freed by the court on instructed verdicts when the government ended its presentation last Wednesday were Mrs. Al C. Dyer, operator of a boat landing near Hot Springs, Morris Loftis, landing caretaker, and John Stover, manager of the Hot Springs municipal airport.

DR. O'HARA THINKS 'MILK WAR' TO END

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Dr. J. A. O'Hara, president of the Louisiana board of health, said today on his return from Kansas City that the "milk war" between Louisiana and Mississippi producers during the past few days was based on a misinterpretation of a decision of the Louisiana milk commission.

He said he believed the controversy would be adjusted when the commission meets next Wednesday in Baton Rouge.

It was reported that shipments of milk from Mississippi to New Orleans had been turned back at the state line because some of them did not bear the Louisiana certificate.

Dr. O'Hara said the New Orleans board of health had been acting under a reciprocal agreement with the state board and the Mississippi health department on inspections of dairy plants from which milk was shipped to New Orleans.

Meanwhile, pending final agreement the state board of health of Louisiana today was issuing certificates for milk shipments from creamery plants at Tylertown and Wesson, Miss.

HITLER TO ASK FOR RETURN OR COMPENSATION

Expects Nations Which Took German Possessions To Give Back

PEACE ONE MONTH AFTER MUNICH PACT EMBITTERED

Variously Characterized As 'Bad Peace' And 'Peace Of Fear'

LADEBURG, Germany, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's deputy for colonial affairs said today Germany lays claim to all her pre-war colonies without exception.

Germany, however, may not demand outright return of all of them, he indicated, but he added that in that event "we shall demand compensation for whatever we don't claim."

The colonial deputy, General Franz Ritter von Epp, who also is governor of Bavaria, said, "We will never attempt to solve the colonial problem by military force," and declared "Germany will never beg for colonies."

"She expects those who seized them to take the initiative for restoration," he said, "and Germany claims colonies only from those who deprived her of them.

"The present mandatories of German colonies should come and tell us what their attitude is in the question of restoration—then we will decide our future attitude toward them."

Germany's pre-war colonial empire totaled about 1,130,000 square miles, more than 1,000,000 square miles of it in Africa. The colonies now are held by or mandated to Great Britain and her dominions and France, Portugal, Japan and Belgium. Their total area is five times as large as that of Great Germany's 224,000 square miles.

(At Marseille, France the Radical-Socialist party in convention adopted a resolution asking the government "to reject energetically all colonial claims of a territorial type which may eventually be formulated by foreign powers on populations which bring moving evidences of patriotism to

'MILLIONAIRES' THICK IN CITY

Thousand-Dollar Bills Become 'Small Change' As Chest Workers Paid

Dropping into the lobby of Hotel Frances, Saturday afternoon, a reporter found a big crowd of talking and laughing men, and a few women, all huddled around A. B. Clarkson, Twin City Community Chest campaign director. The air was tense with excitement and real big things were doing

Mr. Clarkson, with a smile that was even more expansive than usual, staged in the role of a Santa Claus some months ahead of time, found himself struggling with real big business as he passed out "bills" that would make a Get-Rich-Quick-Wallingford and a Ponzi green with envy, for Clarkson was suddenly transformed into the inner and most exclusive circle of high finance and high financiers.

Seated at his desk, with piles and piles of "bank notes" on every side of him, Mr. Clarkson counted out and disbursed ten thousand, fifty thousand, a hundred thousand "dollars" with a nonchalance as if it were no more than the sum required for a single postage stamp. The eager throng of workers crowded around him anxious to get their digits on the "cash."

RICHLAND PARISH ACCIDENT FATAL

Fountain, Ark., Man Killed; Injured Brother In Hospital Here

One man was killed, another was in St. Francis sanitarium here and two others escaped injury in an automobile accident which occurred yesterday afternoon on the Rayville-Winnsboro road near Dehlco community in Richland parish.

Frank Cordrey, 24, of Fountain Hill, Ark., was instantly killed when a Model T Ford, which he was reported driving, plunged off the highway and turned over in a ditch.

His brother, Richard Cordrey, 20, also of Fountain Hill, was a patient in the hospital here, but attending physicians said his injuries consisted only of minor bruises and that he would probably be dismissed from the institution today.

Other men in the accident were Monroe Underwood and James Ivy, both living south of Rayville, who were uninjured, according to reports from Rayville.

Dr. T. M. Sayre, coroner of Richland parish, in a telephone communication last night, said Frank Cordrey had died of a fractured skull and probably a broken neck, although his examina-

ANDREWS NAMES WAGE ENFORCERS

20 In First Group Selected As Labor Standards Act Inspectors

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Elmer F. Andrews, the wage and hours administrator, sent his first group of inspectors into the field today to enforce the new labor standards act.

The officials, 20 of them, will set up temporary headquarters in Boston, Washington, Chicago and San Francisco. Lack of funds makes it impossible at this time to set up the 12 regional offices which later will be established, Andrews said.

The field staff will handle complaints, make inspections and furnish information and advice on how to observe the wage and hours law.

In the field force are two newly-appointed officials: Ernest R. Strempel, of Yellow Springs, O., to have temporary charge of the Northeastern area headquarters at Boston; and O. J. Libert, of Madison, Wis., acting supervising inspector for the midwestern area, temporarily in charge of the Chicago headquarters.

Where possible, it was said, the inspectors would locate at social security board offices.

BOARD ADVISES RAILROADS NOT TO SLASH WAGES

Problem Of Averting Nation-Wide Strike Still Up To President

PROPOSED CUT 'COUNTER TO TREND IN INDUSTRY'

Group Believes Financial Distress Of Carriers Short-term Situation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 — (AP) — President Roosevelt's fact finding board recommended today that the railroads abandon their proposal to reduce wages of approximately 1,000,000 employes on December 1.

The railroad managements gave no immediate indication as to whether they would comply. Still up to the president, in the words of one board member, was the problem of averting the nation-wide strike which the rail workers have voted if the proposed 15 per cent reduction is put into effect.

The White House disclosed that Mr. Roosevelt would pursue this problem Monday at a conference with George M. Harrison, head of the railway labor executives' association, and John J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads.

Presumably, the possibilities of other proposed solutions of the railroads' financial plight will be discussed at this conference. The administration's ideas on government aid and legislation at the next session of congress are expected generally to be canvassed. Pelley declared at a recent hearing before the fact-finding board, however, that the wage cut offered the only adequate solution.

The board, appointed by the president under provisions of the railway labor act, summarized its unanimous report to Mr. Roosevelt today as follows:

"1. The wages of railway labor are not high even as compared with wages in other comparable industries.

RANKIN DENOUNCES POWER EXPANSION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Representative Rankin, Democrat, Mississippi, denounced today the projected expansion of private power facilities in cooperation with the federal government.

Rankin, leader of the public power bloc in the house, said in a statement the government's "proposed agreement with the utilities in the name of national defense was one of the most heart-sickening and disappointing propositions that has yet been advanced.

"This is undoubtedly the shrewdest scheme the utilities have yet devised. This public enemy No. 1, known as the power trust, in the war now raging between the utilities and the helpless consumers of electric light and power, thus becomes the hero of national defense in preparation for an imaginative conflict with the unknown enemy in the dim distant future when the war of kilowatts breaks out and threatens the safety of the world."

MONROE REPORTS BETTER BUSINESS

Substantial Upward Swing Made In September Compared With August

With a single exception, business in Monroe made a substantial upward surge in September compared with August, as disclosed by the Monroe Chamber of Commerce in a bulletin just issued Figures for October were not available.

September automobile registrations in Ouachita parish dropped 45.9 per cent under August, which was accounted for by the fact that many dealers had closed out old models and the public was awaiting new creations of auto manufacturers.

Building permits in September jumped to $90,750, which was an increase of 99.3 per cent over the preceding month of August. In West Monroe, permits jumped 1,170 per cent, being $5,770 in September as against $500 in August.

Telephones in service in September were 6,742 as against 6,701 representing 0.5 per cent increase.

Freight shipments also made appreciable gains. September inbound shipments were 2,059 cars as against 1,966 for August, an increase of 4.7 per cent. Outbound shipments were 1,113

SUGAR MEN ARRIVING AT STATE CAPITAL

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Sugar experts from far sections of the world began gathering here tonight for the technical discussions marking the sixth world sugar congress of the International Society of Sugar Technologists.

Delegates came from as far away as the Fiji islands, from Java, Egypt and India.

They convened at New Orleans last Monday, about 200 strong, and began daily inspections of Louisiana sugar cane fields, mills and refineries.

The party of delegates arrived here tonight to rest over the week-end and begin a week's program of scientific discussions Monday. A reception is scheduled tomorrow at the home of President James Monroe Smith of Louisiana State university.

Scientific discussions are expected to cover a wide range of subjects affecting the world sugar industry, including the recent invention of three new cane cutting devices in Louisiana. The congress is a triennial affair, the last having been held in Australia in 1935.

Governor Leche has called a meeting of leading Louisiana sugar producers and refiners at the capitol Monday for a discussion of the price differential for raw sugar at the New York and New Orleans sugar markets.

Ticket May Fail To Show Democratic Nominee As Result Of Action

HEARING ON TODD APPEAL FIXED FOR NOVEMBER 2

Harvey Fields Offers Petition Asking Certification By Secretary Of State

The Fifth District Democratic Executive committee meeting here yesterday voted 10 to 8 to defer certification of Representative Newt V. Mills as the Democratic nominee for congress in the November 8 general election until the Louisiana supreme court passes on an appeal from a contest of the election filed in district court here.

In a lengthy session at the Virginia hotel yesterday the committee, in a meeting that attracted a crowd which taxed the capacity of the room, argued at length on the law concerning certification of nominees and protests of elections, and finally refused to certify Congressman Mills who, on the face of returns tabulated by the secretary of state and a committee appointed by Harvey G Fields, chairman of the congressional committee, led Will Harvey Todd in the second primary by 558 votes.

The refusal of the committee to certify a nominee left some doubt as to whether a name of a Democratic nominee would appear on the ballot in the general election on November 8 Absentee ballots were to have been mailed from the secretary of state's office yesterday. Whether the supreme court would act on Todd's petition for a recount in time to allow printing of the ballots and their distribution was a question raised last night.

An Associated Press dispatch from New Orleans last night stated that the supreme court had set next Wednesday as the date for hearing the appeal from the district court's ruling dismissing Todd's petition for a recount. According to Percy Haines, clerk of the supreme court, transcript of the record was received in New Orleans last night and the case was immediately set as the first to be considered on November 2, six days before the general election.

BRITISH TROOPS AGAIN VICTORS

Push Sweeping Drive Against Arab Rebels In City Where Samson Died

GAZA, Palestine, Oct. 29.—(AP)—British troops scored another victory today in this historic Philistine city, where Samson died, in their sweeping drive against Arab rebels throughout Palestine.

Eight thousand Arab residents of Gaza who were suspected of harboring and assisting rebels against British authority were rounded up, searched, questioned and relieved of firearms in a surprise attack at dawn.

Far up the coast, British troops in another of a series of surprise searches of Arab rebel strongholds raided the town of Ein Elmanuhie, near Acre, and arrested 60 Arabs suspected of revolutionary activities.

Among the prisoners were the presiding judge and members of a rebel military court. A number of documents were seized.

In the Gaza attack, 300 motor trucks and armored cars, bearing more than 1,000 soldiers, started from Sarafand with lights extinguished in the dead of night.

It was Gaza whose gates Samson bore away in the night in Biblical

ORLEANS BUILDING AT FAIR PROPOSED

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Fred Earhart, member of the New Orleans commission council, who visited the Louisiana state fair here today as personal representative of Mayor Robert S. Maestri of New Orleans, discussed the erection of a New Orleans building at the fair grounds.

"The fair is a Louisiana institution," he said, "and although it is held in Shreveport, what is good for Shreveport is good for New Orleans and the state generally. What helps one community benefits us all."

Earhart said the fair should draw more attention from New Orleans and suggested the New Orleans building to house exhibits from Louisiana's largest city.

Germany's pre-war colonial empire totaled about 1,130,000 square miles, more than 1,000,000 square miles of it in Africa. The colonies now are held by or mandated to Great Britain and her dominions and France, Portugal, Japan and Belgium. Their total area is five times as large as that of Great Germany's 224,000 square miles.

(At Marseille, France the Radical-Socialist party in convention adopted a resolution asking the government "to reject energetically all colonial claims of a territorial type which may eventually be formulated by foreign powers on populations which bring moving evidences of patriotism to

Dropping into the lobby of Hotel Frances, Saturday afternoon, a reporter found a big crowd of talking and laughing men, and a few women, all huddled around A. B. Clarkson, Twin City Community Chest campaign director. The air was tense with excitement and real big things were doing

Mr. Clarkson, with a smile that was even more expansive than usual, staged in the role of a Santa Claus some months ahead of time, found himself struggling with real big business as he passed out "bills" that would make a Get-Rich-Quick-Wallingford and a Ponzi green with envy, for Clarkson was suddenly transformed into the inner and most exclusive circle of high finance and high financiers.

Seated at his desk, with piles and piles of "bank notes" on every side of him, Mr. Clarkson counted out and disbursed ten thousand, fifty thousand, a hundred thousand "dollars" with a nonchalance as if it were no more than the sum required for a single postage stamp. The eager throng of workers crowded around him anxious to get their digits on the "cash."

According to the rules of the

NEWELLTON SCHOOL CONTRACT AWARDED

The contract was awarded Saturday for the construction of the new Newellton High school building in that town to Humble and Humble of Monroe fo $80,000. Plans were drawn by H. H. Land, Monroe architect.

The building will be of modern type, one-story brick, with gymnasium and auditorium.

Plumbing will be installed by W. J. Riley, Monroe.

This project will be constructed with funds of the PWA and by the parish school board at Newellton.

Ground will be broken Monday, Mr. Land stated.

MINER, 34, TAKES BRIDE, 10

Ten-year-old Rosie Columbus, Kentucky mountain girl, laid away her playthings when she became the bride of Fleming Tackett, 34-year-old widowed coal miner, at a simple hill country ceremony in front of the log cabin where they will reside near Prestonburg, Ky. Bride and groom are shown above. Rosie's mother gave the child's age as 15 when the license was obtained, but a county health officer said his records showed her real age to be 10.

RICHLAND PARISH ACCIDENT FATAL

Fountain, Ark., Man Killed; Injured Brother In Hospital Here

One man was killed, another was in St. Francis sanitarium here and two others escaped injury in an automobile accident which occurred yesterday afternoon on the Rayville-Winnsboro road near Dehlco community in Richland parish.

Frank Cordrey, 24, of Fountain Hill, Ark., was instantly killed when a Model T Ford, which he was reported driving, plunged off the highway and turned over in a ditch.

His brother, Richard Cordrey, 20, also of Fountain Hill, was a patient in the hospital here, but attending physicians said his injuries consisted only of minor bruises and that he would probably be dismissed from the institution today.

Other men in the accident were Monroe Underwood and James Ivy, both living south of Rayville, who were uninjured, according to reports from Rayville.

Dr. T. M. Sayre, coroner of Richland parish, in a telephone communication last night, said Frank Cordrey had died of a fractured skull and probably a broken neck, although his examina-

ANDREWS NAMES WAGE ENFORCERS

20 In First Group Selected As Labor Standards Act Inspectors

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Elmer F. Andrews, the wage and hours administrator, sent his first group of inspectors into the field today to enforce the new labor standards act.

The officials, 20 of them, will set up temporary headquarters in Boston, Washington, Chicago and San Francisco. Lack of funds makes it impossible at this time to set up the 12 regional offices which later will be established, Andrews said.

The field staff will handle complaints, make inspections and furnish information and advice on how to observe the wage and hours law.

In the field force are two newly-appointed officials: Ernest R. Strempel, of Yellow Springs, O., to have temporary charge of the Northeastern area headquarters at Boston; and O. J. Libert, of Madison, Wis., acting supervising inspector for the midwestern area, temporarily in charge of the Chicago headquarters.

Where possible, it was said, the inspectors would locate at social security board offices.

Calvert Magruder, general counsel, replied today to a question from motion picture theater operators as to

With the end of the first week of the Twin City Community Chest campaign on Saturday, the half way mark of the two weeks' drive was completed and a total of more than half the sum of $20,000 was "in the bag." The total sum of contributions, announced at campaign headquarters in Hotel Frances, Saturday night, was $11,061.25 which was such as to lend every possible encouragement that the goal will be reached in another week, or in less time.

The largest contributors announced Saturday were the Ouachita National bank, $150, and the United Gas Pipeline company, $250. Shotwell and Brown, $60 and Simonton Grain company, $60. The other donors of larger sums are also given herewith. Contributions of sums less than $25 are not as yet listed, because of a business rush, but will be so listed later. They call for a total of $1,480.

Two new factors in the campaign will enter this week when educational institutions of Monroe and West Monroe, which will include teachers and pupils, will be solicited and the women's house-to-house campaign will be ready to go. Mrs. Fagan Cox, general chairman of this part of the

Group Believes Financial Distress Of Carriers Short-term Situation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. — (AP) — President Roosevelt's fact finding board recommended today that the railroads abandon their proposal to reduce wages of approximately 1,000,000 employes on December 1.

The railroad managements gave no immediate indication as to whether they would comply. Still up to the president, in the words of one board member, was the problem of averting the nation-wide strike which the rail workers have voted if the proposed 15 per cent reduction is put into effect.

The White House disclosed that Mr. Roosevelt would pursue this problem Monday at a conference with George M. Harrison, head of the railway labor executives' association, and John J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads.

Presumably, the possibilities of other proposed solutions of the railroads' financial plight will be discussed at this conference. The administration's ideas on government aid and legislation at the next session of congress are expected generally to be canvassed. Pelley declared at a recent hearing before the fact-finding board, however, that the wage cut offered the only adequate solution.

The board, appointed by the president under provisions of the railway labor act, summarized its unanimous report to Mr. Roosevelt today as follows:

"1. The wages of railway labor are not high even as compared with wages in other comparable industries.

RANKIN DENOUNCES POWER EXPANSION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Representative Rankin, Democrat, Mississippi, denounced today the projected expansion of private power facilities in cooperation with the federal government.

Rankin, leader of the public power bloc in the house, said in a statement the government's "proposed agreement with the utilities in the name of national defense was one of the most heart-sickening and disappointing propositions that has yet been advanced.

"This is undoubtedly the shrewdest scheme the utilities have yet devised. This public enemy No. 1, known as the power trust, in the war now raging between the utilities and the helpless consumers of electric light and power, thus becomes the hero of national defense in preparation for an imaginative conflict with the unknown enemy in the dim distant future when the war of kilowatts breaks out and threatens the safety of the world."

MONROE REPORTS BETTER BUSINESS

Substantial Upward Swing Made In September Compared With August

With a single exception, business in Monroe made a substantial upward surge in September compared with August, as disclosed by the Monroe Chamber of Commerce in a bulletin just issued. Figures for October were not available.

September automobile registrations in Ouachita parish dropped 45.9 per cent under August, which was accounted for by the fact that many dealers had closed out old models and the public was awaiting new creations of auto manufacturers.

Building permits in September jumped to $90,750, which was an increase of 99.3 per cent over the preceding month of August. In West Monroe, permits jumped 1,120 per cent, being $5,770 in September as against $500 in August.

Telephones in service in September were 6,742 as against 6,701 representing 0.5 per cent increase.

Freight shipments also made appreciable gains. September inbound shipments were 2,059 cars as against 1,966 for August, an increase of 4.7 per cent. Outbound shipments were 1,115

SUGAR MEN ARRIVING AT STATE CAPITAL

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Sugar experts from far sections of the world began gathering here tonight for the technical discussions marking the sixth world sugar congress of the International Society of Sugar Technologists.

Delegates came from as far away as the Fiji islands, from Java, Egypt and India.

They convened at New Orleans last Monday, about 200 strong, and began daily inspections of Louisiana sugar cane fields, mills and refineries.

The party of delegates arrived here tonight to rest over the week-end and begin a week's program of scientific discussions Monday. A reception is scheduled tomorrow at the home of President James Monroe Smith of Louisiana State university.

Scientific discussions are expected to cover a wide range of subjects affecting the world sugar industry, including the recent invention of three new cane cutting devices in Louisiana. The congress is a triennial affair, the last having been held in Australia in 1935.

Governor Leche has called a meeting of leading Louisiana sugar producers and refiners at the capitol Monday for a discussion of the price differential for raw sugar at the New York and New Orleans sugar markets.

MAJORITY ASKS SUPREME COURT DECISION FIRST

Harvey Fields Offers Petition Asking Certification By Secretary Of State

The Fifth District Democratic Executive committee meeting here yesterday voted, 10 to 6, to defer certification of Representative Newt V. Mills as the Democratic nominee for congress in the November 8 general election until the Louisiana supreme court passes on an appeal from a contest of the election filed in district court here.

In a lengthy session at the Virginia hotel yesterday, the committee, in a meeting that attracted a crowd which taxed the capacity of the room, argued at length on the law concerning certification of nominees and protests of elections, and finally refused to certify Congressman Mills who, on the face of returns tabulated by the secretary of state and a committee appointed by Harvey G. Fields, chairman of the congressional committee, led Will Harvey Todd in the second primary by 558 votes.

The refusal of the committee to certify a nominee left some doubt as to whether a name of a Democratic nominee would appear on the ballot in the general election on November 8. Absentee ballots were to have been mailed from the secretary of state's office yesterday. Whether the supreme court would act on Todd's petition for a recount in time to allow printing of the ballots and their distribution was a question raised last night.

An Associated Press dispatch from New Orleans last night stated that the supreme court had set next Wednesday as the date for hearing the appeal from the district court's ruling dismissing Todd's petition for a recount. According to Percy Heines, clerk of the supreme court, transcript of the record was received in New Orleans last night and the case was immediately set as the first to be considered on November 2, six days before the general election.

BRITISH TROOPS AGAIN VICTORS

Push Sweeping Drive Against Arab Rebels In City Where Samson Died

GAZA, Palestine, Oct. 29.—(AP)—British troops scored another victory today in this historic Philistine city, where Samson died, in their sweeping drive against Arab rebels throughout Palestine.

Eight thousand Arab residents of Gaza who were suspected of harboring and assisting rebels against British authority were rounded up, searched, questioned and relieved of firearms in a surprise attack at dawn.

Far up the coast, British troops in another of a series of surprise searches of Arab rebel strongholds raided the town of Ein Elmanshie, near Acre, and arrested 60 Arabs suspected of revolutionary activities.

Among the prisoners were the presiding judge and members of a rebel military court. A number of documents were seized.

In the Gaza attack, 300 motor trucks and armored cars, bearing more than 1,000 soldiers, started from Sarafand with lights extinguished in the dead of night.

It was Gaza whose gates Samson bore away in the night in Biblical

ORLEANS BUILDING AT FAIR PROPOSED

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Fred Earhart, member of the New Orleans commission council, who visited the Louisiana state fair here today as personal representative of Mayor Robert S. Maestri of New Orleans, discussed the erection of a New Orleans building at the fair grounds.

"The fair is a Louisiana institution," he said, "and although it is held in Shreveport, what is good for Shreveport is good for New Orleans and the state generally. What helps one community benefits us all."

Earhart said the fair should draw more attention from New Orleans and suggested the New Orleans building to house exhibits from Louisiana's largest city.

BOARD ADVISES AGAINST SLASH

the financial emergency of the industry, since the savings would not be distributed merely to the needy roads.

"3. A wage reduction in the railroad industry would run counter to the trend of wage rates in industry generally.

"4. The financial distress of the carriers which has obtained since October, 1937, when the last wage increases were granted, is as yet a short-term situation. As such, it cannot be regarded as grounds for a wage reduction, especially in view of present indications of an improvement in the business of the carriers.

"5. In the light of these findings, the board concludes that the proposal of the carriers for a reduction of the wages of railway labor should not be pressed and recommends that the carriers withdraw and cancel the notices which would put such a reduction into operation as of December 1, 1938."

The board is composed of Chief Justice Walter P. Stacy of the North Carolina supreme court, who served on similar boards in the Coolidge and Harding administrations; Dean James M. Landis of the Harvard law school, and Professor Harry A. Millis of the University of Chicago.

After detailing reasons for its findings, the board said it had been impressed "with the necessity that now rests on the government for a complete and thoroughgoing reconsideration of the relationship of the railroad industry to our national well-being."

RAILROADS MAY GET LOANS OF $1,000,000,000

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Railroads of the country may be offered about $1,000,000,000 in rehabilitation loans on easy terms by the federal government as a sequel to submission to the "no-wage-cut" report, some executives predicted today.

The loans would be made in coming months as a major part of a 15-month $5,000,000,000 government-stimulated national defense program, in which utilities, automobile and airplane factories, chemical factories, and heavy industry generally also play big parts, they said.

While the loans were not expected to be offered in a "deal" to maintain present wage scales, it was pointed out that refusal of the roads to submit to the wage freezing recommendations of the president's rail fact-finding board, made public today, might precipitate a labor emergency which the government might take strong steps to forestall in the midst of a national defense program.

The proposal of government lending on a broad scale for national rehabilitation was described as still in a tentative state calling for extended discussion through coming weeks. (One month must elapse after today's report before roads could cut wages or labor could strike.)

Some key rail executives who reputedly turned down a previous government lending plan because of the terms, are said to look favorably upon the plan providing:

1. The terms of the lending do not lead to reorganization.
2. The government does not insist upon complete priority of its obligations over secured claims of private investors.
3. The interest rates are low.
4. The loans are payable out of income as business picks up.

Conferences about six weeks ago between some rail executives and administration leaders, brought about by steel manufacturers and rail equipment makers—who would profit possibly even more than the roads by such an expansion plan—came to nothing, they said, because of the terms suggested by government spokesmen.

Electric power consumption jumped 7.1 per cent in September as against the previous month.

Postal receipts for September were $13,016.64 as against $13,535.51 for August, a decline of 2.6 per cent.

Bank deposits remained stationary in September as compared with August, declining only 0.1 per cent.

Bank debits jumped 11.3 per cent in September over August, indicating appreciable business expansion.

Manufacturing sales jumped 72.4 per cent in September over August. This is the most significant trend in the business picture of Monroe. Improvement in the state as a whole was only 5.1 per cent.

Newspaper lineage increased eight per cent in September over August.

Employment showed that private concerns were working 15.3 per cent more people in September than in August, and public employment increased 88.9 per cent. There were 21 per cent less applications for employment in September than in August.

Figures for West Monroe were not available as the information received was obtained through the United States department of commerce and the Louisiana Business Review, neither of which make surveys in cities with less than 10,000 population.

SANDWICH SHOP HIT BY LOOSE TRAILER

A trailer, coming loose from a moving truck, left the street and crashed into the We Too Sandwich shop, operated by H. J. Banks at 1602 DeSiard street, early yesterday afternoon, doing considerable damage to the shop's kitchen, according to police reports.

Jessie Lee Brown, of Converse, driving a truck eastward on DeSiard, told police the coupling pin had become loose, disconnecting the trailer from the truck. The coupling pole on the trailer rammed through the kitchen on the north side of the building, knocking a hole in the wall and damaging plumbing fixtures. No one was reported injured. The accident occurred about 2 p. m.

It is not the earthquake that causes the crust of the earth to crack; it is the slipping of the crust that causes the quakes.

"game," all who participate in the big gifts contributions to the chest—real money this time—are paid $1,000 for every dollar they bring in which the just ordinary workers, those who have been assigned to tackle the average business man or citizen for his gift to the chest, is rewarded with $5,000 for every real dollar that is contributed.

The first payoff came, as stated, Saturday, and Mr. Clarkson, naturally of a generous nature, was even more than ordinarily generous as he passed 'em out.

The very first honors thus far will go to the team on which Harry Frazer and Sid Moss labored in the big gifts division. These gentlemen, when their names were called, were rewarded with the trifling sum, in "medicine money," of just an even "$1,900,000" thereby making them collectively in the class of multimillionaires. And this is not all. They still have more results to report so there is no telling where their wealth may rise within the next week.

In an aside, Moss confessed that 'twas too bad he'd have to pay so much of it back to Uncle Sam when he makes his next income tax report!

It was suggested that extra guards should be placed around Mr. Clarkson to preclude any bold holdup attempt but it was understood from a confidential source that there was a cordon of plain clothes men and detectives placed in the vicinity of the hotel lobby to be ready to meet any possible emergency.

Flanking this display of more "money" than Monroe has ever seen in cash at one time was an exhibit of nearly $1,000 in valuable prizes, donations of Monroe and West Monroe merchants, which will be auctioned off at the close of the drive and for which only "medicine money" can be used as medium of exchange. It is feared that those valuable radios and tires and other attractive offerings may bring as much as $200,000 or more each, when the final day comes for the auction sale.

Interest in the big campaign was at fever heat last night and the auction sale promises to be as big a public feature as the campaign itself. The public is invited to call at the Hotel Frances lobby and see the prizes on display.

And meantime that red mercury in the big street barometers climbs higher hour by hour!

tion of the dead man was not complete.

The accident occurred about 3:30 p.m., Dr. Sayre stated, as the automobile in which the men were riding was passing a truck. The automobile was said to have gotten out of control and turned over on three of the men, pinning them underneath the machine. Monroe Underwood, riding on the running board, was said to have leaped to safety, according to Dr. Sayre.

The Cordrey brothers were en route to Archibald and Wisner to visit their sisters, according to Mrs. Maggie Brown, of Archibald, who was at the bedside of her injured brother here last night. While passing through Rayville the two Arkansas men picked up Underwood and Ivy, who had asked for rides to their homes south of Rayville.

The accident occurred ten miles east of where Mrs. Henry Haas and Mrs. Hattye Levy, prominent Monroe women, were killed in an automobile accident last Wednesday afternoon.

Funeral arrangements for Frank Cordrey had not been made last night, but the body will be returned to Fountain Hill, near Hamburg, for burial.

The accident victim is survived by his wife; his mother, Mrs. Katie Cordrey of Fountain Hill; three sisters, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Myrtle Allen, both of Archibald, and Mrs. Emma Wilson of Wisner; and five brothers, Charley, Richard, Burnard, Riley and C. T. Cordrey, all of Fountain Hill.

district committee were present or represented by proxy at yesterday's meeting. The vote in favor of the motion to defer certification of a nominee, made by Judge Charles Schulze of Ouachita parish, was as follows:

T. J. Coenen, Richland parish; J. R. Adams, East Carroll; W. D. Dark, West Carroll, and holding proxies for Concordia and Catahoula parishes; Judge Schulze, H. B. Chambers, member-at-large and holding proxies from Madison, Lincoln and Jackson parishes.

Voting against the motion were the following:

D. J. Anders, Franklin parish; John D. Miller, Union; V. M. Mouser, Caldwell; Harvey G. Fields, chairman of the committee, member-at-large and holding the proxy for Tensas parish, and J. W. James, of Caldwell parish, member-at-large.

Following adjournment of the meeting, Chairman Fields announced that he had prepared a petition to the secretary of the state asking that Mills be declared the nominee and asked that all members of the committee who desired to sign the petition as individual citizens do so. Only five of the committee members present signed the petition. The petition set forth the reasons why Mills should be declared the nominee, stating that he had been "elected legally" and that the signers believed in "honesty, justice and courage."

The "fireworks" expected to materialize during the committee meeting failed to develop. At the outset, Chairman Fields warned that any person starting a demonstration or attempting to gain a hearing in the meeting would be ejected. A motion by Judge Schulze attempting to make the meeting an executive session, with everyone but committee members and the stenographers excluded, failed to carry when a tie vote of 8-8 was recorded.

After Chairman Fields had announced the results of the election as tabulated by a committee appointed by him, Judge Schulze introduced his resolution to defer certifying a nominee, and the law in question was argued. Mr. Mouser made his motion to adjourn but it was lost and after a motion by Mr. James had been made to adjourn for an hour and a half to allow a committee to call the secretary of state and consult with him concerning the law was voted down, a motion to adjourn indefinitely was voted.

The five members of the committee who signed the petition to the secretary of state urging certification of Mills were Mr. Fields, Mr. Miller, Mr. Anders, Mr. James and Mr. Coenen. It was made clear that they were signing the petition as individuals and not as members of the Democratic committee.

Further fuel to the fire was added by Shirley Wimberly, of New Orleans, an attorney for Todd in the petition for an injunction seeking to enjoin the committee from certifying Mills before Judge David I. Garrett Friday when he issued a signed statement in reply to Fields, who gave a statement to the press following the decision of Judge Garrett. Fields had said that Mills had most of the election officials against him and charged that in two boxes Todd had polled twice as many votes as had been registered.

"It ill behooves Fields, who barged into the case yesterday and represented himself as the representative of the Democratic executive committee for the Fifth congressional district, for whose members he had no authority at all to act, to comment one way or the other on this case," Wimberly's statement said.

"This interloper Fields, the chairman of the said committee, showed plainly by his silly conduct in the courtroom yesterday that he was a partisan of Newt V. Mills and was there solely and entirely to assist Mills in every way he could," the statement continued. "Every fairminded person knows that the chairman and members of the committee should be absolutely unbiased and impartial until the committee decides the matter pro and con and reaches its final decision as to whom that nominee should be. Fields has prejudged this matter, according to newspaper reports, and has made what almost amounts to a political stump-speech for Mills. If he had any regard for ethics or propriety, which I doubt seriously, he would certainly not attempt to take part in the deliberations of the committee. If I were a member of that committee I would certainly resent Fields' entrance into court yesterday and his spurious claim that he was representing and speaking for the other members of the committee whom he had no authority to represent and with whom he did not even bother to consult."

times and it was there, blind and a prisoner of the Philistines, he pulled down the temple of Dagon on himself and his enemies.

The British followed the same route that the late Lord Allenby took when he captured Gaza from the Turks in November, 1917.

As the troops entered the historic gates they were instructed to keep absolute silence, but the sound of the truck motors set Gaza's dogs to barking and almost spoiled the army's plans for a silent, surprise occupation.

Armed with bayoneted rifles, the soldiers, however, were able to cordon off the four main districts of the city quickly and then begin methodical searches.

Several hundred Arabs unable satisfactorily to identify themselves as residents of Gaza were detained.

Forcing the city's elders to guide them, 18 British searching parties entered each home. They confiscated considerable quantities of firearms and ammunition and discovered a large supply of old German and Turkish ammunition of World war vintage.

In contrast to the disastrous losses suffered by Allenby's forces here in 1917, the British army's operations today were completely successful.

Gaza, near the coast, was used by ancient Semitic tribes as a halfway point on the great frankincense route between Yemen and Hedjaz.

In recent months British charged that the city became the southernmost headquarters for Arab rebels who carried out sabotage of railways and telegraph and telephone lines, forcing the government finally to restrict the Palestine-Egypt train service.

Today's decisive drive largely was guards and the northshrdluetaoinuu the work of the crack Coldstream guards and the Northumberland fusiliers who were responsible for regaining control of the old city of Jerusalem from the Arabs last week.

purchases. While buying was not heavy, it suggested that once the problem of wages was settled, more new business might be forthcoming.

Business experts said a significant clue to future trends was the continued increase in employment and payrolls. The commerce department reported a rise in national income in September, the fourth consecutive monthly upswing.

The week also brought forth these statistics on industry:

The Associated Press index of industrial activity advanced 1.1 to 80.7, the highest since the middle of last November. A year ago it stood at 92.6.

The American Iron and Steel institute estimated steel production at 53.7 per cent of capacity, the highest in more than a year. A week ago it was 49.4, a year ago 52.1.

The Edison Electric institute reported power production in the week ended October 23 at 2,214,097,000 kilowatt hours, a moderate rise over the previous week but down three per cent from the like week last year.

Ward's reported automobile output at 73,335 units, compared with 68,360 the preceding week and 90,155 in the like week a year ago.

The Association of American Railroads announced that in the week ended October 23 carloadings totaled 705,628, a small decline from the week before and 8.4 per cent under the corresponding period last year.

whether they would be affected by the act. He said he believed they would not, but that only the courts could decide the question finally.

The status of newspaper reporters also became an issue before the division when Elisha Hanson, attorney for a subcommittee of publishers representing the American Newspaper Publishers association and eleven regional and state associations, directed an inquiry to Andrews.

He asked the administrator to define the status of daily newspapers under that section of the act which exempts "any employe engaged in any retail or service establishment the greater part of whose selling or servicing is in intrastate commerce."

Hanson cited several cases in which, he said, strict application of the law would result in exaggerated salaries for reporters on the basis of time and a half for overtime.

"Daily newspapers are not concerned with the minimum wage provisions of section 6," he added. "They pay far more than the minimum now. They are concerned with the mandatory overtime requirements of section 7, for the simple reason that if those provisions are held to apply to the newspaper publishing business, such application will make impossible for many, if not all daily newspapers, much of the service they now render."

Andrews has not yet made public a reply.

work, has been busily engaged in lining up her team captains. She announced Saturday night that she will have 18 team captains who will have three assistants on each team. The city will be districted and each team will have a special section assigned, giving housewives, who otherwise might be overlooked, an opportunity to contribute.

A "pep" meeting has been arranged for Hotel Frances, tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. when Mrs. Cox will meet all team workers and will give final instructions and all will receive their cards and will be assigned their territory to work. Mrs. Cox assured that all her workers are prepared to enter into their work with unlimited enthusiasm as they realize that the goal is already more than half reached and with this viewpoint they are prepared to do their best for the cause.

Radio talks will be continued through this week and also the short addresses in behalf of the chest will be given at the two leading theaters.

One feature of the campaign that has pleased and surprised all workers, has been the cordial manner in which they have been received. Sales resistance has been virtually nil as all approached have been seemingly in favor of the chest plan as a solution of the problem of civic financing.

Of interest to campaign workers was the holding of the annual membership meeting of the Young Women's Christian association on Thursday night. The "Y" is one of the important members of the agencies that will be assisted by the chest. The "Y" report, as rendered at the annual meeting by the president, Mrs. J. B. Kugler, showed that the organization is in good finances as the year closes and with the aid promised by the chest, the outlook for the year to come is exceptionally bright. The "Y" is in charge of Mrs. Ivo Wilson, general secretary, who is a thoroughly capable official.

BOARD ADVISES AGAINST SLASH

the financial emergency of the industry, since the savings would not be distributed merely to the needy roads.

"3. A wage reduction in the railroad industry would run counter to the trend of wage rates in industry generally.

"4. The financial distress of the carriers which has obtained since October, 1937, when the last wage increases were granted, is as yet a short-term situation. As such, it cannot be regarded as grounds for a wage reduction, especially in view of present indications of an improvement in the business of the carriers.

"5. In the light of these findings, the board concludes that the proposal of the carriers for a reduction of the wages of railway labor should not be pressed and recommends that the carriers withdraw and cancel the notices which would put such a reduction into operation as of December 1, 1938."

The board is composed of Chief Justice Walter P. Stacy of the North Carolina supreme court, who served on similar boards in the Coolidge and Harding administrations; Dean James M. Landis of the Harvard law school, and Professor Harry A. Millis of the University of Chicago.

After detailing reasons for its findings, the board said it had been impressed "with the necessity that now rests on the government for a complete and throughgoing reconsideration of the relationship of the railroad industry to our national well-being."

RAILROADS MAY GET LOANS OF $1,000,000,000

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Railroads of the country may be offered about $1,000,000,000 in rehabilitation loans on easy terms by the federal government as a sequel to submission to the "no-wage-cut" report, some executives predicted today.

The loans would be made in coming months as a major part of a 15-month $5,000,000,000 government-stimulated national defense program, in which utilities, automobile and airplane factories, chemical factories, and heavy industry generally also play big parts, they said.

While the loans were not expected to be offered in a "deal" to maintain present wage scales, it was pointed out that refusal of the roads to submit to the wage freezing recommendations of the president's rail fact-finding board, made public today, might precipitate a labor emergency which the government might take strong steps to forestall in the midst of a national defense program.

The proposal of government lending on a broad scale for national rehabilitation was described as still in a tentative state calling for extended discussion through coming weeks. (One month must elapse after today's report before roads could cut wages or labor could strike.)

Some key rail executives who reputedly turned down a previous government lending plan because of the terms, are said to look favorably upon the plan providing:

1. The terms of the lending do not lead to reorganization.
2. The government does not insist upon complete priority of its obligations over secured claims of private investors.
3. The interest rates are low.
4. The loans are payable out of income as business picks up.

Conferences about six weeks ago between some rail executives and administration leaders, brought about by steel manufacturers and rail equipment makers—who would profit possibly even more than the roads by such an expansion plan—came to nothing, they said, because of the terms suggested by government spokesmen.

cars for September as against 1,041, an increase of 7.1 per cent.

Electric power consumption jumped 7.1 per cent in September as against the previous month.

Postal receipts for September were $13,016.64 as against $13,535.51 for August, a decline of 2.6 per cent.

Bank deposits remained stationary in September as compared with August, declining only 0.1 per cent.

Bank debits jumped 11.3 per cent in September over August, indicating appreciable business expansion.

Manufacturing sales jumped 72.4 per cent in September over August. This is the most significant trend in the business picture of Monroe. Improvement in the state as a whole was only 5.1 per cent.

Newspaper lineage increased eight per cent in September over August.

Employment showed that private concerns were working 15.3 per cent more people in September than in August, and public employment increased 88.9 per cent. There were 21 per cent less applications for employment in September than in August.

Figures for West Monroe were not available as the information received was obtained through the United States department of commerce and the Louisiana Business Review, neither of which make surveys in cities with less than 10,000 population.

SANDWICH SHOP HIT BY LOOSE TRAILER

A trailer, coming loose from a moving truck, left the street and crashed into the We Too Sandwich shop, operated by H. J. Banks at 1602 DeSiard street, early yesterday afternoon, doing considerable damage to the shop's kitchen, according to police reports.

Jessie Lee Brown, of Converse, driving a truck eastward on DeSiard, told police the coupling pin had become loose, disconnecting the trailer from the truck. The coupling pole on the trailer rammed through the kitchen on the north side of the building, knocking a hole in the wall and damaging plumbing fixtures. No one was reported injured. The accident occurred about 2 p. m.

It is not the earthquake that causes the crust of the earth to crack; it is the slipping of the crust that causes the quakes.

"game," all who participate in the big gifts contributions to the chest—real money this time—are paid $1,000 for every dollar they bring in which the just ordinary workers, those who have been assigned to tackle the average business man or citizen for his gift to the chest, is rewarded with $5,000 for every real dollar that is contributed.

The first payoff came, as stated, Saturday, and Mr. Clarkson, naturally of a generous nature, was even more than ordinarily generous as he passed 'em out.

The very first honors thus far will go to the team on which Harry Frazer and Sid Moss labored in the big gifts division. These gentlemen, when their names were called, were rewarded with the trifling sum, in "medicine money," of just an even "$1,900,000" thereby making them collectively in the class of multimillionaires. And this is not all. They still have more results to report so there is no telling where their wealth may rise within the next week.

In an aside, Moss confessed that 'twas too bad he'd have to pay so much of it back to Uncle Sam when he makes his next income tax report!

It was suggested that extra guards should be placed around Mr. Clarkson to preclude any bold holdup attempt but it was understood from a confidential source that there was a cordon of plain clothes men and detectives placed in the vicinity of the hotel lobby to be ready to meet any possible emergency.

Flanking this display of more "money" than Monroe has ever seen in cash at one time was an exhibit of nearly $1,000 in valuable prizes, donations of Monroe and West Monroe merchants, which will be auctioned off at the close of the drive and for which only "medicine money" can be used as medium of exchange. It is feared that those valuable radios and tires and other attractive offerings may bring as much as $200,000 or more each, when the final day comes for the auction sale.

Interest in the big campaign was at fever heat last night and the auction sale promises to be as big a public feature as the campaign itself. The public is invited to call at the Hotel Frances lobby and see the prizes on display.

And meantime that red mercury in the big street barometers climbs higher hour by hour!

tion of the dead man was not complete.

The accident occurred about 3:30 p.m., Dr. Sayre stated, as the automobile in which the men were riding was passing a truck. The automobile was said to have gotten out of control and turned over on three of the men, pinning them underneath the machine. Monroe Underwood, riding on the running board, was said to have leaped to safety, according to Dr. Sayre.

The Cordrey brothers were en route to Archibald and Wisner to visit their sisters, according to Mrs. Maggie Brown, of Archibald, who was at the bedside of her injured brother here last night. While passing through Rayville the two Arkansas men picked up Underwood and Ivy, who had asked for rides to their homes south of Rayville.

The accident occurred ten miles east of where Mrs. Henry Haas and Mrs. Hattye Levy, prominent Monroe women, were killed in an automobile accident last Wednesday afternoon.

Funeral arrangements for Frank Cordrey had not been made last night, but the body will be returned to Fountain Hill, near Hamburg, for burial.

MAJORITY ASKS COURT DECISION

district committee were present or represented by proxy at yesterday's meeting. The vote in favor of the motion to defer certification of a nominee, made by Judge Charles Schulze of Ouachita parish, was as follows:

T. J. Coenen, Richland parish; J. R. Adams, East Carroll; W. D. Dark, West Carroll, and holding proxies for Concordia and Catahoula parishes; Judge Schulze, H. B. Chambers, member-at-large and holding proxies from Madison, Lincoln and Jackson parishes.

Voting against the motion were the following:

D. J. Anders, Franklin parish; John D. Miller, Union; V. M. Mouser, Caldwell; Harvey G. Fields, chairman of the committee, member-at-large and holding the proxy for Tensas parish, and J. W. James, of Caldwell parish, member-at-large.

Following adjournment of the meeting, Chairman Fields announced that he had prepared a petition to the secretary of the state asking that Mills be declared the nominee and asked that all members of the committee who desired to sign the petition as individual citizens do so. Only five of the committee members present signed the petition. The petition set forth the reasons why Mills should be declared the nominee, stating that he had been "elected legally" and that the signers believed in "honesty, justice and courage."

The "fireworks" expected to materialize during the committee meeting failed to develop. At the outset, Chairman Fields warned that any person starting a demonstration or attempting to gain a hearing in the meeting would be ejected. A motion by Judge Schulze attempting to make the meeting an executive session, with everyone but committee members and the stenographers excluded, failed to carry when a tie vote of 8-8 was recorded.

After Chairman Fields had announced the results of the election as tabulated by a committee appointed by him, Judge Schulze introduced his resolution to defer certifying a nominee, and the law in question was argued. Mr. Mouser made his motion to adjourn but it was lost and after a motion by Mr. James had been made to adjourn for an hour and a half to allow a committee to call the secretary of state and consult with him concerning the law was voted down, a motion to adjourn indefinitely was voted.

The five members of the committee who signed the petition to the secretary of state urging certification of Mills were Mr. Fields, Mr. Miller, Mr. Anders, Mr. James and Mr. Coenen. It was made clear that they were signing the petition as individuals and not as members of the Democratic committee.

Further fuel to the fire was added by Shirley Wimberly, of New Orleans, an attorney for Todd in the petition for an injunction seeking to enjoin the committee from certifying Mills before Judge David I. Garrett Friday when he issued a signed statement in reply to Fields, who gave a statement to the press following the decision of Judge Garrett. Fields had said that Mills had most of the election officials against him and charged that in two boxes Todd had polled twice as many votes as had been registered.

"It ill behooves Fields, who barged into the case yesterday and represented himself as the representative of the Democratic executive committee for the Fifth congressional district, for whose members he had no authority at all to act, to comment one way or the other on this case," Wimberly's statement said.

"This interloper Fields, the chairman of the said committee, showed plainly by his silly conduct in the courtroom yesterday that he was a partisan of Newt V. Mills and was there solely and entirely to assist Mills in every way he could," the statement continued. "Every fairminded person knows that the chairman and members of the committee should be absolutely unbiased and impartial until the committee decides the matter pro and con and reaches its final decision as to whom that nominee should be. Fields has prejudged this matter, according to newspaper reports, and has made what almost amounts to a political stump-speech for Mills. If he had any regard for ethics or propriety, which I doubt seriously, he would certainly not attempt to take part in the deliberations of the committee. If I were a member of that committee I would certainly resent Fields' entrance into court yesterday and his spurious claim that he was representing and speaking for the other members of the committee whom he had no authority to represent and with whom he did not even bother to consult."

BRITISH TROOPS AGAIN VICTORS

times and it was there, blind and a prisoner of the Philistines, he pulled down the temple of Dagon on himself and his enemies.

The British followed the same route that the late Lord Allenby took when he captured Gaza from the Turks in November, 1917.

As the troops entered the historic gates they were instructed to keep absolute silence, but the sound of the truck motors set Gaza's dogs to barking and almost spoiled the army's plans for a silent, surprise occupation.

Armed with bayoneted rifles, the soldiers, however, were able to cordon off the four main districts of the city quickly and then begin methodical searches.

Several hundred Arabs unable satisfactorily to identify themselves as residents of Gaza were detained.

Forcing the city's elders to guide them, 18 British searching parties entered each home. They confiscated considerable quantities of firearms and ammunition and discovered a large supply of old German and Turkish ammunition of World war vintage.

In contrast to the disastrous losses suffered by Allenby's forces here in 1917, the British army's operations today were completely successful.

Gaza, near the coast, was used by ancient Semitic tribes as a halfway point on the great frankincense route between Yemen and Hedjaz.

In recent months British charged that the city became the southernmost headquarters for Arab rebels who carried out sabotage of railways and telegraph and telephone lines, forcing the government finally to restrict the Palestine-Egypt train service.

Today's decisive drive largely was guards and the northshrdluetaoinuu the work of the crack Coldstream guards and the Northumberland fusiliers who were responsible for regaining control of the old city of Jerusalem from the Arabs last week.

purchases. While buying was not heavy, it suggested that once the problem of wages was settled, more new business might be forthcoming.

Business experts said a significant clue to future trends was the continued increase in employment and payrolls. The commerce department reported a rise in national income in September, the fourth consecutive monthly upswing.

The week also brought forth these statistics on industry:

The Associated Press index of industrial activity advanced 1.1 to 80.7, the highest since the middle of last November. A year ago it stood at 92.6.

The American Iron and Steel institute estimated steel production at 53.7 per cent of capacity, the highest in more than a year. A week ago it was 49.4, a year ago 52.1.

The Edison Electric institute reported power production in the week ended October 23 at 2,214,097,000 kilowatt hours, a moderate rise over the previous week but down three per cent from the like week last year.

Ward's reported automobile output at 73,335 units, compared with 68,360 the preceding week and 90,155 in the like week a year ago.

The Association of American Railroads announced that in the week ended October 23 carloadings totaled 705,628, a small decline from the week before and 8.4 per cent under the corresponding period last year.

Fine For Weak Acid Kidneys And Bladder Irritation

STOP GETTING UP NIGHTS

One 35-cent box of these famous capsules will put healthy activity into your kidneys and bladder—flush out harmful waste, poisons and acid and prove to you that at last you have a grand diuretic and stimulant that will swiftly cause these troubles to cease.

But be sure and get GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules—safe and harmless—the original and genuine—right from Haarlem in Holland. Millions have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it—some symptoms besides visits to bathroom at night are backache, moist palms, puffy eyes and scanty passage that ofttimes smarts and burns.—Adv.

LEADER IN CAMP FIRE TO VISIT

Miss Catherine Lee Wahlstrom Will Speak In Schools Of Twin Cities

Miss Catherine Lee Wahlstrom, member of the national field staff of Camp Fire girls, will come to Monroe and will make a visit to grade schools of the city Monday morning and afternoon. She will meet Camp Fire girls in their home, 707 St. John street, Monday from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. She will bring an excellent exhibit from national headquarters in New York City.

Miss Wahlstrom is specially interested in problems of leadership and has had years of experience in Camp Fire work as executive in Battle Creek, Mich., and in Pasadena, Calif. Before entering Camp Fire professionally, Miss Wahlstrom served as Camp Fire guardian, Blue Bird leader, and chairman of the Guardians' association in Los Angeles.

Miss Wahlstrom attended the Mary Baldwin seminary in Virginia, graduated from the University of Southern California, and it was there she also took her master's degree in sociology, with a thesis on "Leadership in Group Work."

Since Catherine Wahlstrom had already served several years as an executive in Camp Fire, she based part of her survey on what qualities Camp Fire girls said it took to make a good leader. Her theory that "no one can teach more than she is" was proved by the girls' insistence on good character traits among leaders. Votes ran highest for thoughtfulness, honesty, and ability to cooperate, with knowledge of skills running lower on the list. Their chief criticism of poor leaders was "attempt to steal the whole show."

"All Camp Fire guardians get more than they give out of leading a group of girls," according to Miss Wahlstrom. "I had one of the happiest trips of my life, so far, taking 14 girls on a gypsy trip to New York. We left Battle Creek in two automobiles, visited Niagara Falls, Albany, Atlantic City, Philadelphia, Gettysburg, Pittsburg, Cleveland, Detroit, and then home, sleeping out every night, rain or shine, in bedrolls, cooking all meals over open fires, with the exception of one memorable feast in an automat in New York."

An Eerie Night

This sophisticated and materialistic world no longer believes in ghosts, good fairies and magic charms but this has not detracted at all from the traditional observance of Halloween, the eve of All Saints' day and the night on which the shadowy denizens of the spirit world return to earthly haunts.

So tomorrow evening in Monroe, when night draws her curtain across the world, the unbelieving worldlings will supplant the "real" ghosts, black cats and broomstick witches with a make-believe eerie realm of cut paper, noise makers and pumpkin faces.

Halloween parties, street carnivals with masks, costumes and confetti, and prank-playing have universal permission to monopolize the spotlight. And as the witching hour of twelve draws near there will be some unfaithful ones glancing covertly back at their shifting shadows and jumping at every squeak of the chamber stairway.

After all, Halloween wouldn't be half so much fun if there were no superstition. Suggestion of realism does not make it any less effective for the purposes of All-hallow night.

In its merrymaking let not the community forget the double significance of this night. Primarily this will be an observance of All Saints' eve, but it is also a harvest celebration. The frosty pumpkin, the rustling corn shock and the bobbing apple play an important part in this nocturnal celebration and inseparably link Halloween with the harvest time.

A wit has pointed out that the good saints have shown a rare wisdom by making their annual pilgrimage back to earth in the heart of the harvest season.

AMEND SECURITY LAW

Congress can scarcely ignore the widespread demand for revision of the social security law, particularly with respect to the building up of huge reserve funds during the next two decades.

It seems reasonable for the benefits to be extended to retired persons over 60 years of age without further delay. Accumulation of millions of dollars at Washington will only tempt the political spenders into using the money for current operating expenses.

That, in fact, already threatens. The idea is to "borrow" the security funds through the issuance of government I. O. U.'s. But such a course would mean double taxation, for the people eventually would have to pay back the "borrowed" funds in terms of higher federal taxes. They would then be in the position of being soaked first by the payroll assessment and then by a special levy to make good the bonds.

Several European nations have established sound social security programs without such reserve funds as are being built up at Washington. Congress, accordingly, need not feel it is following an untested course if and when it drops a fiscal farce that is favored chiefly by politicians who think they see in it an easy way of raiding the pocketbooks of American citizens.

GOOD NEWS AT HOME

The most interesting news this month did not come from the nerve centers of the world abroad. It was domestic news, a brief statement from Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., that General Motors corporation was hiring 35,000 men and would restore pay cuts and grant pay increases to thousands more of its employes.

But there was more to the announcement than just the hiring of more men and higher salaries. For in the announcement was a single line that speaks volumes in these days of rapidly shifting relationships between labor and capital.

"The corporation recognizes its responsibility not only in its own interest but in the interest of its workers and the national economy as a whole to provide as much work as it possibly can . . ." Here is the heart of the matter. One of the great industrial companies believes it worthwhile to make public announcement of its recognition of a responsibility to its employes.

Sloan's announcement had an immediate effect on the stock market. But its greatest effect is not on the market, or even on the pay envelopes of thousands of men directly affected. It was in the improved relationship that is bound to come between labor and capital with the recognition of new responsibilities.

ANTI-AIRCRAFT RESULTS

The anti-aircraft maneuvers at Fort Bragg, N. C., proved civilian observers extremely effective in the detection of airplanes overhead.

Another result was definite approval of a new anti-aircraft gun, a little 37 mm. weapon which is said to be effective up to 10,000 feet. The new gun fires about 120 rounds a minute and is of a type first tested in the United States in 1926.

A third result will undoubtedly be a considerable clamor on the part of many people to learn why a gun that was new in 1926 is still new today. Why the army has not adopted this type gun and developed it is a question many people will want answered.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

WASHINGTON—Army officers can't speak out on controversial subjects while they wear the army pants but until Secretary of War Woodring clamped down on General George Van Horn Moseley, they had thought they regained freedom of speech when they retired.

The net result is that army officers (even so quietly) and the semi-official journals of the military services (ever so loudly) have loosed an anguished cry against the sort of suppression they thought Woodring had attempted.

The thing started when Moseley, on the day he recently retired from the army, issued a public statement boiling over with criticism of certain administration policies.

The General Fires

"Not since the days of the secession has the future of America hung by so narrow a thread," he said. He criticised Aubrey Williams of the National Youth administration for predicting that United States contributions to relief were here to stay. "Increased paternalism will inevitably become dictatorship," said Moseley. He called some projects "visionary" and said "others appear to cloak a sinister ulterior motive behind a humanitarian front."

In truth these were sharp words and the general run of officers were a bit surprised at the heat, but not half so surprised as when Woodring issued a brief but biting statement saying Moseley's remarks were evidence of "pique" at his failure of selection for chief of staff, a job that went to General Malin Craig. Altogether, said Woodring, it was a "flagrantly disloyal statement."

Woodring 'Shocked' Them

It was on that last point that the soldier services balked. The Army and Navy Register and Navy Journal, semi-official publications, carried editorials expressing "shock at the strong words of Secretary Woodring."

Moseley himself retorted that he had not been eligible for the job of chief of staff. He said he had been too closely associated in an official capacity with the Hoover administration for that, and further, that he hadn't enough time to serve in the army before retirement to justify his appointment.

"Army officers," said the Register, "have been brought up to believe that 'loyalty' works both ways; that a man who expects loyalty from subordinates must display loyalty toward them."

The Journal said the general had "performed a public service in suggesting that we forget foreign affairs and tend to our own while we settle our own problems."

Some Precedents Cited

As an immediate precedent, the Journal suggested that General Martin, just defeated for reelection as governor of Oregon, "has never hesitated to criticise policies he believed harmful."

Other officers have spoken out after retirement, notably General Smedley D. Butler of the Marines, General Johnson Hagood, the late Admiral Sims, and General William Mitchell. The latter spoke out before hand, too, and left the service as a result.

In the main they aimed their shots at military conditions, but the officers felt that a man retired from the army was entitled to cut loose at will and their joy was no end great when a check—sample of editorial opinion showed it strong in support of their position.

LANGUAGE OF EUROPE

By BRUCE CATTON

It is nearly a quarter of a century since the United States had its first great row over military preparedness.

When Woodrow Wilson launched a huge naval building campaign shortly before America's entrance into the World war, the drive received a very mixed reception. Welcomed by some, it drew bitter opposition from others. The average citizen went along with it and paid the bills without too much grumbling, but he probably never did feel that the whole business was really necessary. And when the post-war Washington conference eased the load he felt that things had at last got back to normal again.

Now we are coming up to a new preparedness campaign; and this time it is doubtful that there will be one-tenth of the opposition there was before. The world is a different sort of place now, and the American people have had an unmistakable object lesson or two about the change.

It is true that we have been spending huge sums on our army and navy for several years. Both arms of the service are probably far more nearly ready for war than at any previous time in American history. But the president apparently feels that what might be called normal peace-time preparedness is no longer good enough. This is a day of super-armaments, and no nation that wishes to make its voice heard can afford to be outclassed.

For international relations today are conducted, unhappily enough, over the sharp edge of a drawn sword. Recent events in central Europe make it all too clear that sheer power has the last word nowadays. Britain and France backed down in the Czech crisis, not because their statesmen were cowards, but because it was perfectly obvious that the other side carried too many guns.

So a program of re-armament does not mean that we are getting ready to fight somebody. It simply means that we are making certain that our voice shall be heard if it becomes necessary for us to speak. And we do not need to look all the way to central Europe for signs that we may eventually want to do some talking.

The great dictator nations are compelled to look ceaselessly for new resources to exploit, new fields to penetrate, new areas to bring under their sway. South America lies open before them. Mexico looms a tempting morsel: we might as well realize that the advance agents of European imperialism are busy in our own back yard, offering a still-unrealized but nevertheless direct threat to our vital interests.

An America fully able to strike a swift and crushing blow would be listened to; an America unable to do so might be ignored—and in consequence there might easily develop a situation to which war was the only solution.

We have no wish to meddle in Europe's quarrels. But if Europe thrusts a quarrel on us, we should be ready with the right sort of answer.

A BOOK REVIEW

THE ARCTIC HAS WHAT IT TAKES

It is interesting to try to figure out just what this "spell of the northland" really consists of. The frozen north is from all accounts one of the most monotonous and unpleasant regions on earth; it is cold, dreary, hostile, and barren, guaranteed to give all comers a beating. Yet people who go there are fascinated—and we stay-at-homes read all we can get about it.

Part of the answer, perhaps, is contained in Robert Flaherty's "The Captain's Chair."

Mr. Flaherty spins a yarn about adventure on the shores of Hudson bay; about a lone white man who undertakes to study mineral deposits in the bleak regions north of the timberline and makes prodigious winter sledge journeys; about Eskimos who get cast away on desolate Arctic islands and carve out a living for themselves against unbelievable odds; and about a ship captain who fights gales, fogs, ice, uncharted reefs, and all the perverse cussedness of Arctic misfortune.

It's exciting reading, and fascinating to boot; but what makes it so fascinating? Why do we get pleasure out of identifying ourselves with men who are up against the primal realities of cold, darkness and hunger? Why is it somehow so prodigiously moving to get a preview of what the last man will see before the last curtain comes down?

Figure it out if you can. Whatever the reason, "The Captain's Chair" has an appeal beyond that of mere "adventure stuff," and it makes ideal reading for a cold autumn evening by a warm fire.

Human Side Of The News

(Copyright, 1938, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

The first known story about German spies was written by Tacitus, the Roman historian, somewhere around the year 100 A. D. He told of their methods of secret communication. In the days of Charlemagne, they used a disc code, with one forward-reading alphabet and six backward alphabets. In the Franco-Prussian war, they used an ancient Greek device, consisting of a rod and a spirally wound parchment, which could be deciphered when wound only a certain way.

Against the lurid backdrop of historic spy melodrama, our German spy trial seems quite a modest and tame disclosure. There is a red-headed girl, to be sure, but E. Phillips Oppenheim couldn't use her to model one of those sloe-eyed, slinking suborners of treason which the script calls for in cases like this. There was a bit of anticlimax, too, in the army sergeant putting an advertisement in a German newspaper, saying he would like a spying job, and the Germans coming through with another ad in a New York paper, telling him to report for duty.

I have an idea that the government and their G-men have just been skimming the surface of this spy business, involving not only Germany but other nations. One may read a book called "The Enemy Within," published about a year ago, for overdue news of what the Germans were getting away with before and after our entrance into the World war. There was certainly nothing hesitant or casual about their efforts in those days, and the odds are that that holds for today.

While the Germans seem to be taking all the tricks now, both in espionage and propaganda, all over the world, the fact is that they aren't very good at spying. Britain's Sir Alfred Ewing, grizzled little Scotchman, ran rings around them during the World war. Sir Alfred, with a night-and-day staff of 50 cryptographers, in his famous room 40 of the department of the admiralty, made the Germans look like a lot of rookies in the spy league. It would be difficult to cite any one man who did more to win the war for the allies.

One of his best bets was the fake code message. He would rig an order for troop or fleet movements in some easily broken cryptogram. The Germans would decode it handily, gloat over their sagacity and make the tactical blunder which Sir Alfred had planned for them. He was a scientist and mathematician, and he rigged some of the slickest codes ever invented any time. Some of his feats in breaking down enemy codes were all but unbelievable.

We were dewey innocents in the spying and coding business when the war started. However, working up puzzle talk, our lads sent a critically important message, in their newly devised code, to their colleagues in Europe. It was "PSMM." Old Sir Alfred glanced at it and read it like a billboard: "Pershing sails Monday morning."

We did better than that as the war went on, and after the war, Major Herbert O. Yardley's "Black Chamber," the state department coding and decoding office, worked authentic black magic in breaking codes and uncovering spying activities.

I am informed that, with second thought and disillusionment, the government is again cocking up an ear to alien whispers and subversions and that we have an underground organization which knows a lot more about what the foreign spies are doing than it lets on. The spy mania of the war years is not a happy memory, and one hopes that present goings on will not incite an army of amateur spy-chasers.

The whole business is not exactly in our national Karma, but neither is tame submissiveness to foreign espionage and sabotage. I have an idea that we shall be able to protect ourselves in the clinches.

A former secret service investigator tells me that most of this gaudy woman spy business is bunk. Women, he says, rarely make good spies. Their affections are apt to get mixed up with their work. They are apt to get some stubborn ideas of their own as to just how things should be done, and somehow they can't resist a temptation to attain high visibility on occasion, when they ought to be just oozin' around quietly.

An old Athenian general, whose name I have mislaid, tells of the neatest cryptogram trick of the centuries. They would shave a slave's head, tattoo a message on the bald skull and let the hair grow. The slave would deliver himself, submit to a haircut and the message would be read. Then they would kill the slave so they wouldn't be bothered hiding him. Fortunate are the bald-headed men. They won't have to take up this line of work. But youngsters may, if the slave state keeps on winning over the free state.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

"Just look at Peter. If I asked him to work as hard as that, one-tenth as hard, and I'd be ashamed to ask it, he would collapse on the instant. But he will work like that, using every pound he has, oblivious to anything and everything but his play, until it is too dark for him to see. Now why won't he do his school work like that?"

Because a child's play is his personal expression of his personal feeling. While he attends to doing what he elects to do, he is enjoying the greatest feeling a human being knows—freedom of spirit. While he works, or, as he calls it, plays, he is running his mind without brakes. The moment his activity is directed, or imposed, which is the same thing, his mind is working with the brakes on. When his mind runs free, with no outside control, it is tireless. When it has to drag under the weight of another mind, it tires very quickly.

This is why all good teachers strive to make school work become so acceptable to the mind of the pupil that he makes it his own and allows himself to become absorbed in it. The teacher knows that as long as a lesson must be imposed on a child's mind the child is working under the control of another and so is not doing anything that will make any fundamental difference to his thinking and behavior. He gains knowledge, information, perhaps technique, but these are useless until he is moved by some self-born idea, to use them to his own ends.

Schools as they are organized today cannot offer children opportunities for self-activity. How can a teacher whose work is set by the course of study, whose success is measured by the children's marks, whose sole equipment is the room with its benches, books and sheets of paper, give children—40 or 50 of them—time, space, material and stimulation for original, creative expression? Impossible. And it is highly unfair to say that, under such conditions, the public school teachers are failing. They work miracles.

Nor is it fair to ask them to take on methods of teaching that make discipline and work harder without compensations of success. When a class of little ones in the first grade, who are learning to read out of a primer, are asked to learn to read through activity, and this activity means tracing, cutting, coloring a horse and printing a pupil's name under the result, the process is not to be labelled self-activity. Not if one is at all thoughtful. Cutting out the figure of an object under the direction of the teacher is not self-expression of an idea. It is an imposed lesson even if the teacher says, "Who would like to make a horse?" They know they would better like to make a horse. It is a choice between that and sitting still, hoping to be called on once in 40 minutes. It is a relief, but it is not self-activity.

Children in elementary schools must learn the fundamentals of knowledge thoroughly, no second thought about them. Then the school program and the school buildings, and the schools' equipment must be set to offer time, space, opportunity for the work the children elect to do. And for this purpose teachers, and supervisors, especially the supervisors, must be trained. A word on the program does not alter educational facts.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON.—Election of 32 governors, 37 senators and 432 members of the house of representatives on Nov. 8 may be expected to produce a net Republican gain for the first time since the Hoover landslide of 1928.

Democrats, holding 39 of the 48 governorships, 76 of 96 senate seats and 328 of the 435 house seats, admittedly are on the defensive, although party control of congress isn't even remotely threatened and they will keep control of most state capitals. They expect certain losses and are fighting to keep them as few as possible.

The 1940 presidential nominations and election are on many political minds. Recovery of a few large states lost in the last 10 years would boast G. O. P. hopes of a national comeback two years hence. Several candidates in senatorial and gubernatorial contests already are embryo presidential candidates and will be regarded as 1940 "possibilities" if they win.

Big Stakes, Big Names

In some states President Roosevelt and the New Dealers particularly, as well as the Democratic party in general, have much at stake.

The list of "doubtful" states this year is a long one, as Republicans see it. Great states such as New York, Pennsylvania, California, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota, Massachusetts, Kansas and Wisconsin are ringing with the cries of battle and charges and counter-charges which increase in vigor—sometimes in viciousness—as election day nears.

Nationally familiar names and political fates of outstanding leaders figure in some of the warmest contests—Bob Wagner, Herbert Lehman, Frank Murphy, Fred Van Nuys, Phil La Follette, Gerald Nye, George Earle, Elmer Benson and John O'Connor.

Hard-hitting newcomers have popped up on the national scene—among them Tom Dewey Sheridan Downey, Harold Stassen, Leverett Saltonstall Clyde Reed and Robert A. Taft. Some of them may be sent back to political oblivion. Others may win and go on to fame. In some states such men have brought new life and more liberalism to the Republican party.

The New Deal is an issue here and there but not importantly so everywhere. Many Democratic candidates hope to benefit from Roosevelt popularity and their opponents bank on a backswing against parts of the Roosevelt program, if not against the president himself. There is nothing resembling the 1934 rush of Democratic and Republican candidates alike to ride Roosevelt coat-tails. On the other hand, there's no general Republican onslaught against the president and issues vary from state to state.

G. O. P. Counts On Natural Swing

Primarily Republicans are counting on a natural midterm swing away from the party in power such as failed to appear in 1934. Further, G. O. P. experts figure:

Although the sharp 1937-38 depression which they once counted on for a major campaign issue appears to have ended and business is improving, a substantial group of voters is impressed with the idea that Roosevelt has no magic wand for maintaining a recovery trend. Especially this is true among farmers, whose resentment against present low prices endangers several Democratic candidates.

Although admitting Roosevelt popularity, G. O. P. candidates learned from the "purge" primary results that political capital can be made by attacking "yes men," "one-man governments" trends and such measures as the president's supreme court plan and reorganization bill. Most of them are following that line.

They believe the administration has been hurt by John L. Lewis, its 1936 political alliance with him and subsequent prejudice which has arisen against C. I. O. Farmers especially oppose C. I. O. and shrink at the thought of hired hands going on strike. Secretary Hull's trade treaties and their alleged harm is being used by Republicans in some districts.

"Reckless expenditure" as an issue doesn't get much of a rise out of voters, Republicans say, but in several states they are hitting hard at alleged corruption of Democratic machines, WPA scandals and graft, pointing out that the New Deal depends on such machines for election victories.

F. D. R. Will Have His Say

New, liberal and sometimes fantastic old age pension schemes are issues in some states—espoused by Republicans Democrats or both. And any candidate favored by C. I. O. or Labor's Non-Partisan league is likely to be dubbed "communist" by his opponent.

Herbert Hoover, Alf Landon and National Chairman John D. M. Hamilton have been emitting the chief national Republican campaign blasts. Democratic Chairman Jim Farley and other cabinet members have been sounding off for the Democrats. The campaign speech of the year presumably will be a radio address by Roosevelt the night of Nov. 4, when the president speaks "as a citizen of New York" while the nation listens in.

One state election has been held. Maine, in September, elected a Republican governor and three Republican congressmen.

An Eerie Night

This sophisticated and materialistic world no longer believes in ghosts, good fairies and magic charms but this has not detracted at all from the traditional observance of Halloween, the eve of All Saints' day and the night on which the shadowy denizens of the spirit world return to earthly haunts.

So tomorrow evening in Monroe, when night draws her curtain across the world, the unbelieving worldlings will supplant the "real" ghosts, black cats and broomstick witches with a make-believe eerie realm of cut paper, noise makers and pumpkin faces.

Halloween parties, street carnivals with masks, costumes and confetti, and prank-playing have universal permission to monopolize the spotlight. And as the witching hour of twelve draws near there will be some unfaithful ones glancing covertly back at their shifting shadows and jumping at every squeak of the chamber stairway.

After all, Halloween wouldn't be half so much fun if there were no superstition. Suggestion of realism does not make it any less effective for the purposes of All-hallow night.

In its merrymaking let not the community forget the double significance of this night. Primarily this will be an observance of All Saints' eve, but it is also a harvest celebration. The frosty pumpkin, the rustling corn shock and the bobbing apple play an important part in this nocturnal celebration and inseparably link Halloween with the harvest time.

A wit has pointed out that the good saints have shown a rare wisdom by making their annual pilgrimage back to earth in the heart of the harvest season.

AMEND SECURITY LAW

Congress can scarcely ignore the widespread demand for revision of the social security law, particularly with respect to the building up of huge reserve funds during the next two decades.

It seems reasonable for the benefits to be extended to retired persons over 60 years of age without further delay. Accumulation of millions of dollars at Washington will only tempt the political spenders into using the money for current operating expenses.

That, in fact, already threatens. The idea is to "borrow" the security funds through the issuance of government I. O. U.'s. But such a course would mean double taxation, for the people eventually would have to pay back the "borrowed" funds in terms of higher federal taxes. They would then be in the position of being soaked first by the payroll assessment and then by a special levy to make good the bonds.

Several European nations have established sound social security programs without such reserve funds as are being built up at Washington. Congress, accordingly, need not feel it is following an untested course if and when it drops a fiscal farce that is favored chiefly by politicians who think they see in it an easy way of raiding the pocketbooks of American citizens.

GOOD NEWS AT HOME

The most interesting news this month did not come from the nerve centers of the world abroad. It was domestic news, a brief statement from Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., that General Motors corporation was hiring 35,000 men and would restore pay cuts and grant pay increases to thousands more of its employes.

But there was more to the announcement than just the hiring of more men and higher salaries. For in the announcement was a single line that speaks volumes in these days of rapidly shifting relationships between labor and capital.

"The corporation recognizes its responsibility not only in its own interest but in the interest of its workers and the national economy as a whole to provide as much work as it possibly can . . ." Here is the heart of the matter. One of the great industrial companies believes it worthwhile to make public announcement of its recognition of a responsibility to its employes.

Sloan's announcement had an immediate effect on the stock market. But its greatest effect is not on the market, or even on the pay envelopes of thousands of men directly affected. It was in the improved relationship that is bound to come between labor and capital with the recognition of new responsibilities.

ANTI-AIRCRAFT RESULTS

The anti-aircraft maneuvers at Fort Bragg, N. C., proved civilian observers extremely effective in the detection of airplanes overhead.

Another result was definite approval of a new anti-aircraft gun, a little 37 mm. weapon which is said to be effective up to 10,000 feet. The new gun fires about 120 rounds a minute and is of a type first tested in the United States in 1926.

A third result will undoubtedly be a considerable clamor on the part of many people to learn why a gun that was new in 1926 is still new today. Why the army has not adopted this type gun and developed it is a question many people will want answered.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

WASHINGTON—Army officers can't speak out on controversial subjects while they wear the army pants but until Secretary of War Woodring clamped down on General George Van Horn Moseley, they had thought they regained freedom of speech when they retired.

The net result is that army officers (even so quietly) and the semi-official journals of the military services (ever so loudly) have loosed an anguished cry against the sort of suppression they thought Woodring had attempted.

The thing started when Moseley, on the day he recently retired from the army, issued a public statement boiling over with criticism of certain administration policies.

The General Fires

"Not since the days of the secession has the future of America hung by so narrow a thread," he said. He criticised Aubrey Williams of the National Youth administration for predicting that United States contributions to relief were here to stay. "Increased paternalism will inevitably become dictatorship," said Moseley. He called some projects "visionary" and said "others appear to cloak a sinister ulterior motive behind a humanitarian front."

In truth these were sharp words and the general run of officers were a bit surprised at the heat, but not half so surprised as when Woodring issued a brief but biting statement saying Moseley's remarks were evidence of "pique" at his failure of selection for chief of staff, a job that went to General Malin Craig. Altogether, said Woodring, it was a "flagrantly disloyal statement."

Woodring 'Shocked' Them

It was on that last point that the soldier services balked. The Army and Navy Register and Navy Journal, semi-official publications, carried editorials expressing "shock at the strong words of Secretary Woodring."

Moseley himself retorted that he had not been eligible for the job of chief of staff. He said he had been too closely associated in an official capacity with the Hoover administration for that, and further, that he hadn't enough time to serve in the army before retirement to justify his appointment.

"Army officers," said the Register, "have been brought up to believe that 'loyalty' works both ways; that a man who expects loyalty from subordinates must display loyalty toward them."

The Journal said the general had "performed a public service in suggesting that we forget foreign affairs and tend to our own while we settle our own problems."

Some Precedents Cited

As an immediate precedent, the Journal suggested that General Martin, just defeated for reelection as governor of Oregon, "has never hesitated to criticise policies he believed harmful."

Other officers have spoken out after retirement, notably General Smedley D. Butler of the Marines, General Johnson Hagood, the late Admiral Sims, and General William Mitchell. The latter spoke out before hand, too, and left the service as a result.

In the main they aimed their shots at military conditions, but the officers felt that a man retired from the army was entitled to cut loose at will and their joy was no end great when a check—sample of editorial opinion showed it strong in support of their position.

LANGUAGE OF EUROPE

By BRUCE CATTON

It is nearly a quarter of a century since the United States had its first great row over military preparedness.

When Woodrow Wilson launched a huge naval building campaign shortly before America's entrance into the World war, the drive received a very mixed reception. Welcomed by some, it drew bitter opposition from others. The average citizen went along with it and paid the bills without too much grumbling, but he probably never did feel that the whole business was really necessary. And when the post-war Washington conference eased the load he felt that things had at last got back to normal again.

Now we are coming up to a new preparedness campaign; and this time it is doubtful that there will be one-tenth of the opposition there was before. The world is a different sort of place now, and the American people have had an unmistakable object lesson or two about the change.

It is true that we have been spending huge sums on our army and navy for several years. Both arms of the service are probably far more nearly ready for war than at any previous time in American history. But the president apparently feels that what might be called normal peace-time preparedness is no longer good enough. This is a day of super-armaments, and no nation that wishes to make its voice heard can afford to be outclassed.

For international relations today are conducted, unhappily enough, over the sharp edge of a drawn sword. Recent events in central Europe make it all too clear that sheer power has the last word nowadays. Britain and France backed down in the Czech crisis, not because their statesmen were cowards, but because it was perfectly obvious that the other side carried too many guns.

So a program of re-armament does not mean that we are getting ready to fight somebody. It simply means that we are making certain that our voice shall be heard if it becomes necessary for us to speak. And we do not need to look all the way to central Europe for signs that we may eventually want to do some talking.

The great dictator nations are compelled to look ceaselessly for new resources to exploit, new fields to penetrate, new areas to bring under their sway. South America lies open before them, Mexico looms a tempting morsel: we might as well realize that the advance agents of European imperialism are busy in our own back yard, offering a still-unrealized but nevertheless direct threat to our vital interests.

An America fully able to strike a swift and crushing blow would be listened to; an America unable to do so might be ignored—and in consequence there might easily develop a situation to which war was the only solution.

We have no wish to meddle in Europe's quarrels. But if Europe thrusts a quarrel on us, we should be ready with the right sort of answer.

A BOOK REVIEW

THE ARCTIC HAS WHAT IT TAKES

It is interesting to try to figure out just what this "spell of the northland" really consists of. The frozen north is from all accounts one of the most monotonous and unpleasant regions on earth; it is cold, dreary, hostile, and barren, guaranteed to give all comers a beating. Yet people who go there are fascinated—and we stay-at-homes read all we can get about it.

Part of the answer, perhaps, is contained in Robert Flaherty's "The Captain's Chair."

Mr. Flaherty spins a yarn about adventure on the shores of Hudson bay; about a lone white man who undertakes to study mineral deposits in the bleak regions north of the timberline and makes prodigious winter sledge journeys; about Eskimos who get cast away on desolate Arctic islands and carve out a living for themselves against unbelievable odds; and about a ship captain who fights gales, fogs, ice, uncharted reefs, and all the perverse cussedness of Arctic misfortune.

It's exciting reading, and fascinating to boot; but what makes it so fascinating? Why do we get pleasure out of identifying ourselves with men who are up against the primal realities of cold, darkness and hunger? Why is it somehow so prodigiously moving to get a preview of what the last man will see before the last curtain comes down?

Figure it out if you can. Whatever the reason, "The Captain's Chair" has an appeal beyond that of mere "adventure stuff," and it makes ideal reading for a cold autumn evening by a warm fire.

UNITED STATES REGIMENT THAT NEVER HAS BEEN IN UNITED STATES—Regarding the 31st regiment, United States army, the war department reports: "It was organized at Fort William McKinley, Philippine Islands, August 1, 1916. It has served continuously in the islands, except from August 21, 1918, to March 30, 1920, in Siberia, and from February 5, 1932, to July 1, 1932, in China."

Human Side Of The News

(Copyright, 1938, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

The first known story about German spies was written by Tacitus, the Roman historian, somewhere around the year 100 A. D. He told of their methods of secret communication. In the days of Charlemagne, they used a disc code, with one forward-reading alphabet and six backward alphabets. In the Franco-Prussian war, they used an ancient Greek device, consisting of a rod and a spirally wound parchment, which could be deciphered when wound only a certain way.

Against the lurid backdrop of historic spy melodrama, our German spy trial seems quite a modest and tame disclosure. There is a red-headed girl, to be sure, but E. Phillips Oppenheim couldn't use her to model one of those sloe-eyed, slinking suborners of treason which the script calls for in cases like this. There was a bit of anticlimax, too, in the army sergeant putting an advertisement in a German newspaper, saying he would like a spying job, and the Germans coming through with another ad in a New York paper, telling him to report for duty.

I have an idea that the government and their G-men have just been skimming the surface of this spy business, involving not only Germany but other nations. One may read a book called "The Enemy Within," published about a year ago, for overdue news of what the Germans were getting away with before and after our entrance into the World war. There was certainly nothing hesitant or casual about their efforts in those days, and the odds are that that holds for today.

While the Germans seem to be taking all the tricks now, both in espionage and propaganda, all over the world, the fact is that they aren't very good at spying. Britain's Sir Alfred Ewing, grizzled little Scotchman, ran rings around them during the World war. Sir Alfred, with a night-and-day staff of 50 cryptographers, in his famous room 40 of the department of the admiralty, made the Germans look like a lot of rookies in the spy league. It would be difficult to cite any one man who did more to win the war for the allies.

One of his best bets was the fake code message. He would rig an order for troop or fleet movements in some easily broken cryptogram. The Germans would decode it handily gloat over their sagacity and make the tactical blunder which Sir Alfred had planned for them. He was a scientist and mathematician, and he rigged some of the slickest codes ever invented any time. Some of his feats in breaking down enemy codes were all but unbelievable.

We were dewey innocents in the spying and coding business when the war started. However, working up puzzle talk, our lads sent a critically important message, in their newly devised code, to their colleagues in Europe. It was "PSMM." Old Sir Alfred glanced at it and read it like a billboard: "Pershing sails Monday morning."

We did better than that as the war went on, and after the war, Major Herbert O. Yardley's "Black Chamber," the state department coding and decoding office, worked authentic black magic in breaking codes and uncovering spying activities.

I am informed that, with second thought and disillusionment, the government is again cocking up an ear to alien whispers and subversions and that we have an underground organization which knows a lot more about what the foreign spies are doing than it lets on. The spy mania of the war years is not a happy memory, and one hopes that present goings on will not incite an army of amateur spy-chasers.

The whole business is not exactly in our national Karma, but neither is tame submissiveness to foreign espionage and sabotage. I have an idea that we shall be able to protect ourselves in the clinches.

A former secret service investigator tells me that most of this gaudy woman spy business is bunk. Women, he says, rarely make good spies. Their affections are apt to get mixed up with their work. They are apt to get some stubborn ideas of their own as to just how things should be done, and somehow they can't resist a temptation to attain high visibility on occasion, when they ought to be just oozin' around quietly.

An old Athenian general, whose name I have mislaid, tells of the neatest cryptogram trick of the centuries. They would shave a slave's head, tattoo a message on the bald skull and let the hair grow. The slave would deliver himself, submit to a haircut and the message would be read. Then they would kill the slave so they wouldn't be bothered hiding him. Fortunate are the bald-headed men. They won't have to take up this line of work. But youngsters may, if the slave state keeps on winning over the free state.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

"Just look at Peter. If I asked him to work as hard as that, one-tenth as hard, and I'd be ashamed to ask it, he would collapse on the instant. But he will work like that, using every pound he has, oblivious to anything and everything but his play, until it is too dark for him to see. Now why won't he do his school work like that?"

Because a child's play is his personal expression of his personal feeling. While he attends to doing what he elects to do, he is enjoying the greatest feeling a human being knows—freedom of spirit. While he works, or, as he calls it, plays, he is running his mind without brakes. The moment his activity is directed, or imposed, which is the same thing, his mind is working with the brakes on. When his mind runs free, with no outside control, it is tireless. When it has to drag under the weight of another mind, it tires very quickly.

This is why all good teachers strive to make school work become so acceptable to the mind of the pupil that he makes it his own and allows himself to become absorbed in it. The teacher knows that as long as a lesson must be imposed on a child's mind the child is working under the control of another and so is not doing anything that will make any fundamental difference to his thinking and behavior. He gains knowledge, information, perhaps technique, but these are useless until he is moved by some self-born idea, to use them to his own ends.

Schools as they are organized today cannot offer children opportunities for self-activity. How can a teacher whose work is set by the course of study, whose success is measured by the children's marks, whose sole equipment is the room with its benches, books and sheets of paper, give children—40 or 50 of them—time, space, material and stimulation for original, creative expression? Impossible. And it is highly unfair to say that, under such conditions, the public school teachers are failing. They work miracles.

Nor is it fair to ask them to take on methods of teaching that make discipline and work harder without compensations of success. When a class of little ones in the first grade, who are learning to read out of a primer, are asked to learn to read through activity, and this activity means tracing, cutting, coloring a horse and printing a pupil's name under the result, the process is not to be labelled self-activity. Not if one is at all thoughtful. Cutting out the figure of an object under the direction of the teacher is not self-expression of an idea. It is an imposed lesson even if the teacher says, "Who would like to make a horse?" They know they would better like to make a horse. It is a choice between that and sitting still, hoping to be called on once in 40 minutes. It is a relief, but it is not self-activity.

Children in elementary schools must learn the fundamentals of knowledge thoroughly, no second thought about them. Then the school program and the school buildings, and the schools' equipment must be set to offer time, space, opportunity for the work the children elect to do. And for this purpose teachers, and supervisors, especially the supervisors, must be trained. A word on the program does not alter educational facts.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON.—Election of 32 governors, 37 senators and 432 members of the house of representatives on Nov. 8 may be expected to produce a net Republican gain for the first time since the Hoover landslide of 1928.

Democrats, holding 39 of the 48 governorships, 76 of 96 senate seats and 328 of the 435 house seats, admittedly are on the defensive, although party control of congress isn't even remotely threatened and they will keep control of most state capitals. They expect certain losses and are fighting to keep them as few as possible.

The 1940 presidential nominations and election are on many political minds. Recovery of a few large states lost in the last 10 years would boast G. O. P. hopes of a national comeback two years hence. Several candidates in senatorial and gubernatorial contests already are embryo presidential candidates and will be regarded as 1940 "possibilities" if they win.

Big Stakes, Big Names

In some states President Roosevelt and the New Dealers particularly, as well as the Democratic party in general, have much at stake.

The list of "doubtful" states this year is a long one, as Republicans see it. Great states such as New York, Pennsylvania, California, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota, Massachusetts, Kansas and Wisconsin are ringing with the cries of battle and charges and counter-charges which increase in vigor—sometimes in viciousness—as election day nears.

Nationally familiar names and political fates of outstanding leaders figure in some of the warmest contests—Bob Wagner, Herbert Lehman, Frank Murphy, Fred Van Nuys, Phil La Follette, Gerald Nye, George Earle, Elmer Benson and John O'Connor.

Hard-hitting newcomers have popped up on the national scene—among them Tom Dewey Sheridan Downey, Harold Stassen, Leverett Saltonstall Clyde Reed and Robert A. Taft. Some of them may be sent back to political oblivion. Others may win and go on to fame. In some states such men have brought new life and more liberalism to the Republican party.

The New Deal is an issue here and there but not importantly so everywhere. Many Democratic candidates hope to benefit from Roosevelt popularity and their opponents bank on a backswing against parts of the Roosevelt program, if not against the president himself. There is nothing resembling the 1934 rush of Democratic and Republican candidates alike to ride Roosevelt coat-tails. On the other hand, there's no general Republican onslaught against the president and issues vary from state to state.

G. O. P. Counts On Natural Swing

Primarily Republicans are counting on a natural midterm swing away from the party in power such as failed to appear in 1934. Further, G. O. P. experts figure:

Although the sharp 1937-38 depression which they once counted on for a major campaign issue appears to have ended and business is improving, a substantial group of voters is impressed with the idea that Roosevelt has no magic wand for maintaining a recovery trend. Especially this is true among farmers, whose resentment against present low prices endangers several Democratic candidates.

Although admitting Roosevelt popularity, G. O. P. candidates learned from the "purge" primary results that political capital can be made by attacking "yes men," "one-man governments" trends and such measures as the president's supreme court plan and reorganization bill. Most of them are following that line.

They believe the administration has been hurt by John L. Lewis, its 1936 political alliance with him and subsequent prejudice which has arisen against C. I. O. Farmers especially oppose C. I. O. and shrink at the thought of hired hands going on strike. Secretary Hull's trade treaties and their alleged harm is being used by Republicans in some districts.

"Reckless expenditure" as an issue doesn't get much of a rise out of voters, Republicans say, but in several states they are hitting hard at alleged corruption of Democratic machines, WPA scandals and graft, pointing out that the New Deal depends on such machines for election victories.

F. D. R. Will Have His Say

New, liberal and sometimes fantastic old age pension schemes are issues in some states—espoused by Republicans Democrats or both. And any candidate favored by C. I. O. or Labor's Non-Partisan league is likely to be dubbed "communist" by his opponent.

Herbert Hoover, Alf Landon and National Chairman John D. M. Hamilton have been emitting the chief national Republican campaign blasts. Democratic Chairman Jim Farley and other cabinet members have been sounding off for the Democrats. The campaign speech of the year presumably will be a radio address by Roosevelt the night of Nov. 4, when the president speaks "as a citizen of New York" while the nation listens in.

One state election has been held. Maine, in September, elected a Republican governor and three Republican congressmen.

The Fords Tell Their Plans

for 1939

Henry and Edsel Ford, on the occasion of the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Ford Motor Company, June 16, 1938

IF WE KNEW anything better we could do for the country than make good motor cars, we would do it.

By every one doing his best in the job he thinks most useful, this country is going to regain its momentum. We have tried to do our best in our job.

When business was suddenly halted in its recovery more than a year ago, we determined that we should keep going anyway, if not at full-volume motor car production, then at getting ready for greater motor car values that would help future production.

EXPANDING FOR THE FUTURE

We began to build 34 million dollars' worth of new plants and equipment. We felt that if we could not employ all our men building motor cars, we would employ as many as we could building better production facilities.

We were told, of course, that this was no time for expansion, that a wiser business policy would be to "hold everything" —which means, stop everything. But no one ever got anywhere standing still.

Besides, we are not defeatists. We do not believe this country has seen its best days. We believe this country is yet in the infancy of its growth. We believe that every atom of faith invested in our Country and our People will be amply justified by the future. We believe America is just beginning. Never yet have our People seen real Prosperity. Never yet have we seen adequate Production. But we shall see it! That is the assurance in which we have built.

Business is not just coming back. It will have to be brought back. That is now becoming well understood in this country; for that reason 1939 will be a co-operative year. Manufacturers, sellers and buyers will co-operate to bring back the business that is waiting to be brought back.

This construction program is almost completed. It has increased activity and payrolls in a number of related industries. It has given us better facilities for building better cars and trucks, and eventually our new tractor which is being perfected.

THIS MEANS MORE VALUE

The current program has provided a new tire plant, which will turn out a part of our tire requirements . . . a new tool and die plant that will help us cut the cost of dies . . . and a steel-press plant that will enable us to make more of our own automobile bodies. These are in addition to the plants we already had for producing glass, iron, steel, plastics, and many other things.

We don't supply all our own needs, of course, and never expect to. The Ford engine is one thing that no one's hand touches but ours. Of nearly everything else we use we build some quantity ourselves, to find, if possible, better and more economical ways of doing it. The experience and knowledge we gain are freely shared with our suppliers, and with other industries.

We take no profit on anything we make for ourselves and sell to ourselves. Every operation, from the Ford ships which first bring iron ore to the Rouge, is figured at accurate cost. The only profit is on the finished result—the car or truck as it comes off the line. Some years, there is no profit for us. But we see to it that our customers always profit. A basic article of our business creed is that no sale is economically constructive unless it profits the buyer as much as or more than the seller.

Our new plants have helped us build more value into all our cars for 1939. That means more profit on the purchase to the purchaser.

We have not cut quality to reduce costs.

We simply will not build anything inferior.

NEW TESTING EQUIPMENT

While we were putting up new plants to produce cars, we constructed new equipment to test them. The first weather tunnel of its kind ever built for automobile research went into operation at our laboratories this year.

It makes any kind of weather to order. The weather it delivers every day would take months to find in Nature. Our cars are weather-tested to give you good service in any climate anywhere.

In other tests, every part of the car is punished unmercifully. Then our engineers tear it down to see if they can find abnormal wear or any sign of weakness.

The money we spend on tests saves you money on repairs. And your family car is safer and more dependable when we put it in your hands.

THE NEW CARS

We have two new Ford cars for 1939—better cars and better looking—but we also have an entirely new car.

It's called the Mercury 8. It fits into our line between the De Luxe Ford and the Lincoln-Zephyr. It is larger than the Ford, with 116-inch wheelbase, hydraulic brakes, and a new 95-horsepower V-type 8-cylinder engine.

We know that our 1939 cars are cars of good quality. We think they're fine values in their price classes.

With new cars, new plants, new equipment, the whole Ford organization is geared to go forward.

GAS BLAMED IN FIRE ON LINER

591 Passengers Laugh And Joke While Telling Of Battle With Blaze

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—An explosion and fire aboard the Hamburg-American liner Deutschland which sent three freighters racing to her rescue was blamed today by her master, Captain Karl Steincke, on an accumulation of gases in the ship's hold.

As the ship docked last night, its 591 passengers—laughing and joking—told anew of Tuesday's heroic nine-hour struggle by the 369 crew members to control the blaze.

Scouting the possibility of sabotage, Captain Steincke said no estimate of damage could be made until insurance surveyors inspected the burned cargo today. There was no visible damage to the ship's exterior.

The captain was fervent in praise of his crew, 22 of whom were overcome by intense heat before the fire was smothered by pumping live steam and 50 tanks of carbon dioxide into the smouldering hold.

The commander declared the passengers could see the smoke pouring from the bulkheads, but behaved with remarkable calmness. He paid special tribute to his chief officer, Alfred Raschke, who entered the burning hold and was overcome four times while directing the fire-fighting crew.

"It was with a heavy heart that I decided to call freighters in the neighborhood," he said. "I was conscious of the fact that this created great excitement, especially among relatives and acquaintances of the passengers and crew, but I could not take that into consideration."

The three neare freighters—the American Traveler, the Europe of the Norwegian line and the Collamer—steamed to the Deutschland and stood by until dawn.

Evidencing the nonchalance of most passengers, Mary Kelly, a Fort Worth, Tex., dancer returning from a London engagement, said she didn't even bother to go to her cabin when she learned of the fire.

"And my pet poodle was there," she added, "so you can be sure I wasn't alarmed."

An automobile fire and six grass fires were extinguished yesterday by the Monroe fire department.

Firemen were summoned to the Motors Securities company, 500 Walnut street, at 12:12 o'clock yesterday morning to extinguish a fire in an automobile which was in the company's garage. The blaze was out in 10 minutes with only slight damage being done.

Grass fires yesterday were in the 1100 block of Washington street, at 1800 North Fourth street, 1200 Park avenue, 1216 St. John drive, 314 Columbia street and in the 100 block of Powell street.

TERRIFIED FELON TO GO TO TRIAL

Alcatraz Prisoner, Speechless With Fear, Faces Murder Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—(AP)—An Alcatraz felon, James C. Lucas, reportedly speechless from fear, was ordered on trial Monday for the murder of a prison guard in a vain escape attempt.

Lucas, 26, Texas robber, appeared in federal court yesterday when Dr. Joseph Catton, San Francisco psychiatrist, made an official report on Lucas' mental condition.

Doctor Catton said Lucas was "scared speechless but is not insane."

Lawyers appointed by the court to represent Lucas and Rufus Franklin, 24, a co-defendant, had sought a postponement on the ground that Lucas was insane. The attorneys said they could not prepare their case because Lucas would not speak to them.

While Lucas, perspiring and mute, sat in court with bowed head, Doctor Catton said:

"He is in the condition of a woman with hysteria.

"His condition has been and is in line with flight from justice, escape from an intolerant situation and indicative of consciousness of guilt. • • • He has the mental capacity to know that if he shows signs of being insane he will not be executed."

The court, fixing Monday for trial, commended that it thought Lucas "sane enough to go to trial."

Lucas, Franklin and Thomas Limerick killed a guard, Royal C. Cline, in an attempted break last May 23. Another guard shot Limerick to death. Franklin was wounded. Lucas hid from the rain of shots and surrendered.

Real Estate Transfers

The West Monroe State bank, in receivership, yesterday sold to Ed S. The property in consideration was described as lots 1 and 2 of section 21, township 17 north, range 3 east.

Do You Want A Baby?

IT is a well known fact that "Complete unity and happiness in married life is brought by babies," and that lack of children in the home is one of the greatest causes for discontented marriages. Also that woman was intended for Motherhood, but too often she has a functional weakness. During an experience of more than 40 years specializing in conditions peculiar to women, I developed a simple home method which has brought new hope.

Happiness has been brought to many who were childless because of functional weakness. Husbands have written me the most glowing letters of gratitude, in such cases. Now I want other women suffering from functional weakness to learn about this splendid method and how it may be used in the privacy of the home. (Copr. 1938)

Get This Knowledge FREE

I have printed an illustrated comprehensive treatise on the merits of this method, in which I intimately discuss many important subjects relating to the female organs that are vitally interesting to every woman. They tell how you too may often combat your troubles as have others who reported the arrival of babies after being childless for years, due to functional weakness. So often again certain women may enjoy the desire and activities of Nature's most wonderful creation—a normal, fully developed, vigorous woman. PEACE IN EUROPE FULL OF BITTERNESS

LONDON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—There is peace one month after the historic Munich conference, but it is a peace of bitterness.

Is it Neville Chamberlain's "peace in our time"? Is it David Lloyd George's "bad peace"? Is it the "peace of fear" which President Roosevelt has talked about?

These items can go down in the ledger on the side of "peace in our time":

Whatever it cost, war was averted, and Chamberlain showed millions that war is never inevitable until it starts.

One reason for Adolf Hitler to fight has been wiped out. He said his demands for Sudetenland were his last bids for territory in Europe.

Britain and France are going after "realistic" friendships with Germany and Italy.

Spain has been rid of at least some of the foreign fighters who have made its civil war a menace to European peace.

Now put these items down on the other side of the ledger:

Dangers that lie in Hitler's demands for colonies lost by Germany to the allied powers during the World war—although Hitler told Chamberlain these dangers were not a matter for war.

Memel and other German powder kegs, where people are crying "one Reich, one Fuehrer."

Embittered Soviet Russia, hating Germany and Italy and disgusted with the democracies.

The race to make guns.

At the end of 20 years of independence Czechoslovakia lies under the shadow of Germany. Czechoslovakia knows her existence depends upon collaboration with Nazi Germany.

The post-war Europe created at Versailles has crumbled. Europe now pleads its cause at Hitler's court instead of at Geneva, London or Paris.

In territory this peace has meant for Germany the annexation of 3,691 square miles of land. In population it has added 3,000,000 to greater Germany.

Economically it has opened up to German industry one of the most highly industrialized regions of Europe. Since Munich, Germany has lost no time in starting to integrate Sudetenland's glass, porcelain, textile and mining industries into the German state.

The prestige of Hitler's Germany has risen in southeastern Europe. That of France and Britain has declined. Already Balkan trade with Germany has hit new highs.

Poland and Hungary have taken or are about to get shares of Czechoslovakia.

Thousands of soldiers have glared at each other for weeks across the Czechoslovak-Hungarian frontier. Hungary, however, at first demanded territory which would have given her a common frontier with Poland across Germany's path to the east, but now is willing to let Germany and Italy cut out her slice of the Czechoslovak cake.

In a British atmosphere of mingled thanks and reproach, Chamberlain has laid plans for completing the Easter friendship accord with Italy and making one with Germany.

Any deal with Hitler may involve Germany's war-lost colonies and it may conceivably wind up in an Anglo-German arms pact.

But the British nation is demanding that defense gaps so glaringly revealed in September be quickly plugged. Chamberlain is trying to satisfy his people on that score without infuriating the German chancellor.

France likewise is publicly committed by Premier Daladier to cooperation with Germany and Italy—in fear of whom she spent many years building up alliances, which now are gone or going fast.

Both Chamberlain and Daladier have to square these new courses with their parliaments. What the parliaments will say may not be very pleasant for either. It will be hardest of all for Daladier because he is not yet so sure of his supporters.

The Soviet Russian press, reflecting the government's undisguised disapproval, has consistently attacked Chamberlain since Munich as "Hitler's helper." Moscow has charged that no good could come from a policy of fattening Hitler with territory and has pointed to Germany's demand for the return of her lost colonies as substantiation of her prediction that Hitler's appetite would only be increased by the Munich concessions.

The new Japanese conquests in south China are viewed by Russia as a logical outcome of Munich—threatening French as well as British interests in the Orient.

Collective action still is seen by the Soviet Union as the only hope of rescuing peace.

MASS EXPULSIONS HALTED BY GERMANY

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—(AP)—German authorities called a halt tonight to the mass expulsion of Polish Jews pending the opening of negotiations Monday to regulate the status of all Polish citizens in Germany.

The action was taken simultaneously with an announcement in Warsaw that Poland had abandoned plans for retaliatory measures against Germans residing there.

More than 20,000 Polish Jews had been herded on both sides of the border by Germany in a counter-move to a new Polish citizenship law which Berlin authorities feared would leave thousands of these citizens stranded in the Reich without passports.

The eleventh-hour decision to halt the movement of Polish Jews toward the border came after Polish representatives told German authorities they had misinterpreted the new citizenship regulations of the neighboring republic.

Deportation trains which had carried thousands to the frontier since the sudden roundup started yesterday were directed to return.

The German announcement said merely that an agreement had been reached between Berlin and Warsaw on the fate of those marked for deportation. Details of the accord were expected to be worked out in the negotiations starting Monday.

Of the more than 20,000 Polish Jews at the border, some 12,000 already had been deposited on their home soil when the cessation order was issued.

Conditions were deplorable among the deportees, especially on the Silesian border when bitter weather added to the discomforts of weary train rides.

CHAMBERLAIN TRIES TO SATISFY HITLER

LONDON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—An attempt to satisfy Germany's renewed colonial demands was said tonight to be the next step Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain plans for expanding the framework of the month-old peace of Munich after putting the Anglo-Italian Easter friendship pact into force.

General Franz Ritter von Epp, Adolf Hitler's deputy for colonial matters, made it clear in a speech in Ladeburg, Germany, that the initiative for settling the colonial question lay with the powers holding the territories taken from Germany after the World war.

Great Britain and France are the chief of these powers.

But the German, in asserting that his country claimed all her former colonies and compensation for those she might not demand, repeated what Hitler already had told Chamberlain—that the issue would not be made a question of war.

After the closing of the present session of parliament and the opening of a new one on November 8 Chamberlain is expected to plunge actively into the colonial problem.

The arrival here early next week of Defense Minister Oscar Priow of the Union of South Africa after talks with Portuguese officials will give impetus to consideration of the colonial question.

His plans to visit Belgium also before going to Germany were seen as significant in view of reports Britain might seek to make a deal for Angola, Portuguese West Africa, and part of the Belgian Congo to give Germany in place of the African colonies taken from her after the war.

These reports brought an indignant press reaction in Portugal.

Also some of the details for the observance of that day will be discussed. This year it will have new significance as it will mark the 20th anniversary of that world famous event.

77-YEAR-OLD MAN WANTS TO MARRY

Widower Lonely In His Present State Of 'Single Blessedness'

Where is there a woman, past middle life, of medium height and build, a good cook, of dark complexion, who desires to become a bride? A maiden lady is preferred but a widow might answer in a pinch. For a woman answering this description and matrimonially inclined, there awaits a man of 77 who is a widower and who says life is lonely in his present state of 'single blessedness."

Up into the editorial department of the Morning World yesterday came an elderly man who surprised reporters by announcing that he was in search of a wife.

Attired in work clothes, his form fairly upright and with firm step, with gray hair and light complexion, he surveyed the reporter with earnest blue eyes. The latter, somewhat taken off his guard by the unusual announcement, gave him a searching once over.

And then came the story of the man's life. He was born in Finland 77 years ago but came to America as a child, and spent 25 years of his life in and around Monroe, working in the old V. S. and P. shops. In the course of time, he married and a child was born which failed to reach maturity.

The wanderlust seized the couple and they proceeded to Alaska where they lived many years, leading a life quite similar to that led by Eskimos. They trapped wild fur bearing animals, and seal. When the season closed they proceeded to put in food supplies for the six months or more of winter, trading their catch for the necessities of life.

Then they returned to Louisiana, where about four years ago the wife died. Now the husband finds that life is too quiet all by his lonesome. Find me a wife, he urges.

He stated that his first preference was for a woman of his own nationality but an American will do.

"No 16-year-old girls need apply," he specified. "I want a good affectionate wife who can cook and who will be a companion to me," he specified.

Now don't all the "older girls" speak at once!

FRANCE BIDS FOR U. S. PEACE AID

Sends Implied Invitation For Attendance At World Economic Conference

MARSEILLE, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The governing party of France, the Radical-Socialist, today closed its national convention with an implied invitation for the United States to help buttress the peace of Munich in a world economic conference.

The convention in another action, on colonial policy, asked the French government "to reject energetically" all colonial claims of a territorial type and "to limit possible negotiations exclusively to a study of fair redistribution of raw materials."

By a unanimous show of hands the 2,000 delegates adopted a resolution on foreign policy which expressed the convention's desire that the Munich accord mark the start of broader negotiations and friendship among Britain, Germany, France and Italy.

The resolution added:

"It (the party) hopes that better relations between the four great powers will permit the calling of an international conference at which, in accordance with the wishes of President Roosevelt, means of remedying the world's economic disorder will be examined."

Informed sources said they believed the congress reference to "the wishes of President Roosevelt" was prompted by the widespread conviction that the United States executive seeks to cure the world's ills by economic settlements.

Just before the resolution was adopted, Edouard Herriot, president of the chamber of deputies, speaking extemporaneously, said, "We have all greeted with emotion and gratitude the messages of President Roosevelt."

This was a reference to the president's peace appeals last month before the four-power Munich conference settled the German-Czechoslovak crisis.

Herriot cited the messages as a precedent for urging the United States to end its traditional policy of "disinterest" in Europe. He asked that President Roosevelt "accord me a new audience and admit that peace demands more than international conferences—it demands permanent organization."

Delegates supposed he meant "audience" in its more figurative sense, meaning that Herriot hoped his words would reach the president. Herriot discussed the war debt situation at the White House in April, 1933.

Although the Radical-Socialists formulated no specific invitation for American participation in European affairs, today's speeches and the resolution made plain that the party hoped that Washington would join in an eventual economic conference.

them. The pay is $10,000 a year and they last for two years. That runs up to a total of $8,640,000.

These all total up to $11,356,000, a little under the round figure of $11,500,000. But there is almost enough free postage involved to make up the difference, without considering traveling expenses and secretarial allowances.

The figures on election costs are always hard to get. A senate committee set out a year or so ago to find out how much was spent in the 1936 election. It hired experts and spent many months and thousands of dollars at the job.

It wound up with a calculation that a grand total of $23,975,929.82 had been spent—an average of 52 1-2 cents for every vote cast for president.

Then it added that this was not to be regarded as the complete total, or even an approximately complete total. It said:

"The tabulations do not include the tremendous volume of expenditures made in behalf of individual candidates by organizations created specifically for that purpose, nor by personal friends and interested supporters of such candidates.

"They do not include nor represent that vast body of expenditures made by organizations within individual state borders, especially created for a particular campaign and a definite purpose. Nor do these listed expenditures represent the mass of county and precinct expenditures by local politically minded citizens and organizations."

NEGRO HELD ON ROBBERY CHARGE

Another Accused Of Burglary Arrested By Sheriff's Department

Two young negro men, one accused of burglary and the other charged with robbery, were prisoners in the Ouachita parish jail here last night following their arrest by members of the sheriff's department.

James Owens, 19, was arrested late Friday night by Sheriff Milton Coverdale and Deputy Frank X. Cline after he had been accused of burglarizing the home of Willie Nelson, negro, living on the James Stanley place east of here. According to reports, Owens entered the Nelson negro's home about noon Friday and stole some clothing, part of which he was said to have been wearing when arrested.

Alvin Tucker, 21, was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriffs Cline and Clyde Mitchell on a warrant sworn out by Zelma Pleas, negro, who said Tucker robbed her of $8.75 Saturday a week ago. The Pleas woman, living on the Julius Lemle place east of here, said she met Tucker on the road as she was going home after getting change for $10 at the James Stanley place, and that the negro, with a shirt covering his head, knocked her down in the road and took most of the money from her.

The Owens negro previously served jail sentences here on two bicycle theft charges and on a vagrancy charge.

591 Passengers Laugh And Joke While Telling Of Battle With Blaze

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—An explosion and fire aboard the Hamburg-American liner Deutschland which sent three freighters racing to her rescue was blamed today by her master, Captain Karl Steincke, on an accumulation of gases in the ship's hold.

As the ship docked last night, its 591 passengers—laughing and joking—told anew of Tuesday's heroic nine-hour struggle by the 369 crew members to control the blaze.

Scouting the possibility of sabotage, Captain Steincke said no estimate of damage could be made until insurance surveyors inspected the burned cargo today. There was no visible damage to the ship's exterior.

The captain was fervent in praise of his crew, 22 of whom were overcome by intense heat before the fire was smothered by pumping live steam and 50 tanks of carbon dioxide into the smouldering hold.

The commander declared the passengers could see the smoke pouring from the bulkheads, but behaved with remarkable calmness. He paid special tribute to his chief officer, Alfred Raschke, who entered the burning hold and was overcome four times while directing the fire-fighting crew.

"It was with a heavy heart that I decided to call freighters in the neighborhood," he said. "I was conscious of the fact that this created great excitement, especially among relatives and acquaintances of the passengers and crew, but I could not take that into consideration."

The three neare- freighters—the American Traveler, the Europe of the Norwegian line and the Collamer—steamed to the Deutschland and stood by until dawn.

Evidencing the nonchalance of most passengers, Mary Kelly, a Fort Worth, Tex., dancer returning from a London engagement, said she didn't even bother to go to her cabin when she learned of the fire.

"And my pet poodle was there," she added, "so you can be sure I wasn't alarmed."

Alcatraz Prisoner, Speechless With Fear, Faces Murder Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—(AP)—An Alcatraz felon, James C. Lucas, reportedly speechless from fear, was ordered on trial Monday for the murder of a prison guard in a vain escape attempt.

Lucas, 26, Texas robber, appeared in federal court yesterday when Dr. Joseph Catton, San Francisco psychiatrist, made an official report on Lucas' mental condition.

Doctor Catton said Lucas was "scared speechless but is not insane."

Lawyers appointed by the court to represent Lucas and Rufus Franklin, 24, a co-defendant, had sought a postponement on the ground that Lucas was insane. The attorneys said they could not prepare their case because Lucas would not speak to them.

While Lucas, perspiring and mute, sat in court with bowed head, Doctor Catton said:

"He is in the condition of a woman with hysteria.

"His condition has been and is in line with flight from justice, escape from an intolerant situation and indicative of consciousness of guilt. * * * He has the mental capacity to know that if he shows signs of being insane he will not be executed."

The court, fixing Monday for trial, commended that it thought Lucas "sane enough to go to trial."

Lucas, Franklin and Thomas Limerick killed a guard, Royal C. Cline, in an attempted break last May 23. Another guard shot Limerick to death. Franklin was wounded. Lucas hid from the rain of shots and surrendered.

Do You Want A Baby?

IT is a well known fact that "Complete unity and happiness in married life is brought by babies," and that lack of children in the home is one of the greatest causes for discontented marriages. Also that woman was intended for Motherhood, but too often she has a functional weakness. During an experience of more than 40 years specializing in conditions peculiar to women, I developed a simple home method which has brought new hope.

Happiness has been brought to many who were childless because of functional weakness. Husbands have written me the most glowing letters of gratitude, in such cases. Now I want other women suffering from functional weakness to learn about this splendid method and how it may be used in the privacy of the home. (Copr. 1938)

Get This Knowledge FREE

I have printed an illustrated comprehensive treatise on the merits of this method, in which I intimately discuss many important subjects relating to the female organs that are vitally interesting to every woman. They tell how you too may often combat your troubles as have others who reported the arrival of babies after being childless for years, due to functional weakness. So often again certain women may enjoy the desire and activities of Nature's most wonderful creation—a normal, fully developed, vigorous woman. For a woman answering this description and matrimonially inclined, there awaits a man of 77 who is a widower and who says life is lonely in his present state of "single blessedness."

Up into the editorial department of the Morning World yesterday came an elderly man who surprised reporters by announcing that he was in search of a wife.

Attired in work clothes, his form fairly upright and with firm step, with gray hair and light complexion, he surveyed the reporter with earnest blue eyes. The latter, somewhat taken off his guard by the unusual announcement, gave him a searching once over.

And then came the story of the man's life. He was born in Finland 77 years ago but came to America as a child, and spent 25 years of his life in and around Monroe, working in the old V. S. and P. shops. In the course of time, he married and a child was born which failed to reach maturity.

The wanderlust seized the couple and they proceeded to Alaska where they lived many years, leading a life quite similar to that led by Eskimos. They trapped wild fur bearing animals, and seal. When the season closed they proceeded to put in food supplies for the six months or more of winter, trading their catch for the necessities of life.

Then they returned to Louisiana, where about four years ago the wife died. Now the husband finds that life is too quiet all by his lonesome. Find me a wife, he urges.

He stated that his first preference was for a woman of his own nationality but an American will do.

"No 16-year-old girls need apply," he specified. "I want a good affectionate wife who can cook and who will be a companion to me," he specified.

Now don't all the "older girls" speak at once!

FRANCE BIDS FOR U. S. PEACE AID

Sends Implied Invitation For Attendance At World Economic Conference

MARSEILLE, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The governing party of France, the Radical-Socialist, today closed its national convention with an implied invitation for the United States to help buttress the peace of Munich in a world economic conference.

The convention in another action, on colonial policy, asked the French government "to reject energetically" all colonial claims of a territorial type and "to limit possible negotiations exclusively to a study of fair redistribution of raw materials."

By a unanimous show of hands the 2,000 delegates adopted a resolution on foreign policy which expressed the convention's desire that the Munich accord mark the start of broader negotiations and friendship among Britain, Germany, France and Italy.

The resolution added:

"It (the party) hopes that better relations between the four great powers will permit the calling of an international conference at which, in accordance with the wishes of President Roosevelt, means of remedying the world's economic disorder will be examined."

Informed sources said they believed the congress reference to "the wishes of President Roosevelt" was prompted by the widespread conviction that the United States executive seeks to cure the world's ills by economic settlements.

Just before the resolution was adopted, Edouard Herriot, president of the chamber of deputies, speaking extemporaneously, said, "We have all greeted with emotion and gratitude the messages of President Roosevelt."

This was a reference to the president's peace appeals last month before the four-power Munich conference settled the German-Czechoslovak crisis.

Herriot cited the messages as a precedent for urging the United States to end its traditional policy of "disinterest" in Europe. He asked that President Roosevelt "accord me a new audience and admit that peace demands more than international conferences—it demands permanent organization."

Delegates supposed he meant "audience" in its more figurative sense, meaning that Herriot hoped his words would reach the president. Herriot discussed the war debt situation at the White House in April, 1933.

Although the Radical-Socialists formulated no specific invitation for American participation in European affairs, today's speeches and the resolution made plain that the party hoped that Washington would join in an eventual economic conference.

VOTERS TO GIVE MANY BIG JOBS

them. The pay is $10,000 a year and they last for two years. That runs up to a total of $8,640,000.

These all total up to $11,356,000, a little under the round figure of $11,500,000. But there is almost enough free postage involved to make up the difference, without considering traveling expenses and secretarial allowances.

The figures on election costs are always hard to get. A senate committee set out a year or so ago to find out how much was spent in the 1936 election. It hired experts and spent many months and thousands of dollars at the job.

It wound up with a calculation that a grand total of $23,975,929.82 had been spent—an average of 52 1-2 cents for every vote cast for president.

Then it added that this was not to be regarded as the complete total, or even an approximately complete total. It said:

"The tabulations do not include the tremendous volume of expenditures made in behalf of individual candidates by organizations created specifically for that purpose, nor by personal friends and interested supporters of such candidates.

"They do not include nor represent that vast body of expenditures made by organizations within individual state borders, especially created for a particular campaign and a definite purpose. Nor do these listed expenditures represent the mass of county and precinct expenditures by local politically minded citizens and organizations."

NEGRO HELD ON ROBBERY CHARGE

Another Accused Of Burglary Arrested By Sheriff's Department

Two young negro men, one accused of burglary and the other charged with robbery, were prisoners in the Ouachita parish jail here last night following their arrest by members of the sheriff's department.

James Owens, 19, was arrested late Friday night by Sheriff Milton Coverdale and Deputy Frank X. Cline after he had been accused of burglarizing the home of Willie Nelson, negro, living on the James Stanley place east of here. According to reports, Owens entered the Nelson negro's home about noon Friday and stole some clothing, part of which he was said to have been wearing when arrested.

Alvin Tucker, 21, was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriffs Cline and Clyde Mitchell on a warrant sworn out by Zelma Pleas, negro, who said Tucker robbed her of $8.75 Saturday a week ago. The Pleas woman, living on the Julius Lemle place east of here, said she met Tucker on the road as she was going home after getting change for $10 at the James Stanley place, and that the negro, with a shirt covering his head, knocked her down in the road and took most of the money from her.

The Owens negro previously served jail sentences here on two bicycle theft charges and on a vagrancy charge.

VOLS BOWL OVER TIGERS TO REMAIN UNBEATEN

RELATIVELY EASY VICTORY WON BY BALANCED TEAM

Knoxville Elèven Keeps Pace Among Leading Football Squads Of Nation

By Kenneth Gregory

SHIELDS WATKINS FIELD, KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—The orange shirted Volunteers of Tennessee kept pace with the nation's outstanding football teams today by bowling over Louisiana State's Tigers 14 to 6 before a gathering of 36,000 fans.

As the governors of three states looked on in company with the greatest gridiron audience this city has entertained, including the Louisiana State cadet corps band and "Mike," the tiger mascot, Tennessee's gridders, rapidly gaining fame as a "wonder eleven," mowed down the Baton Rouge machine for their sixth consecutive triumph of this 1938 football campaign.

The comparatively easy victory, won with a balanced display of offensive and defensive skill, saw Tennessee maintain its place as one of the south's ranking elevens, leaders of the Southeastern conference championship race with four triumphs and a candidate for the California Rose Bowl game next New Year's day.

Tennessee, a team that has never issued an outright claim to the conference crown, drew scout comment that labelled the Volunteers as the most powerful aggregation ever to wear the Orange and White uniforms and added a note of title favoritism to the chances of the Volunteers for the Dixie title. Vanderbilt, Kentucky and Mississippi remain on the Vols' program.

George (Bad News) Cafego, the West Virginia junior halfback who has been the wheelhorse of past Tennessee triumphs, played a bang-up game in the victorious battle, but had to share honors with such outstanding performers as Ends Bowden Wyatt and George Hunter, Guard Bob Suffridge and Fullback Leonard Coffman.

Tennessee stopped Louisiana State's running attack dead, not permitting the Tigers to get past midfield in the last two periods, and the fast charging line, supported by great defensive work by the secondary, checked an ever-threatening aerial attack. The blocking of three Louisiana State punts, one of which led to a touchdown, aided greatly.

The Volunteers, undefeated in five previous campaigns since 1927, took the opening kickoff and marched 72 yards for a touchdown.

Coffman, the pile-driving fullback who counted twice in the Volunteers' upset win over Alabama, dived across the mass to score. Captain Wyatt placekicked the extra point. Louisiana State came right back in the second period to score on a 76-yard drive. Ashford Simes, the sophomore flash who replaced the suspended young Bussey as an offensive leader, fired an aerial to tall Ken Kavanaugh, the huskey end who made a spectacu-

TENNESSEE GUARDS LAUDED

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Coach Bob Neyland singled out his two great sophomore guards, Bob Suffridge and Ed Molinski, as the most outstanding players on the field today in Tennessee's smashing 14 to 6 triumph over Louisiana State.

"I though Suffridge played an exceptionally fine game and Molinski also was consistently good," the Tennessee tutor said. "It was the toughest game I've seen and I feel our boys were lucky, but they deserve credit for licking a splendid team."

Coach Bernie Moore of L. S. U. praised Tennessee's hard-charging line, declaring "their line simply outcharged ours and, of course, those three blocked kicks didn't help us any. I'm proud of the way my boys played."

NORMAL SWAMPS DELTA TEACHERS

NATCHITOCHES, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Cutting loose with a crushing attack, the Louisiana State Normal college Demons thrilled a homecoming crowd here today on the new athletic field by swamping the Delta State Teachers college Statesmen, 42 to 0, in a one-sided game from the opening quarter.

Outclassing the visitors in a series of spinners, reverses and end sweeps, the Demons rolled up sixteen first down and 423 yards from scrimmage. The Statesmen made six first downs, two by penalties and 36 yards from scrimmage.

On 13 attempted passes the Demons completed only one for nine yards while the visitors attempted 28 heaves completing eight for 93 yards.

YELLOW JACKETS DEFEATED, 13-6 BY COMMODORES

Marshall Pilots Vanderbilt To Victory Before 17,000 Spectators

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Little Bert Marshall, directing a crushing set of backs behind a fast-charging line, led Vanderbilt's once-beaten Commodores to a decisive 13 to 7 victory over Georgia Tech today before 17,000 spectators.

It was Tech's first loss within the Southeastern conference.

Marshall, who took Lunny Hollins' place when the latter suffered a broken collar bone in the first quarter, began the first scoring drive late in the second period from his own 37. Marshall passed to Dutch McElreath for 14 yards, then ran to the 17-yard line around left end. Another pass, Marshall to Dutch Reinschmidt, placed the ball on the three and then Turney Ford, sub for Roy Huggins, cracked left tackle for the score.

Midway of the third period Marshall piloted the team to Tech's 24-yard line. At this point a fake line play ended with Huggins going back to toss a 21-yard aerial to Housman who took the ball in on the three, juggled the ball as he was tackled, but held onto it as he fought his way over the goal line.

In the waning minutes of the game Junius Plunkett, sub for Hollins, fumbled as Vandy tired to run the ball out from its own goal line and Shaw recovered for Tech on the 3-yard line. Joe Bartlett, sub for Billy Gibson, crashed through left tackle for Tech's only touchdown.

The lineups:

| Georgia Tech | Pos. | Vanderbilt |
|---|---|---|

LOUISIANA COLLEGE, SOUTHWESTERN TIE

ALEXANDRIA, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—The Bulldogs of Southwestern Louisiana institute rallied late in the fourth period tonight to gain a 7-7 tie with the Louisiana college Wildcats.

Vic Barber crashed over from the four-yard line to score for the Wildcats midway in the period and then kicked the extra point for the Pineville eleven.

In the closing minutes Wilson Montgomery and Glynn Abel led the visitors from Lafayette in a steady march down the field. Montgomery tallied from the Cats' 21-yard line on a dash around right end and booted the tying point from placement. The deadlock left Southwestern the only undefeated college team in Louisiana.

The game climaxed Louisiana college's homecoming celebration. Miss Margaret Dark of Lake Charles was crowned queen between the halves. The 92-piece Byrd High school band of Shreveport performed.

The lineups:

| S. L. I. | Pos. | La. College |
|---|---|---|
| Bell | LE | Randow |
| Adams | LT | E. Mitchell |

ALABAMA WHIPS KENTUCKY, 26-6

Crimson Tide Administers Defeat To Wildcats Before 10,000 Fans

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Alabama's Crimson Tide swamped Kentucky 26 to 6 today before a homecoming day crowd of 10,000.

The bright spot in the Kentucky picture was the 71-yard touchdown dash of Halfback David Zoeller, through left tackle, in the second quarter.

Alabama's first score came early in the opening period, when Charley Holm, big back, plunged over from the one-yard line, climaxing a drive from the Alabama 40.

Holm set up the second score when he intercepted a Kentucky pass on the Wildcats' 33. On a fourth down pass from the Kentucky 31, Mosley dropped the ball in Bradford's hands for the score.

Opening the third period, Mosley lugged the kick-off back 42 yards but Kentucky stiffened. A few minutes later, however, with Holm and Mosley hitting the line for five and six yard gains and aided by Zevich's blocking, the Tide advanced to Kentucky's six-yard line. The Wildcats stiffened and Mosley tossed to Bradford over the goal.

The final Alabama score came in the fourth period, climaxing a drive from their own 20-yard line. On fourth down on the Kentucky nine, Mosley passed to Tut Warren for the score. Halbert Hughes' placement was wide.

Alabama gained 275 yards by rushing to 101 for Kentucky and made 20 first downs to four for Kentucky.

ARCADIA DEFEATS LISBON, 19 TO 6

ARCADIA, La., Oct. 29.—(Special)—The Arcadia High school Hornets defeated the Lisbon High school Eagles, 19 to 6, before a large Homecoming crowd here yesterday to continue their advance toward the district Class B title.

The half ended in a 6 to 6 tie after the interception of a pass in the first quarter had allowed the Eagles to score. But the Hornets went ahead in the third period on a sensational aerial play in which a 45-yard pass was snagged by Billy Grier, who ran 25 yards more to score.

The Class B title of northwest Louisiana will practically be decided here on Armistice day when the Hornets meet the powerful Plain Dealing eleven.

GREEN WAVE USES TWO GREAT TEAMS IN 27-0 TRIUMPH

Bob Kellogg Stars Along With Brunner And Other Members Of Backfield

By Ed Desobry

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Tulane university's Green Wave showed everything a team should have—power, finesse, stamina and confidence—in today's smashing 27-to-0 victory over Mississippi State college before 20,000 homecoming fans.

The Greenies put two great football teams on the field, one as good as the other. Defensively, they squashed the State attack before it could get started. Offensively, "Bronco" Brunner and an endless array of others ripped the visitors to shreds behind a driving line.

One man, sophomore Back William Bruce of Columbus, Miss., saved the Staters from complete rout. Thrice, almost single-handedly, he drove deep into Tulane territory on great runs and spectacular passes only to find his mates stopped by the vicious Tulane defense.

His greatest effort was a magnificent punt from his own 30 which rolled to the Tulane one-foot line. That almost led to a touchdown when State took the kick out on the 24 and went back to the Tulane 15 before being halted.

Tulane's great backs, led by the fast Brunner, were almost unstoppable when they had the ball. Long gains were ripped off by Fred Gloden, Harry Hays, Fred Cassibry, Buddy Banker, Monette Butler and "Jitterbug" Bob Kellogg.

Kellogg was in the game only a

Ouachita Riding Crest In Class AA Conference Race

Lions Faced With Prospect Of Another Mighty Battle Against Byrd

The Ouachita Parish High school Lions, conqueror of Haynesville's Golden Tornado, found themselves riding the crest of the north Louisiana Class AA conference race this week-end but faced with the prospect of another mighty battle if they hope to turn back the Byrd High school Yellow Jackets of Shreveport here next Thursday night.

The Lions and Jackets are the only remaining undefeated double A conference teams in the north district. The battle Thursday will be Byrd's first conference contest. The Lions have played two Class AA foes.

The district Class AA conference standing at present is:

| Teams | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Ouachita | 2 | 0 | 1.000 |
| Haynesville | 2 | 1 | .667 |
| Byrd | 0 | 0 | .000 |
| Fair Park | 0 | 1 | .000 |
| Vivian | 0 | 2 | .000 |

A victory by Coach "Lefty" Haynes' fast-stepping Ouachita forces over the Byrd eleven would practically cinch the district title for the Lions unless they should be upset by the Fair Park Indians in their final conference battle at Shreveport on November 10.

Ouachita's surprising show of power in the overwhelming defeat of the Haynesville eleven, 26 to 0, here Friday boosted hopes of a victory over Byrd and, while the crowd at the Tornado-Lion battle was the largest to pack Center stadium this year, the attendance next Thursday is expected to be an all-time record breaker for a local grid contest.

While Alvin Fleming, halfback and field general of the Lion forces, has been the most consistent star of Coach Haynes' eleven this year, the lumi-

TOURNEY SLATED AT M'GUIRE PARK

Paper Mill Superintendents And Paper Salesmen To Participate

Paper mill superintendents throughout the south, who will come here next Friday for the fall meeting of the southern division of the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents association, will hold a golf tournament Saturday afternoon at the McGuire Park Golf club in West Monroe.

Jim McKenzie, McGuire professional, said last night that at least 50 superintendents of paper mills in the southern states were expected to participate in the events.

Prizes valued at $150 will be awarded to the winners of two events, the Paper Makers' tournament and the Sweepstakes tourney. Only mill superintendents will participate in the first meet, which will begin at 1 o'clock, but entrants in the Sweepstakes event will include superintendents and paper salesmen.

Awards will be made to the medalist, champion, second place winner and consolationist in the Paper Makers' meet. First, second and third place prizes will be awarded in the Sweepstakes.

It will be the first major tournament at McGuire of the fall season. The course is in excellent condition, especially the greens and fairways, and Pro McKenzie is receiving numerous compliments on the good shape of his course.

LOYOLA NOSED OUT BY GENTS IN ROUGH GAME

Centenary Comes From Behind To Win, 7 To 6, From Los Angeles Eleven

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Displaying a two-fisted counter-attack as well as a splendid aerial and ground-gaining game, the Centenary college Gentlemen defeated the Loyola Lions of Los Angeles, 7 to 6, in a contest marred by rough playing before a crowd of about 6,000 fans at the Louisiana State fair today. The Lions lost 130 yards in penalties and a player from each team was ejected for fighting.

A fist fight between Curtis Jones, Centenary tackle, and a couple of the Lions cropped out in the fourth period after the Gents had scored in the third quarter to erase a lead the Californians had gained in the second period. Following a play from scrimmage on the Loyola 25-yard line, Jones and John McFadden began a wrestling match. As the men parted, Jack Peck, Loyola quarterback, dived in with a flying tackle that failed to budge Jones. While surrounded by a couple of Loyola players, Jones cut loose with a right-hand punch that floored Peck and ended hostilities. Peck and McFadden were ordered from the field.

The teams were evenly matched with the Gents displaying a fine running attack in the first quarter. After checking a Gi-yard drive by Centenary on their own 15-yard mark Loyola on nine plays moved down the field in the second period to score a touchdown, Hughes going over from the one-yard line in the third trial. In trying to wipe out this lead, Centenary staged a heavy aerial attack with Cotton Barnes doing the firing but reached the halfway station still trailing.

After Barnes had recovered a fumble in midfield in the third period,

RELATIVELY EASY VICTORY WON BY BALANCED TEAM

Knoxville Eleven Keeps Pace Among Leading Football Squads Of Nation

By Kenneth Gregory

SHIELDS WATKINS FIELD, KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—The orange shirted Volunteers of Tennessee kept pace with the nation's outstanding football teams today by bowling over Louisiana State's Tigers 14 to 6 before a gathering of 36,000 fans.

As the governors of three states looked on in company with the greatest gridiron audience this city has entertained, including the Louisiana State cadet corps band and "Mike," the tiger mascot, Tennessee's gridders, rapidly gaining fame as a "wonder eleven," mowed down the Baton Rouge machine for their sixth consecutive triumph of this 1938 football campaign.

The comparatively easy victory, won with a balanced display of offensive and defensive skill, saw Tennessee maintain its place as one of the south's ranking elevens, leaders of the Southeastern conference championship race with four triumphs and a candidate for the California Rose Bowl game next New Year's day.

Tennessee, a team that has never issued an outright claim to the conference crown, drew scout comment that labelled the Volunteers as the most powerful aggregation ever to wear the Orange and White uniforms and added a note of title favoritism to the chances of the Volunteers for the Dixie title. Vanderbilt, Kentucky and Mississippi remain on the Vols' program.

George (Bad News) Cafego, the West Virginia junior halfback who has been the wheelhorse of past Tennessee triumphs, played a bang-up game in the victorious battle, but had to share honors with such outstanding performers as Ends Bowden Wyatt and George Hunter, Guard Bob Suffridge and Fullback Leonard Coffman.

Tennessee stopped Louisiana State's running attack dead, not permitting the Tigers to get past midfield in the last two periods, and the fast charging line, supported by great defensive work by the secondary, checked an ever-threatening aerial attack. The blocking of three Louisiana State punts, one of which led to a touchdown, aided greatly.

The Volunteers, undefeated in five previous campaigns since 1927, took the opening kickoff and marched 72 yards for a touchdown.

Coffman, the pile-driving fullback who counted twice in the Volunteers' upset win over Alabama, dived across the mass to score. Captain Wyatt placekicked the extra point. Louisiana State came right back in the second period to score on a 76-yard drive. Ashford Simes, the sophomore flash who replaced the suspended young Bussey as an offensive leader, fired an aerial to tall Ken Kavanaugh, the huskey end who made a spectacu-

TENNESSEE GUARDS LAUDED

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Coach Bob Neyland singled out his two great sophomore guards, Bob Suffridge and Ed Molinski, as the most outstanding players on the field today in Tennessee's smashing 14 to 6 triumph over Louisiana State.

"I though Suffridge played an exceptionally fine game and Molinski also was consistently good," the Tennessee tutor said. "It was the toughest game I've seen and I feel our boys were lucky, but they deserve credit for licking a splendid team."

Coach Bernie Moore of L. S. U. praised Tennessee's hard-charging line, declaring "their line simply outcharged ours and, of course, those three blocked kicks didn't help us any. I'm proud of the way my boys played."

NORMAL SWAMPS DELTA TEACHERS

NATCHITOCHES, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Cutting loose with a crushing attack, the Louisiana State Normal college Demons thrilled a homecoming crowd here today on the new athletic field by swamping the Delta State Teachers college Statesmen, 42 to 0, in a one-sided game from the opening quarter.

Outclassing the visitors in a series of spinners, reverses and end sweeps, the Demons rolled up sixteen first down and 423 yards from scrimmage. The Statesmen made six first downs, two by penalties and 36 yards from scrimmage.

On 13 attempted passes the Demons completed only one for nine yards while the visitors attempted 28 heaves completing eight for 93 yards,

Marshall Pilots Vanderbilt To Victory Before 17,000 Spectators

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Little Bert Marshall, directing a crushing set of backs behind a fast-charging line, led Vanderbilt's once-beaten Commodores to a decisive 13 to 7 victory over Georgia Tech today before 17,000 spectators.

It was Tech's first loss within the Southeastern conference.

Marshall, who took Lunny Hollins' place when the latter suffered a broken collar bone in the first quarter, began the first scoring drive late in the second period from his own 37. Marshall passed to Dutch McElreath for 14 yards, then ran to the 17-yard line around left end. Another pass, Marshall to Dutch Reinschmidt, placed the ball on the three and then Turney Ford, sub for Roy Huggins, cracked left tackle for the score.

Midway of the third period Marshall piloted the team to Tech's 24-yard line. At this point a fake line play ended with Huggins going back to toss a 21-yard aerial to Housman who took the ball in on the three, juggled the ball as he was tackled, but held onto it as he fought his way over the goal line.

In the waning minutes of the game Junius Plunkett, sub for Hollins, fumbled as Vandy tired to run the ball out from its own goal line and Shaw recovered for Tech on the 3-yard line. Joe Bartlett, sub for Billy Gibson, crashed through left tackle for Tech's only touchdown.

The lineups:

LOUISIANA COLLEGE, SOUTHWESTERN TIE

ALEXANDRIA, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—The Bulldogs of Southwestern Louisiana institute rallied late in the fourth period tonight to gain a 7-7 tie with the Louisiana college Wildcats.

Vic Barber crashed over from the four-yard line to score for the Wildcats midway in the period and then kicked the extra point for the Pineville eleven.

In the closing minutes Wilson Montgomery and Glynn Abel led the visitors from Lafayette in a steady march down the field. Montgomery tallied from the Cats' 21-yard line on a dash around right end and booted the tying point from placement. The deadlock left Southwestern the only undefeated college team in Louisiana.

The game climaxed Louisiana college's homecoming celebration. Miss Margaret Dark of Lake Charles was crowned queen between the halves. The 92-piece Byrd High school band of Shreveport performed.

The lineups:

ALABAMA WHIPS KENTUCKY, 26-6

Crimson Tide Administers Defeat To Wildcats Before 10,000 Fans

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Alabama's Crimson Tide swamped Kentucky 26 to 6 today before a homecoming day crowd of 10,000.

The bright spot in the Kentucky picture was the 71-yard touchdown dash of Halfback David Zoeller, through left tackle, in the second quarter.

Alabama's first score came early in the opening period, when Charley Holm, big back, plunged over from the one-yard line, climaxing a drive from the Alabama 40.

Holm set up the second score when he intercepted a Kentucky pass on the Wildcats' 33. On a fourth down pass from the Kentucky 31, Mosley dropped the ball in Bradford's hands for the score.

Opening the third period, Mosley lugged the kick-off back 42 yards but Kentucky stiffened. A few minutes later, however, with Holm and Mosley hitting the line for five and six yard gains and aided by Zevich's blocking, the Tide advanced to Kentucky's six-yard line. The Wildcats stiffened and Mosley tossed to Bradford over the goal.

The final Alabama score came in the fourth period, climaxing a drive from their own 20-yard line. On fourth down on the Kentucky nine, Mosley passed to Tut Warren for the score. Halbert Hughes' placement was wide.

Alabama gained 275 yards by rushing to 101 for Kentucky and made 20 first downs to four for Kentucky.

ARCADIA DEFEATS LISBON, 19 TO 6

ARCADIA, La., Oct. 29.—(Special)—The Arcadia High school Hornets defeated the Lisbon High school Eagles, 19 to 6, before a large Homecoming crowd here yesterday to continue their advance toward the district Class B title.

The half ended in a 6 to 6 tie after the interception of a pass in the first quarter had allowed the Eagles to score. But the Hornets went ahead in the third period on a sensational aerial play in which a 45-yard pass was snagged by Billy Grier, who ran 25 yards more to score.

The Class B title of northwest Louisiana will practically be decided here on Armistice day when the Hornets meet the powerful Plain Dealing eleven.

GREEN WAVE USES TWO GREAT TEAMS IN 27-0 TRIUMPH

Bob Kellogg Stars Along With Brunner And Other Members Of Backfield

By Ed Desobry

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Tulane university's Green Wave showed everything a team should have—power, finesse, stamina and confidence—in today's smashing 27-to-0 victory over Mississippi State college before 20,000 homecoming fans.

The Greenies put two great football teams on the field, one as good as the other. Defensively, they squashed the State attack before it could get started. Offensively, "Bronco" Brunner and an endless array of others ripped the visitors to shreds behind a driving line.

One man, sophomore Back William Bruce of Columbus, Miss., saved the Staters from complete rout. Thrice, almost single-handedly, he drove deep into Tulane territory on great runs and spectacular passes only to find his mates stopped by the vicious Tulane defense.

His greatest effort was a magnificent punt from his own 30 which rolled to the Tulane one-foot line. That almost led to a touchdown when State took the kick out on the 24 and went back to the Tulane 15 before being halted.

Tulane's great backs, led by the fast Brunner, were almost unstoppable when they had the ball. Long gains were ripped off by Fred Gloden, Harry Hays, Fred Cassibry, Buddy Banker, Monette Butler and "Jitterbug" Bob Kellogg.

Kellogg was in the game only a

Ouachita Riding Crest In Class AA Conference Race

Lions Faced With Prospect Of Another Mighty Battle Against Byrd

The Ouachita Parish High school Lions, conqueror of Haynesville's Golden Tornado, found themselves riding the crest of the north Louisiana Class AA conference race this week-end but faced with the prospect of another mighty battle if they hope to turn back the Byrd High school Yellow Jackets of Shreveport here next Thursday night.

The Lions and Jackets are the only remaining undefeated double A conference teams in the north district. The battle Thursday will be Byrd's first conference contest. The Lions have played two Class AA foes.

The district Class AA conference standing at present is:

| Teams | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Ouachita | 2 | 0 | 1.000 |
| Haynesville | 2 | 1 | .667 |
| Byrd | 0 | 0 | .000 |
| Fair Park | 0 | 1 | .000 |
| Vivian | 0 | 2 | .000 |

A victory by Coach "Lefty" Haynes' fast-stepping Ouachita forces over the Byrd eleven would practically cinch the district title for the Lions unless they should be upset by the Fair Park Indians in their final conference battle at Shreveport on November 10.

Ouachita's surprising show of power in the overwhelming defeat of the Haynesville eleven, 26 to 0, here Friday boosted hopes of a victory over Byrd and, while the crowd at the Tornado-Lion battle was the largest to pack Center stadium this year, the attendance next Thursday is expected to be an all-time record breaker for a local grid contest.

While Alvin Fleming, halfback and field general of the Lion forces, has been the most consistent star of Coach Haynes' eleven this year, the lumi-

Paper Mill Superintendents And Paper Salesmen To Participate

Paper mill superintendents throughout the south, who will come here next Friday for the fall meeting of the southern division of the American Pulp and Paper Mill Superintendents association, will hold a golf tournament Saturday afternoon at the McGuire Park Golf club in West Monroe.

Jim McKenzie, McGuire professional, said last night that at least 50 superintendents of paper mills in the southern states were expected to participate in the events.

Prizes valued at $150 will be awarded to the winners of two events, the Paper Makers' tournament and the Sweepstakes tourney. Only mill superintendents will participate in the first meet, which will begin at 1 o'clock, but entrants in the Sweepstakes event will include superintendents and paper salesmen.

Awards will be made to the medalist, champion, second place winner and consolationist in the Paper Makers' meet. First, second and third place prizes will be awarded in the Sweepstakes.

It will be the first major tournament at McGuire of the fall season. The course is in excellent condition, especially the greens and fairways, and Pro McKenzie is receiving numerous compliments on the good shape of his course.

Centenary Comes From Behind To Win, 7 To 6, From Los Angeles Eleven

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Displaying a two-fisted counter-attack as well as a splendid aerial and ground-gaining game, the Centenary college Gentlemen defeated the Loyola Lions of Los Angeles, 7 to 6, in a contest marred by rough playing before a crowd of about 6,000 fans at the Louisiana State fair today. The Lions lost 150 yards in penalties and a player from each team was ejected for fighting.

PANTHERS TEAR LOOSE NEAR END OF EXCITING TILT

Sweep Aside Gallant Rams With Tremendous Three-Touchdown Push

By Paul Mickelson

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Pittsburgh's football team, shackled, buried and beaten by Fordham for three stunning periods, broke its fetters with a tremendous three-touchdown yank in the last nine minutes of the final quarter today to sweep aside the gallant Rams, 24-13.

Seventy-five thousand spectators, largest crowd ever to see a sporting event in Pittsburgh, sat in silence as the mighty Panthers trailed 3 to 7 with one period to go. But out they came, crashing the enemy line to bits and seizing two precious breaks, and in nine thunderous minutes they had crossed Fordham's goal line three times.

In the first period, Pitt's dream backs, Marshall Goldberg, Dick Cassiano, John Chickerneo and Hal Stebbins, rolled over the Rams with one point in mind—to break the scoreless deadlock. Bill Daddio dropped back on fourth down to the Ram 13 and scored a placement kick to send Pitt ahead, 3-0.

A bad punt and a penalty gave Fordham first down on Pitt's 38, from where Eshmont in two plays raced to the one-yard stripe. A triple pass sent Mike Hearn over. Stanton kicked the point.

On the first play of the final period, Cassiano raced 15 to the Ram seven and then, on a superb reverse, crossed the Ram line. Daddio kicked the extra point.

Pitt's next break came with lightning rapidity. A forward pass was tossed to Left Guard Mike Kochel. Realizing he was an ineligible receiver, Kochel made the big error of throwing the ball on the ground. In swept four Pitt tacklers to recover on Fordham's 25. Six plays later, Goldberg catapulted over for the touchdown. Daddio again kicked the point.

A kickoff and another fumble, this one by Eshmont and recovered on the Fordham 37 by Stebbins, opened the gates for Pitt's final score, Goldberg taking charge with murderous line smashes, a pass, and one end skip to pay dirt, going over from the three. Konetsky kicked the added point.

Fordham scored a few minutes after the kickoff. Starting from their 13, the Rams reached their own 34, where Eshmont tossed to Fortunato, who caught the ball on Pitt's 41 and outsprinted his pursuers easily.

SEWANEE UPSET, 7-6, BY TENNESSEE TECH

SEWANEE, Tenn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Sewanee's hapless Tigers, playing in the favorite's role for a change, were upset today by Tennessee Tech, 7 to 6, in a bruising battle featured by the late-game attack of both elevens.

Sewanee outgained the invaders from Cookeville easily but fumbles, pass interceptions and penalties contrived to thwart all but one of their scoring threats.

Tech tallied in the third period on a 33-yard pass from Ewing to Hamdorff who caught the ball on the 15-yard line and carried it over.

On the subsequent kickoff Sewanee, aroused and determined, marched straight down the field for a score, Macon going over from the seven-yard line.

GOPHERS DROP FROM RANKS OF UNBEATEN TEAMS

Virtually All Other Top-Ranking Elevens Still In Championship Race

By Herbert W. Barker

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The greatest October program in football history today saw Minnesota's Gophers knocked off the unbeaten list but left virtually all other top-ranking teams still in the chase for the mythical national championship.

Nearly a million fans turned out for the two score games that carried the most weight.

Minnesota fell victim to a fourth-period attack by Northwestern's Wildcats, paced by Bernie Jefferson, negro back, and dropped a 6-3 decision in a vital Big Ten tussle. Fordham, Baylor and George Washington also tasted defeat for the first time but no particular element of surprise was involved in their cases.

Trailing Fordham, 7-3, after three periods, Pittsburgh applied the pressure in the fourth and won, 24-13, before a crowd of 77,000, biggest that ever saw a sports event in Pittsburgh. Baylor simply was no match for Texas Christian's Horned Frogs, who rolled up an amaring 39-7 count. George Washington likewise was outclassed by Mississippi, 25-0.

Meanwhile Santa Clara, Dartmouth, Notre Dame, Duke, Tennessee, and Oklahoma protected unbeaten records.

A crowd of 80,000 packed the Yankee stadium and saw Notre Dame trailing most of the day score twice in the fourth quarter for a 19-7 conquest of Army. Santa Clara's margin over Michigan State was a point after touchdown, 7-6, while Dartmouth spilled Yale, 24-6, before 72,000. Tennessee's brilliant backfield rolled over Louisiana State, 14-6 as Oklahoma found Tulsa easy, 28-6.

The east took a beating in intersectional warfare. In addition to the losses suffered by Army and George Washington, New York university was crushed 32-0 by Ohio State, now tied with Northwestern for the Big Ten lead, and Catholic dropped a 13-0 decision to St. Louis. Boston college, however, buried Florida, 33-0.

Penn State pulled the prize eastern upset in a 33-6 rout of Syracuse but otherwise play followed form. Torbie MacDonald scored touchdowns in Harvard's 26-7 rout of Princeton; Cornell packed too much strength for Columbia and won, 23-7; Holy Cross' fleet backs ran up a 21-0 count on Colgate; Penn and Navy fought to a scoreless draw before 70,000.

Michigan and Wisconsin scored Big Ten victories but Purdue was held to a surprising scoreless deadlock by Iowa. Michigan pushed over Illinois, 14-0, and Wisconsin edged out Indiana, 6-0.

Kansas shocked the Big Six conference with a 27-7 victory over Kansas State while Missouri scored at Nebraska's expense, 13-10. Iowa State, the conference leader, maintained its unbeaten, untied status by whipping Marquette, 7-0.

In the Southwest, Southern Methodist nosed out Texas, 7-6, and Texas A. and M. came from behind to nip Arkansas, 13-7. Rice without the services of Ernie Lain, trounced Auburn, 14-0.

Southeastern conference games saw Alabama run up a 26-6 count on Kentucky; Tulane bury Mississippi State, 27-0 and Vanderbilt turn back Georgia Tech 13-7.

The Southern conference race probably was definitely decided when Duke's undefeated Blue Devils blanked North Carolina, 14-0.

WINNER FAVORS BIG BET ON LONG RACE

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Scorning a suggested $500 match as "chicken feed," Captain Angus Walters of the champion Canadian fisherman Bluenose proposed today a $5,000 prize race between Bluenose and the Gloucester schooner Gertrude L. Thebaud—to Bermuda and back.

"Let's get this thing settled once and for all," he snorted. "Let's race for $5,000 from Boston to Bermuda, around the island and back to Halifax, winner take all.

"Let them think that over instead of spouting about chicken feed."

Captain Cecil Moulton of Thebaud had proposed that the vessels meet again in winds of more than 25 miles an hour.

Bluenose had only to load her two engines aboard at Gloucester before departing today for Halifax and home. Walters remained behind, still intent on collecting his missing International Fishermen's Trophy and the $3,000 prize money he claims is due him.

Race officials declined comment on apparently well-grounded reports that the cup was in safekeeping so it might be presented to Walters at a Canadian club dinner Tuesday.

WISE ONES SEE GARCIA VICTORY OVER ARMSTRONG

Filipino Belting Sparring Partners; Negro Battler Listless

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—There has been increasing opinion for the last several days that Henry Armstrong will get knocked off the hinges by Ceferino Garcia in their fight for the welterweight championship next Wednesday night at the Garden.

Garcia, a powerful, hard-hitting Filipino, has looked extremely good in every workout, while Armstrong appears to have lost some of his zing in the two months since he won the lightweight crown in a gory mix-up with Lou Ambers. A lot of the wise old heads like Dumb Dan Morgan have looked the pair over carefully and have picked Garcia.

At first practically all of them were stringing along with Henry, the furious little negro, despite the 10 pounds he must concede to the battle-scarred challenger. They said, "You've got to stick with the champion." But now they are beginning to suspect that Armstrong at last has been overmatched.

While Garcia has been belting sparring partners clear out of the ring with his terrific under-hand swipes, Armstrong's workouts have been listless except for rare flurries. Henry's under lip that was so badly cut in the Ambers fight became bruised in one of his first sparring sessions and he since has done his boxing protected by a mask something like those worn by baseball catchers.

Fred Apostoli, sitting in the next chair at one of Armstrong's workouts, voiced the opinion of many when he observed: "He doesn't look like the same man." This recalled that Ambers poured a lot of leather into Henry in the closing rounds of their brawl. Maybe it took something out of him.

A rival manager was declaiming in the Hippodrome that Eddie Mead, Armstrong's portly pilot, had made the biggest mistake of his life in taking on Garcia at this stage. Armstrong, he said, could easily have defended his crown against two or three innocuous welterweights before being forced into the ring with the Filipino.

That is true, but on the other hand, Armstrong is anxious to cash in as quickly as possible now that he finally has reached the top, so that he can quit the game. Even if he loses to Garcia he still has the lightweight title, which is the most valuable outside of the heavyweight. His next meeting with Ambers will be a sell-out, sure. Thus Henry is assured of the champion's cut of two fat purses.

Perhaps he is smart to cash in on his welterweight crown first, because he can lose it with very little loss of prestige. It is no disgrace to get popped by a man like Garcia, who recently gave the middleweight, Glen Lee, a bad beating. But when Henry once loses to a lightweight he will be headed down the other side of the mountain.

This pillar is not guaranteeing that Henry will lose to Garcia, because he is a most remarkable little fighter, but only giving a vague idea of the way things look. George Parnassus, Greek manager of Garcia, is so dead certain of victory that he is arranging for the Filipino to make a grand tour of the country, taking on all challengers that don't look too tough.

INDIANS TO HOLD HOMECOMING AT BIG ANNUAL GAME

One Of Hardest-Fought Battles Of Season On Local Gridiron Foreseen

The Southeastern Louisiana Lions of Hammond, powerful rival of Northeast Center of L. S. U. for several years, comes here Friday night for the annual renewal of grid rivalry between the two institutions, and one of the hardest-fought games of the season here is predicted.

Northeast Center will also celebrate homecoming in connection with the game, and an appropriate ceremony will be arranged by students and faculty. All Northeast Center students and alumni, as well as alumni of the old Ouachita Junior college, forerunner of the present institution, are being invited to attend.

These Southeastern Lions have been a thorn in the Tribe's side every season and their rivalry has become more intense as the seasons progress.

The Indians had the strongest offensive team in the history of the local eleven in 1937, and were also among the highest scoring college elevens of the nation. They were also undefeated, but it was none other than the battling Southeastern Lions that met the Tribe shoulder to shoulder and fought them to a scoreless tie to mar an otherwise perfect record. In the previous year, Southeastern beat Center, 22 to 0.

The annual Center-Southeastern game is being regarded in the light of an L. S. U.-Tulane battle in miniature and victory means just as much to the two teams as it means to the Green Wave and Bayou Bengals in their traditional encounters.

Coach Jim Malone, wasting no time in preparing for the Southeastern contest, put his Tribesmen to work in a big way Friday following their successful 25 to 6 conquest of Copiah-Lincoln's Wolves of Wesson, Miss., and had them going again yesterday at top speed.

The Redskins emerged from their game the past week in good shape, took their limbering up exercises Friday and were back in hard offensive scrimmage yesterday. Coach Malone seasoned Saturday's work with a generous helping of blocking practice and considerable time in the tackle dummy's pit.

The Lions, if they start their usual lineup, will outweigh the Tribe about ten pounds to the man, and their forward wall will average close to 200 pounds from end to end. Southeastern is boosting stellar performances of three players in particular, Travis, Grimes and Hance, all linemen who have proven powers on the offense or defense.

Coach Malone will depend on speedy backs and a fast charging line to offset the Southeastern weight.

PENN, NAVY BATTLE TO SCORELESS TIE

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Pennsylvania and Navy tried all their offensive tricks today to no avail and ended in a scoreless tie before a crowd of 70,000 in the 23rd renewal of their series.

Power players and forward passes that clicked in midfield failed in the [illegible] off zone. Field goal attempts by both teams went awry.

Spectacular drives made it a thriller. The fourth quarter kept the crowd on its feet as Navy twice drove past the Pennsylvania [illegible]-yard line. Near the close first Penn and then Navy intercepted passes, swapping the ball four times in less than three minutes.

The Midshipmen collected 12 first downs to 10 for Penn, 149 yards rushing to 85 for Penn and 64 yards on passes to Penn's 14.

Navy's fourth quarter march to Penn's 4-yard line carried them the closest either team came to a touchdown. Backed to the 9-yard stripe by an offsides penalty, the Middies called for Worden, substitute, to try a placement field goal. Loye Rainwater charged in front of Worden's toe and bounced the ball from his chest.

Neville Ruling Favorite To Win Over Winnfield

Tigers To Tangle With Foes At Northeast Center Stadium Saturday

The Tigers of Neville High school, defeated by a hard-fighting Bearcat eleven of Ruston High school Friday, will return home this week to renew gridiron rivalry with the Winnfield High school Tigers at the Northeast Center stadium Saturday night.

Winnfield, missing from the Neville schedule last year, has given the local Bengals some close games in the past years, but the Winn parish eleven has been experiencing a disastrous campaign this year and the Neville force will be the ruling favorites Saturday.

But Winnfield has been meeting some of the outstanding teams of this section of the state and, in view of the locals' record, may give Neville a harder fight than expected. Ruston, conqueror of Neville, 19 to 7, beat the Winn Tigers, 28 to 0. Winnfield has also been beaten by Minden, 54 to 0; Byrd, 46 to 0; and Homer, 33 to 0.

Not since 1933 has a Winnfield team beat the locals, and in that year the Winn parish eleven beat the Monroe aggregation, 7 to 6. Other scores in the past eight years, all in favor of Neville, were 19 to 0, 1936; 26 to 0, 1935; 12 to 0, 1934; and 6 to 0, 1930. They did not play in 1931, 1932 and 1937.

Neville played a hard game against Ruston and led the Bearcats in first downs, 9 to 7, but were unable to muster a scoring punch until too late to help, and fumbles helped the Bearcat cause. The Tigers' lone touchdown was scored in the last minute of the battle on an 11-yard pass, Vaughan Payne to R. C. "Red" Rivers. It was erroneously reported from Ruston that Jack Lanham, Bengal fullback, had been on the receiving end of the touchdown heave. Rivers, after taking the pass, went ten yards more for the tally.

The Bengals battled Ruston without the services of Hurlan Beaumann, stellar end, and Rivers, nursing a hip injury, played only a few minutes of the game. Bilbo Duke, halfback, was also missing, and Payne, who was cleated in the Haynesville game over a week ago, had his foot wound reinjured in the first quarter, and was slowed down for the remainder of the game.

After Winnfield the Tigers will wind up their schedule against two other powerful aggregations, the Carr Central High Greenies of Vicksburg and the Homer Pelicans, defending Class A champs.

HARVARD DOWNS PRINCETON, 26-7

Speedy Torbie MacDonald Paces Crimson Team To Victory Over Tigers

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Harvard's well-drilled football forces ended the longest losing streak in their history today when speedy Torbie MacDonald romped 192 yards and scored three of the four touchdowns that gave the Crimson a 26-7 victory over Princeton before a throng of 25,000.

This decisive triumph was Harvard's first success in five games.

Torbie got the Crimson off to an early start by racing 35 yards, to the Tigers' 40, on the second play of the game. He took to the air and contacted Don Daughters on the 12 and Joe Gardella on the two-yard line, from where MacDonald plunged for his first counter.

MacDonald's second touchdown, a magnificent 73-yard dash early in the third period, pulled the Crimson into a 14-7 lead. His final score was made from the two-yard line in the final quarter.

Harvard's third touchdown was another long distance affair, a 47-yard dash by Austie Harding at the opening of the fourth period.

The Tigers grasped the ball much more firmly when presented with their second opportunity, which came when Frank Foley bobbled on his 30. Stu Cowan, Princeton right guard, recovered and Mountain snagged two 10-yard passes from Allerdice and then ploughed for the remaining two yards.

BAYLOR IS BADLY BEATEN, 39-7, BY TEXAS CHRISTIAN

Undefeated Bears Trampled As Mighty T. C. U. Rambles To Another Victory

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Mighty Texas Christian rustled up 534 yards by ground and air to rumble on undefeated with a 39-7 victory over hitherto unbeaten Baylor before 25,000 fans here today.

The Christians stabbed the Baylor wall with runs that netted 288 yards and added 221 more with Deadeye Davey O'Brien's passing arm.

Unsteady the first half, when they led by 13-7 after a woolly second period, the Christians blew off the top in the final two periods with incredible power and finesse. Never, in their six touchdown drives, did the Christians relinquish the ball.

O'Brien went over from the one for the first score. It took only seven plays from midfield, to rack up the second score and sparks went over from the three.

Baylor stormed back with a 78-yard forward-lateral play to score, Bill Patterson rifling to Sherman Barnes, who lateraled to Malcolm Lider. The Rabbit romped 70 yards down the sidelines for the score.

Then came the Christian storm. O'Brien climaxed a 66-yard drive with a 32-yard pass Clark snagged over the goal line. Next it was an 87-yard spurt, Clark, O'Brien and Sparks crushing Baylor's line with runs before O'Brien contacted Durwood Horner for a pass that netted 36 yards to the Baylor four. Sparks walked over with the score.

On their own 28 after Patterson's kick, the Christians started moving again for the fifth score. Ware and O'Brien biffed the weary Baylor line and then O'Brien shot a 12-yard pass that Clark gathered on the Baylor 48. The Christian gazelle ran all the way for a score.

O'Brien led the Christians to their sixth with a pass to Pat Clifford, the redhead taking a 32-yard dart on the goal line.

The lineups:

| Baylor | Pos. | Texas Christian |
|---|---|---|
| Boyd | LE | Looney |
| Black | LT | Hale |
| Akin | LG | Kline |
| Nelson | C | Aldrich |
| Taylor | RG | B. Taylor |

Baylor scoring: Touchdowns, Lider. Points after touchdown, Nelson (from placement).

Texas Christian scoring: Touchdowns, Sparks 3; Clark 2 (passes from O'Brien); Clifford, (pass from O'Brien); points after touchdowns, O'Brien (3) (from placement).

Officials: Farris (Arkansas), referee; Higgins S. M. U.), umpire; Aston (Texas A. & M.), head linesman; Price (Austin college), field judge.

COTTON STATES LEAGUE TO ELECT NEW PRESIDENT

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Directors of the Cotton States Baseball league will meet here tomorrow to elect a successor to President J. Walter Morris of Shreveport, La., who is giving up the post to limit his activities to business manager of the Shreveport Texas league club.

Jim Griffith, president of the El Dorado, (Ark.) club, and Judge Emmett Harty of Greenville, Miss., were mentioned as possibilities for the place.

Representatives from all eight clubs in the league were expected to attend the meeting. In addition to electing a new president, the directors also will select the type of baseball to be used next season and discuss the 1939 schedule.

The Monroe White Sox, champions of the league, will be represented at the meeting by Saul H. Adler, club president, and Manager Douglas "Poco" Taitt, it was announced by E. E. Meredith, club secretary.

GOVERNOR CHANDLER WOWS 'EM AT GAME

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Irrepressible A. B. "Happy" Chandler, governor of Kentucky, "brought down the house" today in a brief speech over the loudspeaker before the Louisiana State-Tennessee football game.

Chandler was present to watch the game along with Governor Richard Leche of Louisiana and Governor Gordon Browning of Tennessee.

"I'm here to referee this game," said Chandler, "to see that neither Dick nor Gordon gets offside.

"The WPA got me. Now let's see which of these teams gets the other."

HALL STARS AS REBELS WALLOP COLONIALS, 25-

Unbeaten And Untied Georg[illegible] Washington Trimmed By Ole Miss

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—[illegible] hard driving, sure passing Mississippi eleven overpowered George Washington university today 25 to 0.

Until today's defeat, George Washington was unbeaten, untied and unscored on—but it hadn't met Mississippi's Parker Hall, who dominated the play.

The lighter capital team held Mississippi scoreless in the first half, but began to wilt in the third period when big Jimmy Tillman started running the ends and Hall opened up with passes.

From its own 21 yard line, Ole Miss went to George Washington's 8. Here the Colonials received an offside penalty. On the next play Tillman skipped around his right end for the game's first score. Massengale's kick was no good.

Leading 6 to 0, Mississippi came right back with another touchdown. Parker Hall passed 48 yards to Massengale—who had gone in for Whittington—and the back carried the ball to George Washington's 4.

With George Washington expecting a line smash, Hall skirted the end to make the score 12 to 0. Massengale's try was wide. In the final period, Hall intercepted a pass on his own 45 yard line and tore down the side line to George Washington's 9, where he was knocked out of bounds. On the next play he threw a touchdown pass to Bill Schneller. Hall's kick for the extra point was bad and Ole Miss led 18 to 0.

Halfway through the final period Schneller broke through the George Washington line and, from his 35 yard mark, raced 65 yards for a score. Bisbing kicked the extra point.

George Washington received the kick off and passed on the first play. Bisbing intercepted the heave on midfield mark, and went to the enemy's 33.

About 11,000 saw the game.

PITT COMES FROM BEHIND TO WHIP FORDHAM

Sweep Aside Gallant Rams With Tremendous Three-Touchdown Push

By Paul Mickelson

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Pittsburgh's football team, shackled, buried and beaten by Fordham for three stunning periods, broke its fetters with a tremendous three-touchdown yank in the last nine minutes of the final quarter today to sweep aside the gallant Rams, 24-13.

Seventy-five thousand spectators, largest crowd ever to see a sporting event in Pittsburgh, sat in silence as the mighty Panthers trailed 3 to 7 with one period to go. But out they came, crashing the enemy line to bits and seizing two precious breaks, and in nine thunderous minutes they had crossed Fordham's goal line three times.

In the first period, Pitt's dream backs, Marshall Goldberg, Dick Cassiano, John Chickerneo and Hal Stebbins, rolled over the Rams with one point in mind—to break the scoreless deadlock. Bill Daddio dropped back on fourth down to the Ram 13 and scored a placement kick to send Pitt ahead, 3-0.

A bad punt and a penalty gave Fordham first down on Pitt's 38, from where Eshmont in two plays raced to the one-yard stripe. A triple pass sent Mike Hearn over. Stanton kicked the point.

On the first play of the final period, Cassiano raced 15 to the Ram seven and then, on a superb reverse, crossed the Ram line. Daddio kicked the extra point.

Pitt's next break came with lightning rapidity. A forward pass was tossed to Left Guard Mike Kochel. Realizing he was an ineligible receiver, Kochel made the big error of throwing the ball on the ground. In swept four Pitt tacklers to recover on Fordham's 25. Six plays later, Goldberg catapulted over for the touchdown. Daddio again kicked the point.

A kickoff and another fumble, this one by Eshmont and recovered on the Fordham 37 by Stebbins, opened the gates for Pitt's final score, Goldberg taking charge with murderous line smashes, a pass, and one end skip to pay dirt, going over from the three. Konetsky kicked the added point.

Fordham scored a few minutes after the kickoff. Starting from their 13, the Rams reached their own 34, where Eshmont tossed to Fortunato, who caught the ball on Pitt's 41 and outsprinted his pursuers easily.

GOPHERS DROP FROM RANKS OF UNBEATEN TEAMS

Virtually All Other Top-Ranking Elevens Still In Championship Race

By Herbert W. Barker

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—The greatest October program in football history today saw Minnesota's Gophers knocked off the unbeaten list but left virtually all other top-ranking teams still in the chase for the mythical national championship.

Nearly a million fans turned out for the two score games that carried the most weight.

Baylor simply was no match for Texas Christian's Horned Frogs, who rolled up an amazing 39-7 count. George Washington likewise was outclassed by Mississippi, 25-0.

Meanwhile Santa Clara, Dartmouth, Notre Dame, Duke, Tennessee, and Oklahoma protected unbeaten records.

A crowd of 80,000 packed the Yankee stadium and saw Notre Dame trailing most of the day score twice in the fourth quarter for a 19-7 conquest of Army. Santa Clara's margin over Michigan State was a point after touchdown, 7-6, while Dartmouth spilled Yale, 24-6, before 72,000. Tennessee's brilliant backfield rolled over Louisiana State, 14-6, as Oklahoma found Tulsa easy, 28-6.

The east took a beating in intersectional warfare. In addition to the losses suffered by Army and George Washington, New York university was crushed 32-0 by Ohio State, now tied with Northwestern for the Big Ten lead, and Catholic dropped a 13-0 decision to St. Louis. Michigan and Wisconsin scored Big Ten victories but Purdue was held to a surprising scoreless deadlock by Iowa. Michigan pushed over Illinois, 14-0, and Wisconsin edged out Indiana, 6-0.

Kansas shocked the Big Six conference with a 27-7 victory over Kansas State while Missouri scored at Nebraska's expense, 13-10. Iowa State, the conference leader, maintained its unbeaten, untied status by whipping Marquette, 7-0.

In the Southwest, Southern Methodist nosed out Texas, 7-6, and Texas A. and M. came from behind to nip Arkansas, 13-7. Rice without the services of Ernie Lain, trounced Auburn, 14-0.

Southeastern conference games saw Alabama run up a 26-6 count on Kentucky; Tulane bury Mississippi State, 27-0 and Vanderbilt turn back Georgia Tech 13-7.

The Southern conference race probably was definitely decided when Duke's undefeated Blue Devils blanked North Carolina, 14-0.

WINNER FAVORS BIG BET ON LONG RACE

BOSTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Scorning a suggested $500 match as "chicken feed," Captain Angus Walters of the champion Canadian fisherman Bluenose proposed today a $5,000 prize race between Bluenose and the Gloucester schooner Gertrude L. Thebaud—to Bermuda and back.

"Let's get this thing settled once and for all," he snorted. "Let's race for $5,000 from Boston to Bermuda, around the island and back to Halifax, winner take all.

"Let them think that over instead of spouting about chicken feed."

Captain Cecil Moulton of Thebaud had proposed that the vessels meet again in winds of more than 25 miles an hour.

Bluenose had only to load her two engines aboard at Gloucester before departing today for Halifax and home. Walters remained behind, still intent on collecting his missing International Fishermen's Trophy and the $3,000 prize money he claims is due him.

Race officials declined comment on apparently well-grounded reports that the cup was in safekeeping so it might be presented to Walters at a Canadian club dinner Tuesday.

WISE ONES SEE GARCIA VICTORY OVER ARMSTRONG

Filipino Belting Sparring Partners; Negro Battler Listless

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—There has been increasing opinion for the last several days that Henry Armstrong will get knocked off the hinges by Ceferino Garcia in their fight for the welterweight championship next Wednesday night at the Garden.

Garcia, a powerful, hard-hitting Filipino, has looked extremely good in every workout, while Armstrong appears to have lost some of his zing in the two months since he won the lightweight crown in a gory mix-up with Lou Ambers. A lot of the wise old heads like Dumb Dan Morgan have looked the pair over carefully and have picked Garcia.

At first practically all of them were stringing along with Henry, the furious little negro, despite the 10 pounds he must concede to the battle-scarred challenger. They said, "You've got to stick with the champion." But now they are beginning to suspect that Armstrong at last has been overmatched.

While Garcia has been belting sparring partners clear out of the ring with his terrific under-hand swipes, Armstrong's workouts have been listless except for rare flurries. Henry's under lip that was so badly cut in the Ambers fight became bruised in one of his first sparring sessions and he since has done his boxing protected by a mask something like those worn by baseball catchers.

Fred Apostoli, sitting in the next chair at one of Armstrong's workouts, voiced the opinion of many when he observed: "He doesn't look like the same man." This recalled that Ambers poured a lot of leather into Henry in the closing rounds of their brawl. Maybe it took something out of him.

A rival manager was declaiming in the Hippodrome that Eddie Mead, Armstrong's portly pilot, had made the biggest mistake of his life in taking on Garcia at this stage. Armstrong, he said, could easily have defended his crown against two or three innocuous welterweights before being forced into the ring with the Filipino.

That is true, but on the other hand, Armstrong is anxious to cash in as quickly as possible now that he finally has reached the top, so that he can quit the game. Even if he loses to Garcia he still has the lightweight title, which is the most valuable outside of the heavyweight. His next meeting with Ambers will be a sell-out, sure. Thus Henry is assured of the champion's cut of two fat purses.

Perhaps he is smart to cash in on his welterweight crown first, because he can lose it with very little loss of prestige. It is no disgrace to get popped by a man like Garcia, who recently gave the middleweight, Glen Lee, a bad beating. But when Henry once loses to a lightweight he will be headed down the other side of the mountain.

This pillar is not guaranteeing that Henry will lose to Garcia, because he is a most remarkable little fighter, but only giving a vague idea of the way things look. George Parnassus, Greek manager of Garcia, is so dead certain of victory that he is arranging for the Filipino to make a grand tour of the country, taking on all challengers that don't look too tough.

INDIANS TO HOLD HOMECOMING AT BIG ANNUAL GAME

One Of Hardest-Fought Battles Of Season On Local Gridiron Foreseen

The Southeastern Louisiana Lions of Hammond, powerful rival of Northeast Center of L. S. U. for several years, comes here Friday night for the annual renewal of grid rivalry between the two institutions, and one of the hardest-fought games of the season here is predicted.

Northeast Center will also celebrate homecoming in connection with the game, and an appropriate ceremony will be arranged by students and faculty. All Northeast Center students and alumni, as well as alumni of the old Ouachita Junior college, forerunner of the present institution, are being invited to attend.

These Southeastern Lions have been a thorn in the Tribe's side every season and their rivalry has become more intense as the seasons progress.

The Indians had the strongest offensive team in the history of the local eleven in 1937, and were also among the highest scoring college elevens of the nation. They were also undefeated, but it was none other than the battling Southeastern Lions that met the Tribe shoulder to shoulder and fought them to a scoreless tie to mar an otherwise perfect record. In the previous year, Southeastern beat Center, 22 to 0.

The annual Center-Southeastern game is being regarded in the light of an L. S. U.-Tulane battle in miniature and victory means just as much to the two teams as it means to the Green Wave and Bayou Bengals in their traditional encounters.

Coach Jim Malone, wasting no time in preparing for the Southeastern contest, put his Tribesmen to work in a big way Friday following their successful 25 to 6 conquest of Copiah-Lincoln's Wolves of Wesson, Miss., and had them going again yesterday at top speed.

The Redskins emerged from their game the past week in good shape, took their limbering up exercises Friday and were back in hard offensive scrimmage yesterday. Coach Malone seasoned Saturday's work with a generous helping of blocking practice and considerable time in the tackle dummy's pit.

The Lions, if they start their usual lineup, will outweigh the Tribe about ten pounds to the man, and their forward wall will average close to 200 pounds from end to end. Southeastern is boosting stellar performances of three players in particular, Travis, Grimes and Hance, all linemen who have proven powers on the offense or defense.

Coach Malone will depend on speedy backs and a fast charging line to offset the Southeastern weight.

PENN, NAVY BATTLE TO SCORELESS TIE

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Pennsylvania and Navy tried all their offensive tricks today to no avail and ended in a scoreless tie before a crowd of 70,000 in the 23rd renewal of their series.

Power players and forward passes that clicked in midfield failed in the [illegible] off zone. Field goal attempts by both teams went awry.

Spectacular drives made it a thriller. The fourth quarter kept the crowd on its feet as Navy twice drove past the Pennsylvania [illegible]-yard line. Near the close first Penn and then Navy intercepted passes, swapping the ball four times in less than three minutes.

The Midshipmen collected 12 first downs to 10 for Penn, 149 yards rushing to 85 for Penn and 64 yards on passes to Penn's 14.

Navy's fourth quarter march to Penn's 4-yard line carried them the closest either team came to a touchdown. Backed to the 9-yard stripe by an offsides penalty, the Middies called for Worden, substitute, to try a placement field goal. Loye Rainwater charged in front of Worden's toe and bounced the ball from his chest.

Neville Ruling Favorite To Win Over Winnfield

Tigers To Tangle With Foes At Northeast Center Stadium Saturday

The Tigers of Neville High school, defeated by a hard-fighting Bearcat eleven of Ruston High school Friday, will return home this week to renew gridiron rivalry with the Winnfield High school Tigers at the Northeast Center stadium Saturday night.

Winnfield, missing from the Neville schedule last year, has given the local Bengals some close games in the past years, but the Winn parish eleven has been experiencing a disastrous campaign this year and the Neville force will be the ruling favorites Saturday.

But Winnfield has been meeting some of the outstanding teams of this section of the state and, in view of the locals' record, may give Neville a harder fight than expected. Ruston, conqueror of Neville, 19 to 7, beat the Winn Tigers, 28 to 0. Winnfield has also been beaten by Minden, 54 to 0; Byrd, 46 to 0; and Homer, 33 to 0.

Not since 1933 has a Winnfield team beat the locals, and in that year the Winn parish eleven beat the Monroe aggregation, 7 to 6. Other scores in the past eight years, all in favor of Neville, were 19 to 0, 1936; 26 to 0, 1935; 12 to 0, 1934; and 6 to 0, 1930. They did not play in 1931, 1932 and 1937.

Neville played a hard game against Ruston and led the Bearcats in first downs, 9 to 7, but were unable to muster a scoring punch until too late to help, and fumbles helped the Bearcat cause. The Tigers' lone touchdown was scored in the last minute of the battle on an 11-yard pass, Vaughan Payne to R. C. "Red" Rivers. It was erroneously reported from Ruston that Jack Lanham, Bengal fullback, had been on the receiving end of the touchdown heave. Rivers, after taking the pass, went ten yards more for the tally.

The Bengals battled Ruston without the services of Hurlan Beaumann, stellar end, and Rivers, nursing a hip injury, played only a few minutes of the game. Bilbo Duke, halfback, was also missing, and Payne, who was cleated in the Haynesville game over a week ago, had his foot wound reinjured in the first quarter, and was slowed down for the remainder of the game.

After Winnfield the Tigers will wind up their schedule against two other powerful aggregations, the Carr Central High Greenies of Vicksburg and the Homer Pelicans, defending Class A champs.

HARVARD DOWNS PRINCETON, 26-7

Speedy Torbie MacDonald Paces Crimson Team To Victory Over Tigers

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Harvard's well-drilled football forces ended the longest losing streak in their history today when speedy Torbie MacDonald romped 192 yards and scored three of the four touchdowns that gave the Crimson a 26-7 victory over Princeton before a throng of 25,000.

This decisive triumph was Harvard's first success in five games.

Torbie got the Crimson off to an early start by racing 35 yards, to the Tigers' 40, on the second play of the game. He took to the air and contacted Don Daughters on the 12 and Joe Gardella on the two-yard line, from where MacDonald plunged for his first counter.

MacDonald's second touchdown, a magnificent 73-yard dash early in the third period, pulled the Crimson into a 14-7 lead. His final score was made from the two-yard line in the final quarter.

Harvard's third touchdown was another long distance affair, a 47-yard dash by Austie Harding at the opening of the fourth period.

The Tigers grasped the ball much more firmly when presented with their second opportunity, which came when Frank Foley bobbled on his 30. Stu Cowan, Princeton right guard, recovered and Mountain snagged two 10-yard passes from Allerdice and then ploughed for the remaining two yards.

BAYLOR IS BADLY BEATEN, 39-7, BY TEXAS CHRISTIAN

Undefeated Bears Trampled As Mighty T. C. U. Rambles To Another Victory

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Mighty Texas Christian rustled up 534 yards by ground and air to rumble on undefeated with a 39-7 victory over hitherto unbeaten Baylor before 25,000 fans here today.

The Christians stabbed the Baylor wall with runs that netted 288 yards and added 221 more with Deadeye Davey O'Brien's passing arm.

Unsteady the first half, when they led by 13-7 after a woolly second period, the Christians blew off the top in the final two periods with incredible power and finesse. Never, in their six touchdown drives, did the Christians relinquish the ball.

O'Brien went over from the one for the first score. It took only seven plays from midfield, to rack up the second score and sparks went over from the three.

Baylor stormed back with a 78-yard forward-lateral play to score, Bill Patterson rifling to Sherman Barnes, who lateraled to Malcolm Lider. The Rabbit romped 70 yards down the sidelines for the score.

Then came the Christian storm. O'Brien climaxed a 66-yard drive with a 32-yard pass Clark snagged over the goal line. Next it was an 87-yard spurt, Clark, O'Brien and Sparks crushing Baylor's line with runs before O'Brien contacted Durwood Horner for a pass that netted 36 yards to the Baylor four. Sparks walked over with the score.

On their own 28 after Patterson's kick, the Christians started moving again for the fifth score. Ware and O'Brien biffed the weary Baylor line and then O'Brien shot a 12-yard pass that Clark gathered on the Baylor 48. The Christian gazelle ran all the way for a score.

O'Brien led the Christians to their sixth with a pass to Pat Clifford, the redhead taking a 32-yard dart on the goal line.

The lineups:

| Baylor | Pos. | Texas Christian |
|---|---|---|
| Boyd | LE | Looney |
| Black | LT | Hale |
| Akin | LG | Kline |
| Nelson | C | Aldrich |

COTTON STATES LEAGUE TO ELECT NEW PRESIDENT

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Directors of the Cotton States Baseball league will meet here tomorrow to elect a successor to President J. Walter Morris of Shreveport, La., who is giving up the post to limit his activities to business manager of the Shreveport Texas league club.

Jim Griffith, president of the El Dorado, (Ark.) club, and Judge Emmett Harty of Greenville, Miss., were mentioned as possibilities for the place.

Representatives from all eight clubs in the league were expected to attend the meeting. In addition to electing a new president, the directors also will select the type of baseball to be used next season and discuss the 1939 schedule.

The Monroe White Sox, champions of the league, will be represented at the meeting by Saul H. Adler, club president, and Manager Douglas "Poco" Taitt, it was announced by E. E. Meredith, club secretary.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Irrepressible A. B. "Happy" Chandler, governor of Kentucky, "brought down the house" today in a brief speech over the loudspeaker before the Louisiana State-Tennessee football game.

Chandler was present to watch the game along with Governor Richard Leche of Louisiana and Governor Gordon Browning of Tennessee.

"I'm here to referee this game," said Chandler, "to see that neither Dick nor Gordon gets offside.

"The WPA got me. Now let's see which of these teams gets the other."

HALL STARS AS REBELS WALLOP COLONIALS, 25-0

Unbeaten And Untied George Washington Trimmed By Ole Miss

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(AP)—A hard driving, sure passing Mississippi eleven overpowered George Washington university today 25 to 0.

Until today's defeat, George Washintgon was unbeaten, untied and unscored on—but it hadn't met Mississippi's Parker Hall, who dominated the play.

The lighter capital team held Mississippi scoreless in the first half, but began to wilt in the third period when big Jimmy Tillman started running the ends and Hall opened up with passes.

From its own 21 yard line, Ole Miss went to George Washington's 8. Here the Colonials received an offside penalty. On the next play Tillman skipped around his right end for the game's first score. Massengale's kick was no good.

Leading 6 to 0, Mississippi came right back with another touchdown. Parker Hall passed 48 yards to Massengale—who had gone in for Whittington—and the back carried the ball to George Washington's 4.

With George Washington expecting a line smash, Hall skirted the end to make the score 12 to 0. Massengale's try was wide. In the final period, Hall intercepted a pass on his own 45 yard line and tore down the side line to George Washington's 9, where he was knocked out of bounds. On the next play he threw a touchdown pass to Bill Schneller. Hall's kick for the extra point was bad and Ole Miss led 18 to 0.

Halfway through the final period Schneller broke through the George Washington line and, from his 35 yard mark, raced 65 yards for a score. Bisbing kicked the extra point.

George Washington received the kick off and passed on the first play. Bisbing intercepted the heave on the midfield mark, and went to the enemy's 33.

About 11,000 saw the game.

NOTRE DAME RALLIES TO DEFEAT ARMY, 19-7

IRISH WIN GAME AFTER TRAILING FOR 3 QUARTERS

Reserve Power Enables South Bend Eleven To Triumph In Final Period

By Gayle Talbot

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Fought to a standstill for the first half, Notre Dame poured the wealth of its reserve power onto the field in the last two periods today to batter down and beat a good Army eleven, 19 to 7, in their silver anniversary game before 80,000 spectators.

Trailing 7 to 0 at the half and 7 to 6 at the three-quarter pole, the powerhouse from South Bend went scooting for two touchdowns in the final 18 minutes. The West Pointers tired badly. The Irish probably would have scored at least once more if Coach Elmer Layden hadn't taken pity and sent in the last of his substitutes toward the end.

The winners gained a total of 348 yards by every known method and had piled up 13 first downs. Army had an over-all profit of only 117 yards and eight first downs.

Possibly the outstanding back was Joe Thesing. He set the stage for the first Notre Dame touchdown early in the third period with a beautiful 35-yard run, which was immediately followed by a 48-yard scoring pass from Bob Saggau to Earl Brown. Thesing accounted for the third touchdown all by himself with successive dashes of 15 and 45 yards, in which he brushed off tacklers like he meant it.

Ben Sheridan contributed the second touchdown the moment the fourth period began. Faking a pass, he sucked the Army secondary out into left field and then went spanking 30 yards down the sideline to the one-yard line before he was knocked out of bounds. It took him only one try to bounce across for what proved the winning points.

Though they finished on the small of their backs, the Cadets played fine football while they lasted. Their initial drive was a beauty.

Arthur Frontczak sprinted the initial kick-off back to his 27-yard line, and then, after two plays, Woodrow Wilson rifled a 34-yard pass to "Huey" Long. Frontczak and Long dug through for a first down on the Notre Dame 15. Long left-handed a pass to Rigga Sullivan on the five, and then another to him in the end zone.

The lineups:

VOLS CONTINUE VICTORY MARCH

Head Toward Southeastern Championship By Defeating Louisiana State

ATLANTA, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Tennessee's Volunteers continued their march toward a Southeastern conference championship today by smashing a 14-to-6 victory over powerful Louisiana State university at Knoxville before 36,000 spectators.

Tennessee remains the only school in the 13-member circuit unbeaten and untied this season.

Georgia Tech received its first conference setback at Nashville, bowing to once-defeated Vanderbilt, 7 to 13, before 17,000 fans.

A hard-driving Mississippi eleven carried away intersectional honors of the day by overpowering George Washington university at Washington, 25 to 0—a team unbeaten, untied and unscored on this year.

Rice institute, an up-and-down team this season, triumphed over Auburn, 14 to 0, in an intersectional tilt at Houston, Tex., with E. Y. Steakley, a substitute for the injured Ernie Lain, scoring both touchdowns.

Boston college, unbeaten, walloped the hapless University of Florida eleven, 33 to 0, in another intersectional game at Boston, Mass.

Alabama's Crimson Tide, losers to Tennessee, rolled over the University of Kentucky, 26 to 6, at Lexington, Ky., keeping the Wildcats in check at every hand.

Tulane, growing tougher each Saturday, combined everything in football to lick Mississippi State, 27 to 0, before 20,000 homecoming fans at New Orleans.

Sewanee was beaten, 7 to 6, by Tennessee Polytechnic institute at Sewanee. The University of Georgia Bulldogs were not scheduled.

lar catch just before stepping out of the end zone. Guy Milner's try for the extra point was wide.

A recovered fumble set up Tennessee's second touchdown. Cafego punted to Halfback Charles Erdman, who fumbled, and Tackle Abe Shires recovered for the Volunteers. Sophomore Bob Foxx, a speedy Volunteer halfback, and Coffman made it first down at the Tiger two, and Cafego scored his first touchdown of the season over center. Wyatt again placekicked the extra point.

Thrice in the last half Tennessee drove into scoring position, reaching the Louisiana State 23, 15 and 24-yard lines, but the big Tiger line repulsed those threats. On the last two invasions of scoring territory Tennessee played for time, merely running straight plays.

Near the end of the first period, Tennessee marched to the Tiger 17 after Guard Suffridge blocked a Louisiana State punt. Wyatt tried a field goal from the Tiger 24 that went wide by inches, so close that the Tennessee team protested strongly to the game officials.

WILDCATS UPSET GOLDEN GOPHERS IN BRUISING TILT

Winning Touchdown Crashed Across Goal Line In Closing Minutes Of Game

By Charles Dunkley

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Minnesota's football empire fell today.

No longer are the Golden Gophers the symbol of reigning power in the Western conference. In their place are the Wildcats of Northwestern, who beat down the mighty men of Minnesota, 6 to 3, in a bruising, sensational battle—and a distinct upset.

Trailing, 3 to 0, at the end of a blazing first half, the Wildcats crashed over the winning touchdown in the closing minutes of the fourth period. The crowd of 47,000 Northwestern homecomers was swept into the advance stages of hysteria.

It was the second time in the last three years the Wildcats had conquered Minnesota to virtually knock the Gophers out of the Western conference championship.

In the blistering fourth, the Wildcats advanced on three occasions near the goal—first to the 23-yard stripe, then to the three and then to the 12.

Then Larry Buhler, Minnesota's fullback, fumbled on Minnesota's 20-yard line, Hal Method recovering for Northwestern, Coach Waldorf of the Wildcats substituted one of his sophomore lack rabbits, Oliver Hahnenstein. On the first play he crashed to Minnesota's 11-yard line, then he swept to Minnesota's eight.

Bernard Jefferson, Northwestern's husky negro half, ripped through tackle and over the goal line.

Minnesota's only display of power came late in the second period, after Jefferson punted to Minnesota's 44. Van Every passed to Mariucci on Northwestern's 34. Another Van Every to Moore pass was good for a first down on Northwestern's 20. With 48 seconds to go, Horace Bell, the giant negro guard for Minnesota, booted a 34-yard goal from placement, to give Minnesota the lead.

ARKANSAS LOSES TO TEXAS AGGIES

Big John Kimbrough Tears Razorback Line To Shreds To Win Game

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Big John Kimbrough, a 211-pound cyclone of a man, tore a fighting Arkansas line to shreds here today as the Texas Aggies staged a story-book finish to defeat the Razorbacks 13-7.

Kimbrough led a 59-yard drive in the last two minutes of play that ended with the big fullback crashing over from the one-yard line.

The Aggies scored the first time they got the ball. On the second play Dick Todd cut around right end to race 51 yards for the touchdown. He missed the goal.

Arkansas came storming back to count a touchdown of their own, before two minutes of play had passed, with a 54-yard drive.

The Aggies took Eakin's punt on the Aggie 41-yard line with the big clock showing two minutes to go. Kimbrough raced around left end and cut back for 14 yards. Walemon Price pitched a 32-yard pass to Owens Rogers. Kimbrough and Todd drove through to a first down on the Arkansas two. Arkansas was penalized to the one-yard line for off-sides, then Kimbrough made the touchdown and Todd kicked goal.

MICHIGAN STATE LOSES TO SANTA CLARA, 7 TO 6

EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 29.—(AP)—The Broncos of Santa Clara cashed in on a second period break to down Michigan State today, 7-6, and remain undefeated and untied.

Outfought by the Spartans in the opening period and trailing 6 to 0 in the second, Santa Clara tied the score when Walter Smith, substitute Bronco tackle, blocked Casimir Klenwicki's punt on the State 30. He caught the ball and ran over the goal line unmolested. Tom Gilbert's place-kick provided the winning margin.

Since 1933 there has been only one airline company in France. It was formed by the consolidation of all existing companies.

TRAGEDY AND HOPE ON THE BENCHES

The man grasping his forehead in agony is not watching his house burn down, nor does he see the villain coming to foreclose the mortgage. He is Penn Charter's Coach Bill Shuttleworth. He has just seen one of his men miss a point-after-touchdown, thereby insuring a 6-6 tie with Haverford in Philadelphia. If Bill does this for just one point, what would he look like if his team lost a 30-0 game? And note the associated worriers.

The boys and men in this picture are hoping awfully hard. They form the Centre college substitutes and coaching staff, as they appeared during a game against Villanova at Philadelphia. They have just seen a successful Centre play, consisting of a long forward and two laterals. Teammate German finally was downed on Villanova's 3-yard line. Before the afternoon was over, the boys' hope was blasted. Villanova won, 35-6.

LEWIS BOTHERED ABOUT HIS TITLE

Gets Only 'Peanut' Money For Terrific Battle With Al Gainer

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—John Henry Lewis today is "the winner and still champion" of the world's light heavyweights—but he doesn't know what to do with the title.

The Phoenix, Ariz., negro, weak from making 174 pounds, successfully withstood the serious challenge of Al Gainer, New Haven Black Panther, four pounds lighter, in a 15-round title bout here last night, unleashing a vicious attack in the final five rounds to win the unanimous decision of the two judges and Referee Dave Fitzgerald.

The bout attracted a small crowd of only 2,278 that paid a net gate of $7,085. The champion is to collect a check today for half of this amount while Gainer fought for ten per cent.

The Associated Press score card gave Lewis eight rounds, Gainer, who was an overwhelming favorite with the home town gathering, five, and two were even. Gainer, who piled up an early lead with steaming left hooks, headed into the tenth round in the van, only to fade under the punishment doled out by the champ's smashing two-fisted attack to the head and body.

In the dressing room after the battle, Lewis said it was a "good scientific fight" but "I don't know what to do with the title. There doesn't seem to be any money in it and hasn't been any since I've had it. I had some trouble making the weight and what I got for risking the title tonight and going through a good tough fight certainly wasn't worth it. I've nothing planned for the future, yet. Gus Greenlee, my manager, and I have to talk it over."

Greenlee, echoing Lewis' feeling about the title, said:

"We're (a manager's prerogative) all through fighting for peanut money. The champ is still good at this weight, in fact he looks better than ever. There isn't an outstanding challenger for us now. We can lick Tiger Jack Fox (who has been mentioned as a challenger) any day. I'm leaving the future up to the champ. I don't know what we're going to do, but, then a title is a title—or isn't it?"

Al Mele, Gainer's manager, said his fighter fought from the fifth round on with an injured left hand, which pained the local boy severely.

SOUTHERN METHODIST EDGES OUT TEXAS, 7-6

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Southern Methodist's razzle-dazzle kings blasted their way over and through the University of Texas today to open their 1938 Southwest conference grid campaign with a 7-6 victory.

It was no push-over team the Mustangs met before 12,000 spectators, the luckless Longhorns several times thrusting their way to the danger zone.

After a scoreless opening period, the Mustangs showered a barrage of passes, marching 68 yards for the marker. Chelsea Crouch raced over for the tally.

The Texas score came after the Mustangs halted a drive on their own 38. Bill Forney, Texas back, intercepted Stidger's pass and side-stepped his way over the goal line.

OUACHITA RIDING CLASS AA CREST

naries of Ouachita's victory over Haynesville included the entire team.

Unlike the setup of previous years, when Ouachita boasted one or two or maybe three outstanding players, the eleven that took the field here Friday played as near perfection as any high school combination can hope to play.

While Fleming and Cason Mitchell were playing their expected brand of ball, the work of John Wilhite and Clayton Brown drew the applause of the fans. Brown played only one quarter of the game before going out with a hip injury but he was in on every play during his quarter of the skirmish. Wilhite, on the other hand, got his biggest share of ball carrying of the season. The husky Lion quarterback hit the Tornado line with pile-driving force, repeatedly sling off charges through the line for eight and 10 yards.

But the boys in the line were the real heroes of the game. They opened wide holes fo their own ball carriers, held staunch against the Tornado offensive, allowing the mighty Golden Boys only six first downs and blocking like no othe Ouachita team ever did before against such a foe. In fact, the line of Mitchell Funderburk and Warren Selvers, ends, Buford Goss and Albert Gerson, tackles, James Peters and Howard Griffith, guards, and Tommy Younse, center, can be rated as the best all-around forward combination Ouachita has ever had.

Byrd's Yellow Jackets will have to be mighty good to beat the kind of ball the Lions played against Haynesville.

But Coach "Lefty" Haynes is cautioning his charges, reminding them that they have been beaten and that over-confidence can undo all they have done in the march toward a championship team.

As was the case with Haynesville, Ouachita will be seeking its first win over Byrd, another team no Monroe eleven has ever been able to conquer. The victory Friday over Haynesville was the first time the Tornado had ever bowed to a local aggregation.

Coach Lee Dobson's Jackets, who rested through an open date the past week before tackling Ouachita, will come here with a stellar array of performers. Byrd boasts two "iron men" at ends in "Cotton" Meager and James Roland and a hard-charging, fast-stepping backfield led by Jerry Mize, a veteran performer. Other backs are Cook and Linden, star halfbacks, and an alternating pair of fullbacks, Gene Russ and Ben Long.

Man, at one time, could move his ears in any direction. Underneath the skin are seven muscles which were used for this purpose. The muscles, however, are useless now.

LOYOLA NOSED OUT BY GENTS

the Gents again started a passing attack. After two long passes had been missed, Barnes dropped a 33-yard heave into the arms of Ouzts on the 18-yard line. Birkelbach followed with a nine-yard plunge and from there Whitehurst scored on four plays. He went over from the one-yard line, where the Gents out-smarted the Lions by going off tackle when an end sweep was indicated.

The Lions fought back hard in the fourth quarter and twice in a row drove long penalties that almost proved costly. Once they were set back 15 yards for roughness and another time they were set back half the distance to the goal for slugging. They tightened up, however, and checked Centenary on the nine-yard line.

The lineups:

DUKE TRIUMPHS OVER CAROLINA BY 14 TO 0 SCORE

Game Probably Decides Championship Of Southern Conference

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 29.—(AP)—A powerful and alert Duke university football team rode to a 14 to 0 victory over North Carolina today in a game which probably decided the Southern conference championship.

Duke's Blue Devils retained its record of not having its goal line crossed in six games. A record crowd of 35,000 saw the contest.

Ten plays after the second quarter began Duke scored, Irish Bob O'Mara smashing right guard two yards for the touchdown. Tiny Ruffa was rushed into the game to convert from placement.

Eleven plays after the second half started, Duke scored again.

The Tar Heels received the kick-off, suffered a penalty and completed a five-yard pass. Then Tipton intercepted a pass on the Carolina 46-yard line and ran 11 yards to the 35. O'Mara's line gains and a 12-yard pass set up the score. Tipton hit right guard for two yards and a touchdown. Ruffa again converted from placement.

Duke's superiority was shown in first downs, 11 to 8, and in doubling the net yardage by rushing, 140 to 72. The Tar Heels gained more ground by passing, completing nine out of 18 tried for 110 yards, while Duke gained 84 yards on six completions out of nine efforts.

The lineups:

INSPIRED RICE BEATS AUBURN

Steakley, Substitute For Lain, Paces Owls To 14-0 Triumph Over Plainsmen

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Rice institute today found a corking good substitute for its injured Ernie Lain in lanky, speedy E. Y. Steakley, who scored two touchdowns to defeat Auburn, 14-0, for the Alabamans' third loss.

Twice Steakley burned up the gridiron with his speed to cross the Auburn goal. The first time he outran Spec Kelly, Auburn's speed merchant, for 10 yards after taking Cordill's 26-yard heave on the Auburn 10.

The second time he shook dust in the face of the whole Auburn team and galloped 62 yards for a touchdown.

The Rice team played a rugged, inspired game and kept the hardy Plainsmen outside its 24 yard line.

The Texans rolled up 13 first downs to Auburn's 5 and gained 285 yards as against 112 for Auburn.

Reserve Power Enables South Bend Eleven To Triumph In Final Period

By Gayle Talbot

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Fought to a standstill for the first half, Notre Dame poured the wealth of its reserve power onto the field in the last two periods today to batter down and beat a good Army eleven, 19 to 7, in their silver anniversary game before 80,000 spectators.

Trailing 7 to 0 at the half and 7 to 6 at the three-quarter pole, the powerhouse from South Bend went scooting for two touchdowns in the final 15 minutes. The West Pointers tired badly. The Irish probably would have scored at least once more if Coach Elmer Layden hadn't taken pity and sent in the last of his substitutes toward the end.

The winners gained a total of 348 yards by every known method and had piled up 13 first downs. Army had an over-all profit of only 117 yards and eight first downs.

Possibly the outstanding back was Joe Thesing. He set the stage for the first Notre Dame touchdown early in the third period with a beautiful 35-yard run, which was immediately followed by a 48-yard scoring pass from Bob Saggau to Earl Brown. Thesing accounted for the third touchdown all by himself with successive dashes of 15 and 45 yards, in which he brushed off tacklers like he meant it.

Ben Sheridan contributed the second touchdown the moment the fourth period began. Faking a pass, he sucked the Army secondary out into left field and then went spanking 30 yards down the sideline to the one-yard line before he was knocked out of bounds. It took him only one try to bounce across for what proved the winning points.

Although they finished on the small of their backs, the Cadets played fine football while they lasted. Their initial drive was a beauty.

Arthur Frontczak sprinted the initial kick-off back to his 27-yard line, and then, after two plays, Woodrow Wilson rifled a 34-yard pass to "Huey" Long. Frontczak and Long dug through for a first down on the Notre Dame 15. Long left-handed a pass to Riggs Sullivan on the five, and then another to him in the end zone.

The lineups:

| Notre Dame | Pos. | Army |

Head Toward Southeastern Championship By Defeating Louisiana State

ATLANTA, Oct. 29. — (AP) — Tennessee's Volunteers continued their march toward a Southeastern conference championship today by smashing a 14-to-6 victory over powerful Louisiana State university at Knoxville before 36,000 spectators.

Tennessee remains the only school in the 13-member circuit unbeaten and untied this season.

Georgia Tech received its first conference setback at Nashville, bowing to once-defeated Vanderbilt, 7 to 13, before 17,000 fans.

A hard-driving Mississippi eleven carried away intersectional honors of the day by overpowering George Washington university at Washington, 25 to 0—a team unbeaten, untied and unscored on this year.

Rice institute, an up-and-down team this season, triumphed over Auburn, 14 to 0, in an intersectional tilt at Houston, Tex., with E. Y. Steakley, a substitute for the injured Ernie Lain, scoring both touchdowns.

Boston college, unbeaten, walloped the hapless University of Florida eleven, 33 to 0, in another intersectional game at Boston, Mass.

Alabama's Crimson Tide, losers to Tennessee, rolled over the University of Kentucky, 26 to 6, at Lexington, Ky., keeping the Wildcats in check at every hand.

Tulane, growing tougher each Saturday, combined everything in football to lick Mississippi State, 27 to 0, before 20,000 homecoming fans at New Orleans.

Sewanee was beaten, 7 to 6, by Tennessee Polytechnic institute at Sewanee. The University of Georgia Bulldogs were not scheduled.

SPORTS FILMS WILL BE SHOWN AT M'GUIRE CLUB

Members of McGuire Park Golf club and their guests will be treated to a showing of sport films at the club house in West Monroe tonight, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced last night by Jim McKenzie, McGuire pro.

The show, to be conducted by Walter Glass and with the accompaniment of sound, will be a series of Spaulding scenes taken throughout North America.

Included on the program will be action pictures of golfing, featuring Lawson Little, Bobby Jones, Horton Smith, Harry Cooper and other nationally known linksmen; scenes of championship football games; and to the hunters and fishermen, thrilling hunting and fishing scenes taken in the wilds of Canada.

lar catch just before stepping out of the end zone. Guy Milner's try for the extra point was wide.

A recovered fumble set up Tennessee's second touchdown. Cafego punted to Halfback Charles Erdman, who fumbled, and Tackle Abe Shires recovered for the Volunteers. Sophomore Bob Foxx, a speedy Volunteer halfback, and Coffman made it first down at the Tiger two, and Cafego scored his first touchdown of the season over center. Wyatt again place-kicked the extra point.

Thrice in the last half Tennessee drove into scoring position, reaching the Louisiana State 23, 15 and 24-yard lines, but the big Tiger line repulsed those threats. On the last two invasions of scoring territory Tennessee played for time, merely running straight plays.

Near the end of the first period, Tennessee marched to the Tiger 17 after Guard Suffridge blocked a Louisiana State punt. Wyatt tried a field goal from the Tiger 24 that went wide by inches, so close that the Tennessee team protested strongly to the game officials.

WILDCATS UPSET GOLDEN GOPHERS IN BRUISING TILT

Winning Touchdown Crashed Across Goal Line In Closing Minutes Of Game

By Charles Dunkley

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Minnesota's football empire fell today.

No longer are the Golden Gophers the symbol of reigning power in the Western conference. In their place are the Wildcats of Northwestern, who beat down the mighty men of Minnesota, 6 to 3, in a bruising, sensational battle—and a distinct upset.

Trailing, 3 to 0, at the end of a blazing first half, the Wildcats crashed over the winning touchdown in the closing minutes of the fourth period. The crowd of 47,000 Northwestern homecomers was swept into the advance stages of hysteria.

It was the second time in the last three years the Wildcats had conquered Minnesota to virtually knock the Gophers out of the Western conference championship.

In the blistering fourth, the Wildcats advanced on three occasions near the goal—first to the 23-yard stripe, then to the three and then to the 12.

Then Larry Buhler, Minnesota's fullback, fumbled on Minnesota's 20-yard line, Hal Method recovering for Northwestern, Coach Waldorf of the Wildcats substituted one of his sophomore lack rabbits, Oliver Hahnenstein. On the first play he crashed to Minnesota's 11-yard line, then he swept to Minnesota's eight.

Bernard Jefferson, Northwestern's husky negro half, ripped through tackle and over the goal line.

Minnesota's only display of power came late in the second period, after Jefferson punted to Minnesota's 44. Van Every passed to Mariucci on Northwestern's 34. Another Van Every to Moore pass was good for a first down on Northwestern's 20. With 48 seconds to go, Horace Bell, the giant negro guard for Minnesota, booted a 34-yard goal from placement, to give Minnesota the lead.

ARKANSAS LOSES TO TEXAS AGGIES

Big John Kimbrough Tears Razorback Line To Shreds To Win Game

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Big John Kimbrough, a 211-pound cyclone of a man, tore a fighting Arkansas line to shreds here today as the Texas Aggies staged a story-book finish to defeat the Razorbacks 13-7.

Kimbrough led a 59-yard drive in the last two minutes of play that ended with the big fullback crashing over from the one-yard line.

The Aggies scored the first time they got the ball. On the second play Dick Todd cut around right end to race 51 yards for the touchdown. He missed the goal.

Arkansas came storming back to count a touchdown of their own, before two minutes of play had passed, with a 54-yard drive.

The Aggies took Eakin's punt on the Aggie 41-yard line with the big clock showing two minutes to go. Kimbrough raced around left end and cut back for 14 yards. Walemon Price pitched a 32-yard pass to Owens Rogers. Kimbrough and Todd drove through to a first down on the Arkansas two. Arkansas was penalized to the one-yard line for off-sides, then Kimbrough made the touchdown and Todd kicked goal.

MICHIGAN STATE LOSES TO SANTA CLARA, 7 TO 6

EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 29.—(AP)—The Broncos of Santa Clara cashed in on a second period break to down Michigan State today, 7-6, and remain undefeated and untied.

Outfought by the Spartans in the opening period and trailing 6 to 0 in the second, Santa Clara tied the score when Walter Smith, substitute Bronco tackle, blocked Casimir Klenwicki's punt on the State 30. He caught the ball and ran over the goal line unmolested. Tom Gilbert's place-kick provided the winning margin.

TRAGEDY AND HOPE ON THE BENCHES

The man grasping his forehead in agony is not watching his house burn down, nor does he see the villain coming to foreclose the mortgage. He is Penn Charter's Coach Bill Shuttleworth. He has just seen one of his men miss a point-after-touchdown, thereby insuring a 6-6 tie with Haverford in Philadelphia. If Bill does this for just one point, what would he look like if his team lost a 30-0 game? And note the associated worriers.

The boys and men in this picture are hoping awfully hard. They form the Centre college substitutes and coaching staff, as they appeared during a game against Villanova at Philadelphia. They have just seen a successful Centre play, consisting of a long forward and two laterals. Teammate German finally was downed on Villanova's 3-yard line. Before the afternoon was over, the boys' hope was blasted. Villanova won, 35-6.

LEWIS BOTHERED ABOUT HIS TITLE

Gets Only 'Peanut' Money For Terrific Battle With Al Gainer

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 29.—(AP)—John Henry Lewis today is "the winner and still champion" of the world's light heavyweights—but he doesn't know what to do with the title.

The Phoenix, Ariz., negro, weak from making 174 pounds, successfully withstood the serious challenge of Al Gainer, New Haven Black Panther, four pounds lighter, in a 15-round title bout here last night, unleashing a vicious attack in the final five rounds to win the unanimous decision of the two judges and Referee Dave Fitzgerald.

The bout attracted a small crowd of only 2,278 that paid a net gate of $7,085. The champion is to collect a check today for half of this amount while Gainer fought for ten per cent.

The Associated Press score card gave Lewis eight rounds, Gainer, who was an overwhelming favorite with the home town gathering, five, and two were even. Gainer, who piled up an early lead with steaming left hooks, headed into the tenth round in the van, only to fade under the punishment doled out by the champ's smashing two-fisted attack to the head and body.

In the dressing room after the battle, Lewis said it was a "good scientific fight" but "I don't know what to do with the title. There doesn't seem to be any money in it and hasn't been any since I've had it. I had some trouble making the weight and what I got for risking the title tonight and going through a good tough fight certainly wasn't worth it. I've nothing planned for the future, yet. Gus Greenlee, my manager, and I have to talk it over."

Greenlee, echoing Lewis' feeling about the title, said:

"We're (a manager's prerogative) all through fighting for peanut money. The champ is still good at this weight, in fact he looks better than ever. There isn't an outstanding challenger for us now. We can lick Tiger Jack Fox (who has been mentioned as a challenger) any day. I'm leaving the future up to the champ. I don't know what we're going to do, but, then a title is a title—or isn't it?"

Al Mele, Gainer's manager, said his fighter fought from the fifth round on with an injured left hand, which pained the local boy severely.

SOUTHERN METHODIST EDGES OUT TEXAS, 7-6

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Southern Methodist's razzle-dazzle kings blasted their way over and through the University of Texas today to open their 1938 Southwest conference grid campaign with a 7-6 victory.

It was no push-over team the Mustangs met before 12,000 spectators, the luckless Longhorns several times thrusting their way to the danger zone.

After a scoreless opening period, the Mustangs showered a barrage of passes, marching 68 yards for the marker, Chelsea Crouch raced over for the tally.

The Texas score came after the Mustangs halted a drive on their own 38. Bill Forney, Texas back, intercepted Stidger's pass and side-stepped his way over the goal line.

OUACHITA RIDING CLASS AA CREST

naries of Ouachita's victory over Haynesville included the entire team.

Unlike the setup of previous years, when Ouachita boasted one or two or maybe three outstanding players, the eleven that took the field here Friday played as near perfection as any high school combination can hope to play.

While Fleming and Cason Mitchell were playing their expected brand of ball, the work of John Wilhite and Clayton Brown drew the applause of the fans. Brown played only one quarter of the game before going out with a hip injury but he was in on every play during his quarter of the skirmish. Wilhite, on the other hand, got his biggest share of ball carrying of the season. The husky Lion quarterback hit the Tornado line with pile-driving force, repeatedly sling off charges through the line for eight and 10 yards.

But the boys in the line were the real heroes of the game. They opened wide holes for their own ball carriers, held staunch against the Tornado offensive, allowing the mighty Golden Boys only six first downs and blocking like no othe Ouachita team ever did before against such a foe. In fact, the line of Mitchell Funderburk and Warren Seivers, ends, Buford Goss and Albert Gerson, tackles, James Peters and Howard Griffith, guards, and Tommy Younse, center, can be rated as the best all-around forward combination Ouachita has ever had.

Byrd's Yellow Jackets will have to be mighty good to beat the kind of ball the Lions played against Haynesville.

But Coach "Lefty" Haynes is cautioning his charges, reminding them that they have been beaten and that over-confidence can undo all they have done in the march toward a championship team.

As was the case with Haynesville, Ouachita will be seeking its first win over Byrd, another team no Monroe eleven has ever been able to conquer. The victory Friday over Haynesville was the first time the Tornado had ever bowed to a local aggregation.

Coach Lee Dobson's Jackets, who rested through an open date the past week before tackling Ouachita, will come here with a stellar array of performers. Byrd boasts two "iron men" at ends in "Cotton" Meager and James Roland and a hard-charging, fast-stepping backfield led by Jerry Mize, a veteran performer. Other backs are Cook and Linden, star halfbacks, and an alternating pair of fullbacks, Gene Russ and Ben Long.

Man, at one time, could move his ears in any direction. Underneath the skin are seven muscles which were used for this purpose. The muscles, however, are useless now.

LOYOLA NOSED OUT BY GENTS

the Gents again started a passing attack. After two long passes had been missed, Barnes dropped a 33-yard heave into the arms of Ouzts on the 18-yard line. Birkelback followed with a nine-yard plunge and from there Whitehurst scored on four plays. He went over from the one-yard line, where the Gents out-smarted the Lions by going off tackle when an end sweep was indicated.

The Lions fought back hard in the fourth quarter and twice in a row drew long penalties that almost proved costly. Once they were set back 15 yards for roughness and another time they were set back half the distance to the goal for slugging. They tightened up, however, and checked Centenary on the nine-yard line.

The lineups:

| Centenary | Pos. | Loyola |
|---|---|---|

Game Probably Decides Championship Of Southern Conference

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 29.—(AP)—A powerful and alert Duke university football team rode to a 14 to 0 victory over North Carolina t'day in a game which probably decided the Southern conference championship.

Duke's Blue Devils retained its record of not having its goal line crossed in six games. A record crowd of 35,000 saw the contest.

Ten plays after the second quarter began Duke scored, Irish Bob O'Mara smashing right guard two yards for the touchdown. Tony Ruffa was rushed into the game to convert from placement.

Eleven plays after the second half started, Duke scored again.

The Tar Heels received the kick-off, suffered a penalty and completed a five-yard pass. Then Tipton intercepted a pass on the Carolina 46-yard line and ran 11 yards to the 35. O'Mara's line gains and a 12-yard pass set up the score. Tipton hit right guard for two yards and a touchdown. Ruffa again converted from placement.

Duke's superiority was shown in first downs, 11 to 8, and in doubling the net yardage by rushing, 140 to 72. The Tar Heels gained more ground by passing, completing nine out of 18 tried for 110 yards, while Duke gained 84 yards on six completions out of nine efforts.

The lineups:

| Duke | Pos. | North Carolina |
|---|---|---|
| Perudo | LE | Palmer |
| Ribar | LT | Maronic |
| Johnson | LG | Woodson |
| Hill | C | Adams |
| Yorke | RG | Desich |
| Haas | RT | Kimball |

| Score by periods: | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Duke | 0 | 7 | 7 | 0 | —14 |

Officials: Referee, Arnold (Auburn); umpire, Hill (Georgia Tech); head linesman, Frew (Washington and Lee); field judge, Brewer (Maryland).

INSPIRED RICE BEATS AUBURN

Steakley, Substitute For Lain, Paces Owls To 14-0 Triumph Over Plainsmen

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Rice institute today found a corking good substitute for its injured Ernie Lain in lanky, speedy E. Y. Steakley, who scored two touchdowns to defeat Auburn, 14-0, for the Alabamans' third loss.

Twice Steakley burned up the gridiron with his speed to cross the Auburn goal. The first time he outran Spec Kelly, Auburn's speed merchant, for 10 yards after taking Cordill's 26-yard heave on the Auburn 10.

The second time he shook dust in the face of the whole Auburn team and galloped 62 yards for a touchdown.

The Rice team played a rugged, inspired game and kept the hardy Plainsmen outside its 24 yard line.

The Texans rolled up 15 first downs to Auburn's 5 and gained 285 yards as against 112 for Auburn.

| Score by periods: | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Auburn | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | — 0 |

Oil And Gas News

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Seven new wells in Louisiana oil fields, with total initial daily capacity of 1,322 barrels, were listed today in the weekly report of the minerals division of the department of conservation. Date of completion of the wells ranged from October 7 to October 25.

Two distillate producers were listed in the report, one at Lirette in Terrebonne parish and the other the second well completed in the new Shreveport field. The Lirette well produced at the rate of 142 barrels through a 3/4-inch choke.

Permits to drill 23 new wells were issued during the week by the department, of which nine were for operations in south Louisiana fields. Four of the permits were for wells east of the Atchafalaya river.

Daily production of crude oil in Louisiana for the week ending October 22 was estimated by the department at 266,598 barrels, of which 193,048 barrels a day came from gulf coast fields, and 73,550 barrels from north Louisiana.

Completions listed in the report were:

Cotton Valley, Webster parish, North American Oil Consolidated, No. 3 Stewart, 160 barrels; English Bayou, Calcasieu parish, Union Sulphur company, No. 9 Castle, 153 barrels; Harang, LaFourche parish, Pan-American Production company, No. 3 Duces-Abribat, 144 barrels; Lirette, Terrebonne parish, Humble Oil and Refining company, No. 1 R. Verret, 142 barrels (distillate) 3/4-inch.

Shreveport, Caddo parish, R. E. Allison Drilling company, No. 1 State, 81 barrels (distillate); Sulphurmines, Calcasieu parish, Union Sulphur company, No. 864 Fee, 323 barrels; Ville Platte, Evangeline parish, Continental Oil company, No. 2 Folanie Tate, 319 barrels.

Permits were issued to the following:

Caddo parish, Colonial corporation, L. L. Davidson, H. C. Production company; DeSoto parish, Tippett Oil corporation; Evangeline parish, Continental Oil company (two permits); Iberville parish, Humble Oil and Refining company (two permits), Louisiana Crusader Oil company.

Jefferson parish, The Texas company; LaSalle parish, Petroleum Heat and Power company, P. E. Trichell; Madison parish, Continental Oil company; Red River parish, N. W. Hunter; Sabine parish, Clyde Creighton.

St. Mary parish, Herton Oil company (two permits); Union parish, Southern Carbon company; Vermilion parish, Vermilion Oil corporation; Webster parish, Hunt Oil company (two permits), North American Oil Consolidated.

FEW STOCKS GAIN MODEST ADVANCES

Many Others Unchanged As Dealings Drag; Transfers 600,000 Shares

By Victor Eubank

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Traders pulled their punches in today's stock market and leading issues shifted from one foot to the other in an exceedingly narrow range.

While fractional losses predominated at the close, numerous stocks were unchanged and a scattering managed to emerge with modest advances. A few weak spots cropped up among the coppers.

With the exception of a handful of low-priced performers, which turned over in large blocks during the first hour, dealings inclined to drag. Transfers approximated 600,000 shares.

Utilities continued to display a lack of vigor notwithstanding yesterday's announcement of the huge war defense power expansion program in which the government and principal corporations are to cooperate.

Much of the session's sluggishness was attributed to the fact that Wall Street's guesses on the rail wage decision of the president's fact-finding committee, to be handed down in the afternoon, varied widely. Most speculative forces, consequently, were content to stand aside and await the actual verdict. The majority of rail stocks and bonds followed a slim groove.

Somewhat droopy throughout were North American, Commonwealth and Southern, American Water Works, Santa Fe, New York Central, United States Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, Western Union, American Can, Allied Chemical, Johns-Manville, Anaconda, Cerro de Pasco, Montgomery Ward, Standard Oil of New Jersey and General Electric.

In the matter of the utilities the financial sector noted some power executives were optimistic for the reopening of the capital markets for these companies as a result of the apparent truce with the government. Benefits to be derived by electrical equipment concerns were also stressed.

At the same time there was a little confusion over the initial commitments of the utilities involved in the defense plans. One commentator remarked that "the expenditure is not likely to be of particularly large proportions relative to the average yearly outlay of about $500,000,000 over the past two years."

The general run of corporation bonds were quiet and a trifle uneven, as were commodities.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Fractional declines of wheat prices here today followed a lower market at Liverpool. Traders expressed belief action of the Liverpool market indicated little concern over Argentine frosts.

Opening unchanged to 1-4 lower, December 65-64 7-8, May 66 1-2 to 3-8, wheat later showed little change. Corn started 1-8 to 3-8 down, December 45 to 44 7-8, May 48 3-8.

At the close, wheat was 1-4 off to 3-8 higher compared with yesterday's finish, Dec. 64 7-8 to 65, May 66 3-4 to 7-8; corn 1-8 to 1-4 lower; Dec. 45 to 44 7-8, May 48 1-2; and oats unchanged to 1-4 down.

MYSTERY AT THE LAZY R

BY CLARKE NEWLON

COPYRIGHT, 1930, NEA SERVICE, INC.

CHAPTER VII

They took the trail just as the sun broke in dawn and sent its first warming rays into the mists that formed a soft, white cloak over the hills toward which they rode in pairs, conversing and adjusting their bodies to the gaits of the fast-walking animals.

Nikki rode with Steve and realized in the grandeur of the breaking dawn, that she loved this man very much and that she was being distinctly unfair to him. Anything might happen on this trip, she thought, and decided to tell Steve about Bancroft and the money at the first opportunity. In the meantime she rode beside him in silence and told him with her eyes that she loved him greatly.

Long before they stopped to eat the sandwiches that had been prepared and to boil coffee over a tiny fire, the trail started upward and became more and more rocky. Once they crossed a dry river bed that was a tremendous trail of boulders walled in on either side by cliffs along which the seams and formations traced irregular patterns.

Their pause for lunch was brief for Uncle Jim wanted to reach the cabin before dark and the worst of the trail lay yet ahead. As they started out again he arranged them in single file and warned each rider against trying to pass another or of getting too close on the trail.

Rance led the way, followed by Nikki, Uncle Jim, Fiske, Sarto, Steve, Bancroft, and Woody, who brought up the rear to keep any of the little party from straggling too far back.

The trip appeared to be a hardship for Sarto alone. He was distinctly not an outdoor man and nature to him meant taking a taxi through Central Park—when it was the shortest route to his destination. He clung to his saddle as the trail narrowed and hunched disconsolately in his seat, scowling silently. The pack trip was obviously not of his choosing.

The trail wound along the side of a cliff, tortuous and rocky. On the inside rose the sheer walls of stone, washed clean by centuries of mountain storms, marked with the oddly colored lines of capricious reds and blacks against the brown. On the other side, along most of the slender path, the mountain sloped off steeply but not dangerously. A daring horseman could have ridden down the side had he chosen. It was dotted with clumps of low-growing bushes and trees that clustered courageously in the soil around the boulders.

But in spots the violent torrents of the spring thaws had burst over the trail and rushed down the mountain side in foaming white cascades, stripping the slope of its bushes, stunted trees, and boulders, transforming the decline into a sudden, breath-taking drop that might be 50 or might be 200 feet straight down before the break ended in a rough bed of granite.

They had been on that upward trail several hours when it happened. Nikki was watching her horse stepping carefully at the heels of Rance's mount. Behind her Uncle Jim hummed a monotonous little song and paid small attention to a trail that was long familiar to him.

Behind her uncle came Fiske, quiet and observant, and back of him rode the glowering Sarto. They were passing one of the sections of the trail narrowed by the snow-laden torrents and the path hung precipitously over awesome nothingness on the right. There wasn't over 20 feet of danger and then the trail widened and fell off into gradual sloping ground again.

Nikki heard a sudden frightened yell and turned to see Sarto's horse plunging forward, hugging the inner wall. Sarto clung to the pommel, his head ducked forward into the steed's mane.

The quick lunge carried Sarto's horse crowding between the wall and the mare ridden by Fiske. The mare fought desperately for balance. Her iron-shod hoofs struck sparks as she slipped on the edge of the trail.

"Throw yourself off," shouted Uncle Jim, twisting in his saddle, helpless to aid.

There was only an instant as the mare hung on the brink. Fiske leaned desperately to throw his weight inward. Sarto's horse surged forward again in frightened leaps and broke through.

Steve, riding directly behind Sarto, reined in his horse abruptly at Sarto's unexpected lunge. He could see the quick, deadly drop off the trail, the narrow path upon which two horses could not stand side by side. He could see just ahead the safety of the sloping mountain with its dotting shrubs and small trees.

That safety lay a bare seven feet ahead of Fiske.

The final plunge of Sarto's horse thrust Fiske's mare far out on the edge. One hind foot slipped over and pawed into the thin air. She fought and lost the battle for balance.

Then Steve moved. With the sudden skill of years of polo playing, he turned his horse to the outside of the trail. He leaned forward and brought his flat hand down brutally hard on his mount's rump.

His horse bounded forward and struck Fiske's mare almost as she slipped off the trail. The momentum of the blow carried the mare forward and in. She was safe. So was Fiske. But the motion threw Steve's horse to the outer edge, fighting for footing on the last few feet of the trail which overhung the precipice.

Steve lost his balance and plunged over his mount's shoulder, but the force of the fall carried him past the precipice He grabbed a clump of bushes as he slipped downward and clung on desperately. His horse scrambled forward, lost its footing, rolled over twice and finally stopped against a tree, got up and shook itself vigorously.

Uncle Jim was off his horse by that time with a rope in his hand. He tossed the noose down to Steve, snubbed the other end around his saddle horn.

"Slip it over your arms," he shouted, and Steve managed to find footing long enough to get the noose over his head and shoulders. Rance and Uncle Jim hauled him back up.

Sarto still sat his horse sullenly. Fiske was leaning against the wall. He came over to give Steve the final helping hand back up on the trail.

"Thanks," he said, and his voice meant it.

"That was mighty quick thinking," said Uncle Jim.

"Mighty quick acting, too," said Rance.

Nikki was standing back, her face white, and she couldn't get over the feeling that her knees weren't going to support her much longer. Steve came over and she clung to him.

"I'm all right, honey," he told her and laughed gently.

"I know you are now," she said, "but you weren't a minute ago and you might have been killed. Oh, Steve."

SPOT PURCHASES BOLSTER PRICES

New Orleans Market Closes Steady At Net Advances Of 1 To 4 Points

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Spot house buying bolstered cotton prices here today and the market closed steady at net advances of one to four points.

Trading was quiet during most of the short session and trade buying on the scale down absorbed hedge selling in distant months and week-end liquidation in other positions.

Final prices were at or near the highs with December at 8.66-67, January 8.56 bid, March 8.55-56, May 8.37, July 8.22, October 7.93 and December (new) at 7.95 bid.

The turnover yesterday was 25,350 bales and open commitments 448,250 bales, a decrease of 1,750 bales from the previous day.

Exports today were 1,633 bales.

Oil And Gas News

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Seven new wells in Louisiana oil fields, with total initial daily capacity of 1,322 barrels, were listed today in the weekly report of the minerals division of the department of conservation. Date of completion of the wells ranged from October 7 to October 25.

Two distillate producers were listed in the report, one at Lirette in Terrebonne parish and the other the second well completed in the new Shreveport field. The Lirette well produced at the rate of 142 barrels through a 3/8-inch choke.

Permits to drill 23 new wells were issued during the week by the department, of which nine were for operations in south Louisiana fields. Four of the permits were for wells east of the Atchafalaya river.

Daily production of crude oil in Louisiana for the week ending October 22 was estimated by the department at 266,598 barrels, of which 193,048 barrels a day came from gulf coast fields, and 73,550 barrels from north Louisiana.

Completions listed in the report were:

Cotton Valley, Webster parish, North American Oil Consolidated, No. 3 Stewart, 160 barrels; English Bayou, Calcasieu parish, Union Sulphur company, No. 9 Castle, 153 barrels; Harang, LaFourche parish, Pan-American Production company, No. 3 Duces-Abribat, 144 barrels; Lirette, Terrebonne parish, Humble Oil and Refining company, No. 1 R. Verret, 142 barrels (distillate) 3/8-inch.

Shreveport, Caddo parish, R. E. Allison Drilling company, No. 1 State, 81 barrels (distillate); Sulphurmines, Calcasieu parish, Union Sulphur company, No. 864 Fee, 323 barrels; Ville Platte, Evangeline parish, Continental Oil company, No. 2 Folanie Tate, 319 barrels.

Permits were issued to the following:

Caddo parish, Colonial corporation, L. L. Davidson, H. C. Production company; DeSoto parish, Tippett Oil corporation; Evangeline parish, Continental Oil company (two permits); Iberville parish, Humble Oil and Refining company (two permits), Louisiana Crusader Oil company.

Jefferson parish, The Texas company; LaSalle parish, Petroleum Heat and Power company, P. E. Trichell; Madison parish, Continental Oil company; Red River parish, N. W. Hunter; Sabine parish, Clyde Creighton.

St. Mary parish, Herton Oil company (two permits); Union parish, Southern Carbon company; Vermilion parish, Vermilion Oil corporation; Webster parish, Hunt Oil company (two permits), North American Oil Consolidated.

FEW STOCKS GAIN MODEST ADVANCES

Many Others Unchanged As Dealings Drag; Transfers 600,000 Shares

By Victor Eubank

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(AP)—Traders pulled their punches in today's stock market and leading issues shifted from one foot to the other in an exceedingly narrow range.

While fractional losses predominated at the close, numerous stocks were unchanged and a scattering managed to emerge with modest advances. A few weak spots cropped up among the coppers.

With the exception of a handful of low-priced performers, which turned over in large blocks during the first hour, dealings inclined to drag. Transfers approximated 600,000 shares.

Utilities continued to display a lack of vigor notwithstanding yesterday's announcement of the huge war defense power expansion program in which the government and principal corporations are to cooperate.

Much of the session's sluggishness was attributed to the fact that Wall Street's guesses on the rail wage decision of the president's fact-finding committee, to be handed down in the afternoon, varied widely. Most speculative forces, consequently, were content to stand aside and await the actual verdict. The majority of rail stocks and bonds followed a slim groove.

Somewhat droopy throughout were North American, Commonwealth and Southern, American Water Works, Santa Fe, New York Central, United States Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, Western Union, American Can, Allied Chemical, Johns-Manville, Anaconda, Cerro de Pasco, Montgomery Ward, Standard Oil of New Jersey and General Electric.

In the matter of the utilities the financial sector noted some power executives were optimistic for the reopening of the capital markets for these companies as a result of the apparent truce with the government. Benefits to be derived by electrical equipment concerns were also stressed.

At the same time there was a little confusion over the initial commitments of the utilities involved in the defense plans. One commentator remarked that "the expenditure is not likely to be of particularly large proportions relative to the average yearly outlay of about $500,000,000 over the past two years."

The general run of corporation bonds were quiet and a trifle uneven, as were commodities.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Fractional declines of wheat prices here today followed a lower market at Liverpool. Traders expressed belief action of the Liverpool market indicated little concern over Argentine frosts.

Opening unchanged to 1-4 lower, December 65-64 7-8, May 66 1-2 to 3-8, wheat later showed little change. Corn started 1-8 to 3-8 down, December 45 to 44 7-8, May 48 3-8.

At the close, wheat was 1-4 off to 3-8 higher compared with yesterday's finish, Dec. 64 7-8 to 65, May 66 3-4 to 7-8; corn 1-8 to 1-4 lower; Dec. 45 to 44 7-8, May 48 1-2; and oats unchanged to 1-4 down.

MYSTERY AT THE LAZY R

BY CLARKE NEWLON

COPYRIGHT, 1938, NEA SERVICE, INC.

CHAPTER VII

They took the trail just as the sun broke in dawn and sent its first warming rays into the mists that formed a soft, white cloak over the hills toward which they rode in pairs, conversing and adjusting their bodies to the gaits of the fast-walking animals.

Nikki rode with Steve and realized in the grandeur of the breaking dawn, that she loved this man very much and that she was being distinctly unfair to him. Anything might happen on this trip, she thought, and decided to tell Steve about Bancroft and the money at the first opportunity. In the meantime she rode beside him in silence and told him with her eyes that she loved him greatly.

Long before they stopped to eat the sandwiches that had been prepared and to boil coffee over a tiny fire, the trail started upward and became more and more rocky. Once they crossed a dry river bed that was a tremendous trail of boulders walled in on either side by cliffs along which the seams and formations traced irregular patterns.

Their pause for lunch was brief for Uncle Jim wanted to reach the cabin before dark and the worst of the trail lay yet ahead. As they started out again he arranged them in single file and warned each rider against trying to pass another or of getting too close on the trail.

Rance led the way, followed by Nikki, Uncle Jim, Fiske, Sarto, Steve, Bancroft, and Woody, who brought up the rear to keep any of the little party from straggling too far back.

The trip appeared to be a hardship for Sarto alone. He was distinctly not an outdoor man and nature to him meant taking a taxi through Central Park—when it was the shortest route to his destination. He clung to his saddle as the trail narrowed and hunched disconsolately in his seat, scowling silently. The pack trip was obviously not of his choosing.

The trail wound along the side of a cliff, tortuous and rocky. On the inside rose the sheer walls of stone, washed clean by centuries of mountain storms, marked with the oddly colored lines of capricious reds and blacks against the brown. On the other side, along most of the slender path, the mountain sloped off steeply but not dangerously. A daring horseman could have ridden down the side had he chosen. It was dotted with clumps of low-growing bushes and trees that clustered courageously in the soil around the boulders.

But in spots the violent torrents of the spring thaws had burst over the trail and rushed down the mountain side in foaming white cascades, stripping the slope of its bushes, stunted trees, and boulders, transforming the decline into a sudden, breath-taking drop that might be 50 or might be 200 feet straight down before the break ended in a rough bed of granite.

They had been on that upward trail several hours when it happened. Nikki was watching her horse stepping carefully at the heels of Rance's mount. Behind her Uncle Jim hummed a monotonous little song and paid small attention to a trail that was long familiar to him.

Behind her uncle came Fiske, quiet and observant, and back of him rode the glowering Sarto. They were passing one of the sections of the trail narrowed by the snow-laden torrents and the path hung precipitously over awesome nothingness on the right. There wasn't over 20 feet of danger and then the trail widened and fell off into gradual sloping ground again.

Nikki heard a sudden frightened yell and turned to see Sarto's horse plunging forward, hugging the inner wall. Sarto clung to the pommel, his head ducked forward into the steed's mane.

The quick lunge carried Sarto's horse crowding between the wall and the mare ridden by Fiske. The mare fought desperately for balance. Her iron-shod hoofs struck sparks as she slipped on the edge of the trail.

"Throw yourself off," shouted Uncle Jim, twisting in his saddle, helpless to aid.

There was only an instant as the mare hung on the brink. Fiske leaned desperately to throw his weight inward. Sarto's horse surged forward again in frightened leaps and broke through.

Steve, riding directly behind Sarto, reined in his horse abruptly at Sarto's unexpected lunge. He could see the quick, deadly drop off the trail, the narrow path upon which two horses could not stand side by side. He could see just ahead the safety of the sloping mountain with its dotting shrubs and small trees.

That safety lay a bare seven feet ahead of Fiske.

The final plunge of Sarto's horse thrust Fiske's mare far out on the edge. One hind foot slipped over and pawed into the thin air. She fought and lost the battle for balance.

Then Steve moved. With the sudden skill of years of polo playing, he turned his horse to the outside of the trail. He leaned forward and brought his flat hand down brutally hard on his mount's rump.

His horse bounded forward and struck Fiske's mare almost as she slipped off the trail. The momentum of the blow carried the mare forward and in. She was safe. So was Fiske. But the motion threw Steve's horse to the outer edge, fighting for footing on the last few feet of the trail which overhung the precipice.

Steve lost his balance and plunged over his mount's shoulder, but the force of the fall carried him past the precipice He grabbed a clump of bushes as he slipped downward and clung on desperately. His horse scrambled forward, lost its footing, rolled over twice and finally stopped against a tree, got up and shook itself vigorously.

Uncle Jim was off his horse by that time with a rope in his hand. He tossed the noose down to Steve, snubbed the other end around his saddle horn.

"Slip it over your arms," he shouted, and Steve managed to find footing long enough to get the noose over his head and shoulders. Rance and Uncle Jim hauled him back up.

Sarto still sat his horse sullenly. Fiske was leaning against the wall. He came over to give Steve the final helping hand back up on the trail.

"Thanks," he said, and his voice meant it.

"That was mighty quick thinking," said Uncle Jim.

"Mighty quick acting, too," said Rance.

Nikki was standing back, her face white, and she couldn't get over the feeling that her knees weren't going to support her much longer. Steve came over and she clung to him.

"I'm all right, honey," he told her and laughed gently.

"I know you are now," she said, "but you weren't a minute ago and you might have been killed. Oh, Steve."

Clarks

Mrs. C. T. Woods of Clarks was complimented on her birthday by Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Mason, who entertained at a southern-style chicken dinner in her honor on Sunday at their country home near Kelly. The occasion brought together an intimate group of life-time friends, who followed the lumber industry from Missouri to Louisiana more than 30 years ago. Included in the party were: Mrs. C. T. Woods, Miss Ada Woods, O. S. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Z. Buffington, Clarks; Miss Claire Hawne, Little Rock, Ark., and Mrs. George Webb, Miss Clarice Mason and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Mason, Kelly.

T. E. Skirvin, superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school, was host to the teachers and pupils of the Sunday school at an ice cream picnic. The social was held in the local city park and celebrated the enrollment and attendance of 200 pupils at the Sabbath school.

During the refreshment hour more than 16 gallons of ice cream were served by Mr. Skirvin, who was assisted in this courtesy by Mr. Miller, W. B. Parkins and Junior Antley.

In addition to the large number of pupils, the following teachers were present: Mrs. Lloyd Christman, Mrs. C. D. Farrow, Miss Beartrease Corbin, Mrs. M. D. Ballard, O. S. Chapman, Mrs. Robert Gilbert, J. J. Ivey, Mrs. C. T. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Z. L. Buffington, Rev. Paul Jones, H. O. Cooksey, Sr., Mrs. John Dawes, Mrs. Clyde Bradford, Mrs. Robert Gilbert, Mr. Clinton Miller, Mrs. George Wright and T. E. Skirvin.

Mrs. Cleve Barnette was hostess to members of Circle No. 3 of the Baptist W. M. U. at her home. Interesting numbers of the Royal Service program were: Devotional, Hebrew 12:1-3 and 4:15; a talk on "Palestine 50 Years Ago and Today," Mrs. Ellis Jones; "Baptist Beginnings in the Near East," Mrs. Lee Dean; "Cooperative Program at Work in the Near East, in Syria and in Pel Abiv," Mrs. George Sellers; "In Nazareth and in Haifi," Mrs. Cleve Barnette, and "The Jew in My Town," Mrs. George Wright. The business session followed and the meeting was closed with sentence prayers. During the social hour, Mrs. Barnette served a delicious refreshment course to her guests.

Twenty-two members of the Sunbeam Band met with their leader, Mrs. Robert Gilbert, at the Clarks Baptist church for their program on "The Chinese Boat Baby," from their mission study book. At the conclusion of the lesson, a social recess gave the children an opportunity to enjoy their candy suckers presented to them by Mrs. Gilbert. An interesting feature followed when the children cut Chinese fans from cardboard and, with the use of colored crayons and other ornamental accessories, decorated the fans with Chinese motifs and attached the candy-sucker sticks as handles.

Present at this meeting were: Mary Jane Farrow, Patricia Beasley, Billie Mae and Lois Meek, Martha Lee and Hazel Dean Patton, Billy Jean Crowell, Yvonne Estes, Genell Douglas, Raymond Ballard, Aucine and Mattie Lorraine Coates, Gloria Anne Weaver, Kenneth Berry Williams, Martha Mae Bolton, Hazel Dean and Bobby Jean Gilbert, Willoughby Thomas, Patsy Ruth, George Brooks and Barnette Sellers, Buddie Bolton, Helen Francis Harris and Mrs. Gilbert.

Quitman Zeagler, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Zeagler of Clarks, has returned from a visit in Kansas City, Mo., where he attended the national convention of the F.F.A. The trip was awarded to Quitman, a student of the Grayson Agricultural High school, as a prize award in recognition of his work as a state farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sheppard returned on Sunday from a visit in Hot Springs, Ark., where they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sheppard, who had been guests in the Sheppard home in Clarks for the last week, and where returning to their home in Washington Courthouse, O. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sheppard joined Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lupton of Columbus, O., with whom they had motored south, and who had gone to Hot Springs for a visit, following a visit in Clarks, in the early week.

Mrs. C. C. Sheppard left on Sunday evening for Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Byron Hirst, and little granddaughter, Helen Anna Hirst.

Mrs. Federico Macia, who was before her recent marriage, Miss Thalia Ferree, has returned from Miami, Fla., where she motored with Mr. Macia, who has returned to Havana, Cuba, to remain until January, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Macia plan to make their home in Miami.

On her return from Miami, Mrs. Macia was accompanied by Mrs. Will Slagle, who will spend a month in Clarks as the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Fred H. Mecom.

Percy Galligan has accepted a position as a sawyer with the Crowell and Spencer Lumber company at Longleaf.

W. L. McDermott returned on Wednesday from Grandin, Mo., where he was called on Friday, on account of the death of his father, John McDermott.

The junior and senior home economics classes of Clarks High school entertained with a Halloween party at the home economics cottage, and carried out the following program: Welcome, Harrietta Cobb; response, Mrs. M. D. Ballard; club song, "Follow the Bettye Lamp"; explanation of adult class, Mrs. F. G. Johnston; bias binding, Ruth Morris; bound button holes, Harrietta Cobb; sizes of cans, Elzie Carter; vocal solo, Mary Ferree; apple race, Elsie Carter, Elsie Lea Barnette, Letaune Knowles, Harrietta Cobb and Juanita Thomas.

Refreshments were served to Joe Jordan, M. D. Ballard, U. N. Bradford, Virginia Miller, H. O. Cooksey, G. C. Meredith, E. M. Carter, Gertrude Dunn, H. A. Cobb, Cecil Emmons, George Streetman, Dewey Braddock, John Dawes, Clyde Bradford, W. A. Smith, J. D. Richman, W. P. Banks, A. R. Crabtree, John Sellars, Odell Jones, Maxine Wright, F. G. Johnston, Dora Cooksey, Pennie Cottingham, Lessie Belle Gough, Sentelle Johns, Ina Mae Cook, Ada Woods, Maxine Jordan, Harrietta Cobb, Elsie Lea Barnette, Letaine Knowles, Chloticld Dunn, Hazel Cotten, Lenora May, Margaret Black, Myrtis Kinnison, Lorraine Meredith, Ruth Morris, Juanita Thomas, Elsie Carter, Lois Carrol, Mary Ferree and Katherine Howell.

Oak Grove

At a recent meeting of the Woman's Department club, Dr. Mary Mims of Baton Rouge was the guest speaker, with three other guests and 27 members present.

Mrs. D. W. Kelly, chairman of the literary department, conducted the program, which was as follows: "Cordell Hull," Mrs. C. H. Neely; "International Relations," Dr. Mims.

The hostesses, Mrs. A. D. Bagwell and Mrs. Spencer Farmer, assisted by Mrs. C. A. Franklin and Mrs. R. M. Grasby, served a salad course and coffee to Dr. Mims, Mesdames Abernathy, T. W. Wright, Rose, F. H. Anders, E. O. Burnham, W. M. Dollerhide, C. A. Franklin, R. M. Grasby, W. L. Gill, Darnell; E. F. Howell, J. L. Holliman, J. J. Joyce, Jr., D. W. Kelly, J. L. Kelly, J. S. Lee, A. S. Mayo, A. C. Monroe, C. H. Neely, H. M. O'Connell, T. N. Pulley, Sr., W. A. Ross, Clyde Turner, Charles Walcott, Henry Thomas, Ida Chambless, H. J. Long, D. M. Copeland and Miss Louise Johnson.

The workers' council of the Methodist church met recently to discuss the new drive that had been started for better attendance at church school. Superintendent C. H. Neely presided over the meeting. Mrs. H. Cheatham, Mrs. B. H. Bolding, Miss Dora Meeks and Miss Sue Williams were appointed as substitute teachers.

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames R. J. Cummins, J. S. Pollard, L. L. James, D. W. Kelly, Mary B. Thompson and Jesse James, D. M. Copeland, Rev. E. B. Emmerich and C. H. Neely.

Several members of the Women's Department club of Oak Grove attended the club institute held at Tallulah. Those from Oak Grove who were on the program were Mrs. W. M. Dollerhide, second vice-president of the Fifth district L. F. W. C.; and Mrs. D. M. Copeland, district chairman of drama and theater.

Those making the trip were Mesdames Dollerhide, J. J. Joyce, Jr., J. S. Lee, A. S. Mayo, Clyde Turner, C. H. Neely, M. H. O'Connell, E. O. Burnham, W. L. Gill, H. M. Thomas, R. M. Grasby and D. M. Copeland.

Clarks

Mrs. C. T. Woods of Clarks was complimented on her birthday by Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Mason, who entertained at a southern-style chicken dinner in her honor on Sunday at their country home near Kelly. The occasion brought together an intimate group of life-time friends, who followed the lumber industry from Missouri to Louisiana more than 30 years ago, included in the party were: Mrs. C. T. Woods, Miss Ada Woods, O. S. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Z. Buffington, Clarks; Miss Claire Hawne, Little Rock, Ark., and Mrs. George Webb, Miss Clarice Mason and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Mason, Kelly.

T. E. Skirvin, superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school, was host to the teachers and pupils of the Sunday school at an ice cream picnic. The social was held in the local city park and celebrated the enrollment and attendance of 200 pupils at the Sabbath school.

During the refreshment hour more than 16 gallons of ice cream were served by Mr. Skirvin, who was assisted in this courtesy by Mr. Miller, W. B. Perkins and Junior Antley.

In addition to the large number of pupils, the following teachers were present: Mrs. Lloyd Christman, Mrs. C. D. Farrow, Miss Beartrease Corbin, Mrs. M. D. Ballard, O. S. Chapman, Mrs. Robert Gilbert, J. J. Ivey, Mrs. C. T. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Z. L. Buffington, Rev. Paul Jones, H. O. Cooksey, Sr., Mrs. John Dawes, Mrs. Clyde Bradford, Mrs. Robert Gilbert, Mr. Clinton Miller, Mrs. George Wright and T. E. Skirvin.

Mrs. Cleve Barnette was hostess to members of Circle No. 3 of the Baptist W. M. U. at her home. Interesting numbers of the Royal Service program were: Devotional, Hebrew 12:1-3 and 4:15; a talk on "Palestine 50 Years Ago and Today," Mrs. Ellis Jones; "Baptist Beginnings in the Near East," Mrs. Lee Dean; "Cooperative Program at Work in the Near East, in Syria and in Pel Abiv," Mrs. George Sellers; "In Nazareth and in Haifi," Mrs. Cleve Barnette, and "The Jew in My Town," Mrs. George Wright. The business session followed and the meeting was closed with sentence prayers. During the social hour, Mrs. Barnette served a delicious refreshment course to her guests.

Twenty-two members of the Sunbeam Band met with their leader, Mrs. Robert Gilbert, at the Clarks Baptist church for their program on "The Chinese Boat Baby," from their mission study book. At the conclusion of the lesson, a social recess gave the children an opportunity to enjoy their candy suckers presented to them by Mrs. Gilbert. An interesting feature followed when the children cut Chinese fans from cardboard and, with the use of colored crayons and other ornamental accessories, decorated the fans with Chinese motifs and attached the candy-sucker sticks as handles.

Present at this meeting were: Mary Jane Farrow, Patricia Beasley, Billie Mae and Lois Meek, Martha Lee and Hazel Dean Patton, Billy Jean Crowell, Yvonne Estes, Genell Douglas, Raymond Ballard, Aucine and Mattie Lorraine Coates, Gloria Anne Weaver, Kenneth Berry Williams, Martha Mae Bolton, Hazel Dean and Bobby Jean Gilbert, Willoughby Thomas, Patsy Ruth, George Brooks and Barnette Sellers, Buddie Bolton, Helen Francis Harris and Mrs. Gilbert.

Quitman Zeagler, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Zeagler of Clarks, has returned from a visit in Kansas City, Mo., where he attended the national convention of the F.F.A. The trip was awarded to Quitman, a student of the Grayson Agricultural High school, as a prize award in recognition of his work as a state farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sheppard returned on Sunday from a visit in Hot Springs, Ark., where they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sheppard, who had been guests in the Sheppard home in Clarks for the last week, and where returning to their home in Washington Courthouse, O. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sheppard joined Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lupton of Columbus, O., with whom they had motored south, and who had gone to Hot Springs for a visit, following a visit in Clarks, in the early week.

Mrs. C. C. Sheppard left on Sunday evening for Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Byron Hirst, and little granddaughter, Helen Anne Hirst.

Mrs. Federico Macia, who was before her recent marriage, Miss Thalia Ferree, has returned from Miami, Fla., where she motored with Mr. Macia, who has returned to Havana, Cuba, to remain until January, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Macia plan to make their home in Miami.

On her return from Miami, Mrs. Macia was accompanied by Mrs. Will Slagle, who will spend a month in Clarks as the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Fred H. Mecom.

Percy Galligan has accepted a position as a sawyer with the Crowell and Spencer Lumber company at Longleaf.

W. L. McDermott returned on Wednesday from Grandin, Mo., where he was called on Friday, on account of the death of his father, John McDermott.

The junior and senior home economics classes of Clarks High school entertained with a Halloween party at the home economics cottage, and carried out the following program: Welcome, Harrietta Cobb; response, Mrs. M. D. Ballard; club song, "Follow the Bettye Lamp"; explanation of adult class, Mrs. F. G. Johnston; bias binding, Ruth Morris; bound button holes, Harrietta Cobb; sizes of cans, Elsie Carter; vocal solo, Mary Ferree; apple race, Elsie Carter, Elsie Lea Barnette, Letaine Knowles, Harrietta Cobb and Juanita Thomas.

Refreshments were served to Joe Jordan, M. D. Ballard, U. N. Bradford, Virginia Miller, H. O. Cooksey, G. C. Meredith, E. M. Carter, Gertrude Dunn, H. A. Cobb, Cecil Emmons, George Streetman, Dewey Braddock, John Dawes, Clyde Bradford, W. A. Smith, J. D. Richman, W. P. Banks, A. R. Crabtree, John Sellars, Odell Jones, Maxine Wright, F. G. Johnston, Dora Cooksey, Pennie Cottingham, Lessie Belle Gough, Sentelle Johns, Ina Mae Cook, Ada Woods, Maxine Jordan, Harrietta Cobb, Elsie Lea Barnette, Letaine Knowles, Chlotield Dunn, Hazel Cotten, Lenora May, Margaret Black, Myrtis Kinnison, Lorraine Meredith, Ruth Morris, Juanita Thomas, Elsie Carter, Lois Carrol, Mary Ferree and Katherine Howell.

Oak Grove

At a recent meeting of the Woman's Department club, Dr. Mary Mims of Baton Rouge was the guest speaker, with three other guests and 27 members present.

Mrs. D. W. Kelly, chairman of the literary department, conducted the program, which was as follows: "Cordell Hull," Mrs. C. H. Neely; "International Relations," Dr. Mims.

The hostesses, Mrs. A. D. Bagwell and Mrs. Spencer Farmer, assisted by Mrs. C. A. Franklin and Mrs. R. M. Grasby, served a salad course and coffee to Dr. Mims, Mesdames Abernathy, T. W. Wright, Rose, F. H. Anders, E. O. Burnham, W. M. Dollerhide, C. A. Franklin, R. M. Grasby, W. L. Gill, Darnell; E. F. Howell, J. L. Holliman, J. J. Joyce, Jr., D. W. Kelly, J. L. Kelly, J. S. Lee, A. S. Mayo, A. C. Monroe, C. H. Neely, H. M. O'Connell, T. N. Pulley, Sr., W. A. Ross, Clyde Turner, Charles Walcott, Henry Thomas, Ida Chambless, H. J. Long, D. M. Copeland and Miss Louise Johnson.

The workers' council of the Methodist church met recently to discuss the new drive that had been started for better attendance at church school. Superintendent C. H. Neely presided over the meeting. Mrs. H. Cheatham, Mrs. B. H. Bolding, Miss Dora Meeks and Miss Sue Williams were appointed as substitute teachers.

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames R. Cummins, J. S. Pollard, L. L. James, D. W. Kelly, Mary B. Thompson and Jesse James, D. M. Copeland, Rev. E. B. Emmerich and C. H. Neely.

Several members of the Women's Department club of Oak Grove attended the club institute held at Tallulah. Those from Oak Grove who were on the program were Mrs. W. M. Dollerhide, second vice-president of the Fifth district L. F. W. C.; and Mrs. D. M. Copeland, district chairman of drama and theater.

Those making the trip were Mesdames Dollerhide, J. J. Joyce, Jr., J. S. Lee, A. S. Mayo, Clyde Turner, C. H. Neely, M. H. O'Connell, E. O. Burnham, W. L. Gill, H. M. Thomas, R. M. Grasby and D. M. Copeland.

NOSEGAY LINENS

The new bride takes great care in assembling her linens. If you are shopping for a gift, consider hemstitched sheets and cases of fine white percale, printed with dainty old-fashioned nosegays.

Milk wool, a new synthetic fiber made from milk, is claimed to be 85 per cent as strong as wool, and more resilient.

HOMECOMING AT CENTER PLANNED

Sixth Annual Affair Scheduled At Northeast Center On Friday

The sixth annual homecoming of the Northeast Center of Louisiana State university will take place on Friday. It is expected that a great number of "old grads" will return to the campus of their alma mater to join with the freshmen and sophomores in celebrating the occasion. In addition to these former students, many high school seniors from the northeast section of the state have been invited to attend the Southeastern Louisiana college-Northeast Center football game. This contest between the two tradtional rivals in junior college sports is to be one of the highlights of the homecoming program.

The general committee, headed by E. J. Brown, and composed of many faculty and student members, has drawn up a varied group of plans providing entertainment for all visitors. On Tuesday, the committees will meet and discuss more in detail the different projects. It is expected that a dance, general gathering of visitors, and large parade will be featured. During the half period of the football contest a colorful program of music and cheers will be presented.

Dr. C. C. Colvert, dean of the college, will also act as host to the principals of the high schools that were asked to attend homecoming. They have responded admirably to his invitations, even replying that they would bring the bands of their respective schools with them, in several cases, the dean said.

DISTRICT LEGION MEET SCHEDULED

Members of American Legion posts and auxiliaries in the Fifth district will conduct a conference in Monroe, at Hotel Frances, next Sunday, according to an announcement made by Arden B. Smith, of Oak Grove, district commander. The conference will begin at 10 a.m.

Reports of legion and auxiliary activities over the district will be submitted at the conference.

At this time the district organization is endeavoring to attain its annual membership quota by Armistice day, and a dicussion of the membership drive will be one of the important phases of the conference.

TEXAS RADIO CONTRACT GIVEN TECH GRADUATE

RUSTON, La., Oct. 29.—(Special)—Mrs. Iva Mae Caldwell, formerly Iva Mae Dowling of Ruston, a graduate of Louisiana Tech, has been awarded a radio contract with station KRIS in Corpus Christi, Tex., according to Miss Helen Graham, head of the Tech school of home economics.

Mrs. Caldwell is regularly employed as home economics teacher in the Robstown, Tex., High school. The program she is broadcasting each Friday morning at 10:45 o'clock is called "Family Airs," a group of friendly talks on matters pertaining to the home and the various members of the family.

Charges were docketed after Behan was questioned all night.

State Will Cast Vote On 28 Constitutional Amendments

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Louisiana's interest in the November general elections will center in 28 proposed amendments to the state constitution.

The vote on candidates will simply ratify the Democratic slate since there is no Republican opposition. United States Senator John H. Overton and the eight Louisiana congressmen are among those thus assured new terms at Washington.

The constitutional amendments were approved for submission to the electorate by the state legislature at its regular session the past summer.

Louisiana has a complex constitution, more intricate than the organic laws of most states, and therefore it is amended often to allow new phases of legislation.

Among the proposed amendments to the constitution before the voters on November 8 will be propositions to exempt new homes or home improvements from property taxes, provide for retirement of judges, prescribe all taxes except property taxes after three years' delinquency, allow parishes to build industrial plants out of public funds and lower the sulphur tax from $2 per ton to $1.03.

The proposed amendments, in the order in which they will appear on the ballot follow:

1. Exempt new homes constructed after January 1, 1938, and home improvements made since then from property taxes for a period of three years.

2. Limit to three years the state's present power to grant 10-year tax exemptions to new manufacturing plants.

3. Provide that all taxes, other than property taxes, shall prescribe after three years.

4. Authorize issuance of $5,000,000 highway bonds, half for farm roads and half for general highway maintenance.

5. Exempt from taxation any bridge and property part of any bridge which may be constructed hereafter across the Mississippi river.

6. Extend the homestead exemption against seizure for debt from $2,000 to $4,000.

7. Authorize the New Orleans public belt railroad commission to issue $2,000,000 refunding bonds.

8. Provide one of the senators elected from the 28th senatorial district shall be a resident of either Lincoln or Union parishes and the other shall be a resident of either West Carroll or Morehouse parishes, and providing that one of the senators from the 31st district must be a resident of either East Carroll or Madison parishes and the other from either Tensas or Concordia parishes.

9. Allow city of New Orleans to levy for an additional fifty years a special ad valorem tax of two mills on the dollar upon all taxable property.

10. Extend jurisdiction of city courts to juvenile cases and increase salaries of city court judges $1,200 a year above compensation they presently receive. The addition is to be paid by the state as supplementary to what they get locally.

11. Exempt from property taxes motor boats using gasoline as fuel.

12. Provide for retirement at full pay of district attorneys reaching the age of 80 and having served continually for 30 years.

13. Extend to parishes the right to issue bonds against any revenue-producing public utility.

14. Provide judges of courts of record may retire at two-thirds pay at 65 if the judge has served 20 years continuously, at 70 if he has served 15 years continuously and at any age upon completing more than 23 years of continuous service. Also provides mandatory retirement at 80, at full pay if he has served continuously for 20 years.

15. Create a city school board for Bogalusa and vesting it with authority over city schools in place of the municipal government.

16. Authorizing the city of New Orleans, through the Public Belt Railroad commission, to issue up to $15,000,000 bonds to build and maintain one or more railroad depots.

17. Require elections levying acreage taxes in drainage districts to be determined by majority vote in number of acres owned by land owners qualified to vote (and not by majority of assessment as heretofore) and by majority in numbers of land owners qualified to vote.

18. Allow the state or any of its political subdivisions to convey to the federal government land, rights-of-way or easements for flood control or navigation improvement.

19. Give Southeastern college at Hammond recognition in the state constitution along with other state educational institutions.

20. Abolish the state board of charities and corrections, its duties having been taken over principally by the state welfare department.

21. Give the New Orleans juvenile court jurisdiction in adoption cases.

22. Name the Mississippi river bridge at New Orleans the "Huey P. Long" bridge.

23. Permit parishes or wards upon vote by a majority of property tax payers in number and amount of assessment to issue up to $300,000 in bonds for construction of industrial plants for conversion and processing of farm or agricultural products and lease such lands to private operators.

24. Provide parishes issuing refunding bonds shall not be limited to the constitutional requirement prohibiting bond issuance exceeding ten per cent of assessed property valuation.

25. Allow the Caddo parish police jury to sell parish jail site at Shreveport and establish from the proceeds a fund out of which the police jury may borrow for paying current operating expenses in anticipation of tax collections.

26. Reduce the severance tax on sulphur from $2.00 to $1.03 per ton, the same levy as in Texas.

27. Authorize parish police juries to create garbage districts which on vote of property taxpayers may issue bonds and levy taxes for construction and maintenance of collection and disposal systems.

28. Name the Mississippi river bridge being built at Baton Rouge the "Huey P. Long-O. K. Allen bridge," in honor of the two late governors of Louisiana.

Congressmen who will be returned by the November voting are J. O. Fernandez, Paul H. Maloney, Robert H. Mouton, Overton Brooks, Dr. John K. Griffith, Rene de Rouen and Leonard A. Allen. Congressman Newt V. Mills of the Fifth district was not certified by the Democratic executive committee at Monroe yesterday and consequently faces a decision by the state supreme court on whether or not he was nominated.

Other unopposed Democratic nominees are Public Service Commissioner Wade O. Martin, Supreme Court Justice Wynne G. Rogers, Appellate Judges W. W. Westerfield, J. Hugo Dore and R. H. Taliaferro, and members of the state board of education, Mrs. E. H. Meade and George T. Madison.

Democratic nominees for the board of governors of the state bar of Louisiana and for members of many parish school boards also will be formally elected in November.

BULLETIN READY

Inquiries are being received at the Chamber of Commerce from many cities and towns in Louisiana as to the provisions and general effect of the wage and hour law that became effective last Monday. The chamber has prepared an interpretive bulletin which is obtainable for all who desire the information, stated George D. Holland, secretary.

K. OF C. DISTRICT MEET SCHEDULED

Will Be Held In Monroe With Local Group Hosts November 6

The Knights of Columbus, at their Thursday meeting, named committees and effected arrangements for holding a big district meeting in Monroe, Sunday, November 6, when a class of 50 or 60 will be initiated, coming from Arkansas, Mississippi and north Louisiana.

Specially large delegations are expected from Natchitoches, Mansfield and Shreveport. This district is under the supervision of District Deputy Thomas H. McMillan and State Deputy Jess DeArmond.

At the meeting plans for the ensuing year will be formulated.

The day's program will start with mass at St. Matthew's church at 10 a.m., after which there will be a parade through downtown Monroe streets and at noon a banquet is scheduled at which the 11th district regional meeting will be conducted. A number of prominent men in the order will deliver addresses.

Immediately following the banquet there will be initiations, the first, second and third degrees being given to the large class of candidates.

SINGERS TO HOLD FALL CONVENTION

COLUMBIA, La., Oct. 29.—(Special)—The fall session of the North Louisiana Singing convention will be held Saturday and Sunday, November 5-6, at the auditorium of the Ward Five High school, 10 miles west of Columbia, on the Columbia-Chatham highway.

The convention will be called to order at 10 a.m. on both days and will close each afternoon at 4 o'clock. Saturday night, a jubilee program will be presented, including negro spirituals, comic and gospel songs, class singing and selections by quartets.

W. H. Tolar, of Jonesboro, is president of the convention. It was organized in 1924 and has held two sessions yearly since then, in the spring and fall.

An invitation to attend the convention is extended the public.

REVIVAL MEETING WELL ATTENDED

Large audiences have been present the past week at the revival held at the First Baptist church in West Monroe under the direction of Rev. John Caylor, Shreveport pastor. The services will be continued twice today, at 10:50 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. and through the week at 9:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. He will also address the Sunday school at 10 a.m. today.

"What Shall I Do to Be Saved?" will be the theme of the talk of Dr. Caylor to the members of the Sunday school classes.

"Peace and Progress" will be his theme at the service tonight.

UNION CLUBS SCHEDULE ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM

FARMERVILLE, La., Oct. 29.—(Special)—Union parish home demonstration clubs will close a year's activities with an achievement day program Saturday, November 5, at the auditorium of the Farmerville High school. The program will begin at 10 a.m. and close about 2:30 p.m. Each club member attending will bring her own lunch.

Reports covering achievements of the past year will be received from each of the clubs. Musical selections and two playlets will be rendered and demonstrations of preparing school lunches and chair coverings will be presented.

ANNUAL MEETING OF BAPTIST W. M. U. TO BE HELD NOVEMBER 1

The annual meeting of district No. 1 of the Woman's Missionary union, auxiliary to the Louisiana Baptist State convention, will be held at the First Baptist church, Winnsboro, Tuesday, November 1. The ladies of Deer Creek association will be joint hostesses.

The district is composed of Morehouse-Ouachita, Caldwell, Ouachita, Deer Creek and Bayou Macon Baptist associations. Representatives are expected from Bastrop to Tullos and from Oak Grove to Ferriday, and from all intervening points.

Mrs. A. L. Russell of Epps, district chairman, will preside. Mrs. M. L. Jenkins of Mansfield, president of the state W. M. U., will be one of the speakers. Miss Hannah Reynolds of New Orleans, corresponding secretary of the state W. M. U., will have a prominent part on the program. The inspirational missionary address will be delivered by Miss Minnie D. McIlroy of Buenos Aires, Argentina, who will be returning soon to her post of missionary activities.

This is the last meeting of the golden jubilee year, celebrating 50 years of activity of the Southern Missionary union. Reports of what has been accomplished and plans for future activities will be featured on the day's program.

Arrangements have been made with the ladies of the Winnsboro Methodist church to serve lunch in the basement of the Methodist church. About 300 visitors are expected.

HOMECOMING AT CENTER PLANNED

Sixth Annual Affair Scheduled At Northeast Center On Friday

The sixth annual homecoming of the Northeast Center of Louisiana State university will take place on Friday. It is expected that a great number of "old grads" will return to the campus of their alma mater to join with the freshmen and sophomores in celebrating the occasion. In addition to these former students, many high school seniors from the northeast section of the state have been invited to attend the Southeastern Louisiana college-Northeast Center football game. This contest between the two tradtional rivals in junior college sports is to be one of the highlights of the homecoming program.

The general committee, headed by E. J. Brown, and composed of many faculty and student members, has drawn up a varied group of plans providing entertainment for all visitors. On Tuesday, the committees will meet and discuss more in detail the different projects. It is expected that a dance, general gathering of visitors, and large parade will be featured. During the half period of the football contest a colorful program of music and cheers will be presented.

Dr. C. C. Colvert, dean of the college, will also act as host to the principals of the high schools that were asked to attend homecoming. They have responded admirably to his invitations, even replying that they would bring the bands of their respective schools with them, in several cases, the dean said.

DISTRICT LEGION MEET SCHEDULED

Members of American Legion posts and auxiliaries in the Fifth district will conduct a conference in Monroe, at Hotel Frances, next Sunday, according to an announcement made by Arden B. Smith, of Oak Grove, district commander. The conference will begin at 10 a.m.

Reports of legion and auxiliary activities over the district will be submitted at the conference.

At this time the district organization is endeavoring to attain its annual membership quota by Armistice day, and a dicussion of the membership drive will be one of the important phases of the conference.

State Will Cast Vote On 28 Constitutional Amendments

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 29.—(AP)—Louisiana's interest in the November general elections will center in 28 proposed amendments to the state constitution.

The vote on candidates will simply ratify the Democratic slate since there is no Republican opposition. United States Senator John H. Overton and the eight Louisiana congressmen are among those thus assured new terms at Washington.

The constitutional amendments were approved for submission to the electorate by the state legislature at its regular session the past summer.

Louisiana has a complex constitution, more intricate than the organic laws of most states, and therefore it is amended often to allow new phases of legislation.

Among the proposed amendments to the constitution before the voters on November 8 will be propositions to exempt new homes or home improvements from property taxes, provide for retirement of judges, prescribe all taxes except property taxes after three years' delinquency, allow parishes to build industrial plants out of public funds and lower the sulphur tax from $2 per ton to $1.03.

The proposed amendments, in the order in which they will appear on the ballot follow:

1. Exempt new homes constructed after January 1, 1938, and home improvements made since then from property taxes for a period of three years.

2. Limit to three years the state's present power to grant 10-year tax exemptions to new manufacturing plants.

3. Provide that all taxes, other than property taxes, shall prescribe after three years.

4. Authorize issuance of $5,000,000 highway bonds, half for farm roads and half for general highway maintenance.

5. Exempt from taxation any bridge and property part of any bridge which may be constructed hereafter across the Mississippi river.

6. Extend the homestead exemption against seizure for debt from $2,000 to $4,000.

7. Authorize the New Orleans public belt railroad commission to issue $2,000,000 refunding bonds.

8. Provide one of the senators elected from the 28th senatorial district shall be a resident of either Lincoln or Union parishes and the other shall be a resident of either West Carroll or Morehouse parishes, and providing that one of the senators from the 31st district must be a resident of either East Carroll or Madison parishes and the other from either Tensas or Concordia parishes.

9. Allow city of New Orleans to levy for an additional fifty years a special ad valorem tax of two mills on the dollar upon all taxable property.

10. Extend jurisdiction of city courts to juvenile cases and increase salaries of city court judges $1,200 a year above compensation they presently receive. The addition is to be paid by the state as supplementary to what they get locally.

11. Exempt from property taxes motor boats using gasoline as fuel.

12. Provide for retirement at full pay of district attorneys reaching the age of 80 and having served continually for 30 years.

13. Extend to parishes the right to issue bonds against any revenue-producing public utility.

14. Provide judges of courts of record may retire at two-thirds pay at 65 if the judge has served 20 years continuously, at 70 if he has served 15 years continuously and at any age upon completing more than 23 years of continuous service. Also provides mandatory retirement at 80, at full pay if he has served continuously for 20 years.

15. Create a city school board for Bogalusa and vesting it with authority over city schools in place of the municipal government.

16. Authorizing the city of New Orleans, through the Public Belt Railroad commission, to issue up to $15,000,000 bonds to build and maintain one or more railroad depots.

17. Require elections levying acreage taxes in drainage districts to be determined by majority vote in number of acres owned by land owners qualified to vote (and not by majority of assessment as heretofore) and by majority in numbers of land owners qualified to vote.

18. Allow the state or any of its political subdivisions to convey to the federal government land, rights-of-way or easements for flood control or navigation improvement.

19. Give Southeastern college at Hammond recognition in the state constitution along with other state educational institutions.

20. Abolish the state board of charities and corrections, its duties having been taken over principally by the state welfare department.

21. Give the New Orleans juvenile court jurisdiction in adoption cases.

22. Name the Mississippi river bridge at New Orleans the "Huey P. Long" bridge.

23. Permit parishes or wards upon vote by a majority of property tax payers in number and amount of assessment to issue up to $300,000 in bonds for construction of industrial plants for conversion and processing of farm or agricultural products and lease such lands to private operators.

24. Provide parishes issuing refunding bonds shall not be limited to the constitutional requirement prohibiting bond issuance exceeding ten per cent of assessed property valuation.

25. Allow the Caddo parish police jury to sell parish jail site at Shreveport and establish from the proceeds a fund out of which the police jury may borrow for paying current operating expenses in anticipation of tax collections.

26. Reduce the severance tax on sulphur from $2.00 to $1.03 per ton, the same levy as in Texas.

27. Authorize parish police juries to create garbage districts which on vote of property taxpayers may issue bonds and levy taxes for construction and maintenance of collection and disposal systems.

28. Name the Mississippi river bridge being built at Baton Rouge the "Huey P. Long-O. K. Allen bridge," in honor of the two late governors of Louisiana.

Congressmen who will be returned by the November voting are J. O. Fernandez, Paul H. Maloney, Robert H. Mouton, Overton Brooks, Dr. John K. Griffith, Rene de Rouen and Leonard A. Allen. Congressman Newt V. Mills of the Fifth district was not certified by the Democratic executive committee at Monroe yesterday and consequently faces a decision by the state supreme court on whether or not he was nominated.

Other unopposed Democratic nominees are Public Service Commissioner Wade O. Martin, Supreme Court Justice Wynne G. Rogers, Appellate Judges W. W. Westerfield, J. Hugo Dore and R. H. Taliaferro, and members of the state board of education, Mrs. E. H. Meade and George T. Madison.

Democratic nominees for the board of governors of the state bar of Louisiana and for members of many parish school boards also will be formally elected in November.

Impressive Ceremony Marks Wedding Of Miss Randle And Hirschie Johnson

Marriage Solemnized At Home Of The Bride

Young Couple Leave On Honeymoon Trip To Unannounced Place; To Live In Texas

White cathedral tapers in tall white seven-branched candelabra were lighted in the home of Mrs. Robert O. Randle of West Monroe, Wednesday night at 6:30, for the wedding of her daughter, Miss Helen Randle, who became the bride of Mr. Hirschie Johnson, son of Mrs. Hulda H. Johnson of San Antonio, Tex., in a ceremony characterized by charm and simplicity.

Superb white chrysanthemums and southern smilax formed the decorative background for the ceremony, performed by Rev. W. C. Scott, pastor of the Monroe First Methodist church, at one end of the reception suite before an improvised altar. The wedding party stood on a white bnvared dais facing a floor length mirror hedged in with flaming tapers in floor candelabra alt .nating with Marie Antoinette baskets overflowing with white chrysanthemums.

A pre-nuptial concert was rendered by Mrs. H. B. Barnes, pianist. Miss Louise Barnes, of San Antonio, sang impressively, "At Dawning," and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," accompanied by Mrs. Barnes. Mrs. Raymond Spence played Schubert's Serenade when the tapers were lighted by Mr. R. M. Johnson, brother of the bridegroom. Lohengrin's wedding march was rendered as the bride and her attend-nt descended the ivy-entwined stairs.

The bride's attendant, her sister, Miss Sarah Elizabeth Randle, wore a Schiaparelli model of trumpet gold moire taffeta with square neckline, tight-fitting bodice and hooped skirt. A trumpet gold moire bonnet with bronze-colored ostrich tips was worn. Her bouquet was fashioned of golden hued chrysanthemums tied with long lengths of gold ribbon.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Henry B. Barnes of San Antonio, Tex., wore a distinctive Emily model of ivory moire taffeta with high pointed neckline, and long, tight-fitting sleeves. It was fashioned along Princess lines and buttoned down the back with self-covered buttons. The skirt, full at the bottom ended in a sweeping train. A finger tip veil of bridal illusion was caught to the hair with a chaplet of valley lilies and orange blossoms. She carried a superb bouquet of valley lilies and orchids. For something old she wore the pearls her father presented to her mother on their wedding day. The handkerchief she carried was of rose point and has been in the family for generations. Of lovely sentiment, also, was the wedding date which fell on the wedding anniversary of the bride's mother.

Mr. Johnson was attended by Mr. Gabriel French of San Antonio, Tex.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Mrs. Randle greeted her guests in a Burgandy lace and chiffon model with orchid corsage. Mrs. Johnson, the bridegroom's mother wore a plum-colored crepe model with corsage of Pernet roses. Out-of-town guests, introduced at this time, were Mrs. Carl Barnes in black chiffon with a corsage of Token roses, Mrs. H. B. Barnes in jade green velvet with corsage of Columbia roses, Mrs. C. B. Davis in black crepe evening model with corsage of gardenias, Mrs. Ott Voight in a block and Burgandy chiffon model with corsage of roses.

Mrs. Randle was assisted in serving ices and individual wedding cakes by Mrs. Gordon Morgan, Mrs. Henson Coon, Mrs. Robert Hendricks, Mrs. Robert Hinton, Mrs. George Guier, Mrs. Malcolm LeFevre, Mrs. R. L. McHenry, Mrs. Garnett Anderson, Mrs. Fred Mitchell, Mrs. W. L. Mitchell, Miss Helen Grant, Miss Sue Kilgore, Miss Lallage Feazel and Miss Sara Hammons.

The bride cut the wedding cake, a luscious confection, embossed with a spray of valley lilies across the surface. It formed the central decor of the bride's table overlaid with lace and encircled with white chrysanthemums. White tapers gleamed at the corners in handsome crystal candel- Wedding ring mints in crystal compotes were placed along the board.

The handsome wedding gifts were displayed in the music room. In the collection were noted flat silver in the Chantilley pattern, rose point crystal, linens, a set of Wedgwood china and numerous articles of a miscellaneous nature.

The bride changed her wedding gown for a handsome tailleur and left with Mr. Johnson for a honeymoon, destination unannounced. Later they will be at home at 2056 Sabina street, Austin, Tex., where Mr. Johnson is in the legal department of the railroad commission. He attended Thomas Jefferson college of San Antonio and was graduated in law from the University of Texas.

The bride, a young woman of culture and charm, is the daughter of the late Mr. Robert O. Randle, prominent attorney of this city, and Mrs. Verna Barnes Randle. She attended Randolph Macon college, Lynchburg, Va., and the University of Texas where she rece- d her degree.

Delegates Named To Federated Convention

Monroe federated clubs are naming delegates to the annual convention of Louisiana Federation of Women's Clubs which will be held in Baton Rouge Thursday and Friday, November 3 and 4.

Word has been received from the state president, Mrs. C. E. Hester of Tallulah, that the national president, Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar of Washington, will be present and will address the convention on "Adjusting Democracy for Human Welfare." This announcement is of more than usual interest since Mrs. Dunbar will be making her first official visit to Louisiana at this time. She was elected to the office of national president at the triennial convention of general federation in Kansas City last May and is noted for the charm of her personality as well as for her gifts as speaker and organizer.

The program of Mrs. Dunbar's administration, which will include the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has been characterized as a program of human welfare. No woman in the United States today is more qualified than Mrs. Dunbar to advance this program, since, for almost a quarter of a century, she has been identified with humanitarian service. In recognition of her work as executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis association and chairman of the public welfare department of General Federation for a period of years, Mrs. Dunbar has had conferred upon her the honorary degree of doctor of humane letters by Linfield college in Oregon. She was the first woman so honored by this institution.

Mrs. Dunbar's address will be given on the evening of November 3 in the new law building of Louisiana State university, President James Monroe Smith will extend greetings. Preceding the speeches will be the annual Louisiana Products dinner, special occasion of every state convention, which will be held in the Hotel Heidelberg.

First event on the opening day's program will be the board of directors meeting at 8 a. m., November 3. A meeting of the finance committee will be held at 12:30 p. m., and in the afternoon the first regular session will feature a lecture by Dr. A. Lawton Brown of the Investors Syndicate of Chicago, who will speak on "The Blind Spot of Science." This is an illustrated lecture demonstrating how financial depressions may be prevented.

The program for Friday, November 4, will include a club institute beginning at 8 a. m.; the Fine Arts luncheon, at which time prizes will be awarded in contests sponsored by the Fine Arts division, and a memorial service to be held at 1:30 p m. It is expected that a large delegation will attend the convention from Monroe.

Mrs. Jarratt Is Honored Guest

Mrs. R. Frank Jarratt was the guest of honor at a tea and miscellaneous shower Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Shirley Bradley, with Mrs. Julian Shipp, Jr., Misses Roxie Killian and Ruth Fletcher as cohostesses.

The honor guest, who will be remembered as Miss Odessa Sanders, wore a beautiful model of teal blue.

The beautifully appointed lace-draped table had for central decoration an artistic arrangement of gold zenias and daisies, surrounded by gold tapers in silver holders. Similar flowers were placed at vantage points throughout the reception suite.

Misses Beth Ellen Funderburk and Miriam Robinson, wearing attractive evening models of taffeta, poured tea from a handsome silver urn. Delectable open-faced sandwiches and dainty confections were served to the large number of guests that called.

Many lovely gifts of silver, crystal, china, linens and various other articles were on display.

Miss Wall To Wed James Alexander

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Wall announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Laura Belle, to Mr. James Josephson Alexander, son of Rev. and Mrs. Ivan O. Alexander of Opelousas.

Miss Wall attended Louisiana Tech at Ruston and received her bachelor's degree from Southwestern at Lafayette, and worked on her master's degree at Texas Christian university at Fort Worth.

Mr. Alexander also received his bachelor's degree from Southwestern and received his master's degree from Louisiana State university, where he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. Mr. Alexander is affiliated with the Standard Oil company and is located in El Dorado, Ark. The marriage will take place Thursday, November 17, at the First Presbyterian church in Monroe.

GOLDEN October merges into somber November. Autumn's tapestry needs only the touch of somberness to complete the work. With every great work of art there might be a touch of somberness. Always there must be shadows to accent the light.

Nature may demand a touch of somberness to complete her work of art but nary a dark thought crosses the minds of society folk these days. Life is joyous and free and exceedingly gay—a regular Pandora box full of surprises and pleasures. There are so many books to read, so many songs to sing, so many doors to knock open, so many bells to ring. Speaking of things to see, we suggest that everyone who is worrying about money, see the picture, "You Can't Take It With You." That precious prayer of thanksgiving offered at the family gathering during the evening meal in "granpa's" home, is something for us all to appreciate. The picture is a grand tonic for the peeves.

Lovely hands are moving amidst fragile china and gleaming silver on tea tables these days. There is nothing quite as elegant as an afternoon tea with beautifully dressed guests moving about from one conversational group to another in homes fragrant with the perfume of flowers and mellow with candlelight. At the Dean Selig home last week one saw one friend after another in towering hats and veils, atop high-coifed heads circling around from one group to another. Anna Gray Noe was wearing a tall jade green velvet hat perched high on her head. Luxurious furs draped over her shoulders hung to the hem of her skirt. Everyone was inquiring about Linda, the new daughter who has now reached the interesting age of three and a half months. Vera Brown was another guest who looked lovely in new furs worn with a small close fitting hat and a tailleur. Caro Webb and her mother (inseparable companions), were balancing tea cups while talking to friends. Mrs. Webb had just celebrated her 75th birthday anniversary and was being congratulated by friends who admired her small black hat atop her beautiful white hair. Diminutive Caro was wearing one of those new brimless hats that added inches to her height. We were reminded, as we watched vivacious Charlotte Hamilton in becoming brown tailleur, that she is much too young looking to have a year old daughter.

There was a veritable crush at the Randle home in West Monroe last Wednesday night, where Helen walked down the stairs in white moire wedding gown to meet her new husband, Hirschie Johnson, of San Antonio. Helen made a perfect bride—tall and slender and perfectly natural. Her sister, Sara Elizabeth, who served as bridesmaid, was wearing a hoop skirt. To hoop or not to hoop—that is the formal question this season. Young things like Sara Elizabeth don't have to worry about the devastating new hip-skirted models, but what of those who are more than size 16? Unless you stand erect with chest high, head up, shoulders squared and have an hourglass waist you will look simply dreadful in a hoop skirt.

It was simply grand to see so many old friends during the reception that followed. One suddenly realized that friends drift apart these days of chance and change. There was Satchie Snelling, for ance, with her expressive brown eyes and lovely voice who is seen all too seldom. She is identified with life in Monroe when it was lived on a grander more spacious scale than it is today.

Dick Downes seemed absolutely lost without Talitha, but managed to shake almost everyone's hand before he left. Talitha is suffering from a broken arm and of course was unable to attend the wedding.

Professor T. O. Brown was beaming on the bride. No doubt he was remembering her in pigtails and pinafores. She is a credit to old alma mater, so Professor Brown had every reason to beam proudly.

Where has the proverbial grandmother gone? some one asks. We remember ours with her big white apron that contained surprises for the children. She carried a worn leather purse with several clasps from which she could always produce a coin of the desired denomination. She had remedies for everything, and always a jar of goose grease for rubbing sore chests. She had a proverb for every occasion—proverbs that still come to her grandchildren's memory. She was a source of comfort, of canny wisdom, of wide-eyed interest to her grandchildren.

Grandmothers of today are like the grandmothers of yesterday in name only. And who would have them any different? They are companionable, they are progressive, they are mentally alert, abreast of the times and smartly dressed. Mrs. T. F. Causey is the perfect example of today's grandmother. She maintains her own home, where she entertains guests and is always prepared to offer a cup of tea. She thinks nothing of hopping on a train for some distant point and attends the weddings of her nieces and nephews and cousins. She writes an occasional bit of verse in her free moments and grows superb flowers in her garden. She isn't a short-skirted, permanent-waved grandmother but she is typical of the age in which we live.

Breakfast Party Given For Bride-Elect

Claiming prominence among the charming affa honoring Miss Helen Randle during her engagement days was the breakfast party in the Cameo room of the Virginia hotel with Miss Lallage Feazel and Mrs. Raymond Spence as hostesses.

The harvest season was reflected in the mound of purple grapes, Japanese persimmons, red-cheeked apples, encircled with tall yellow tapers festooned with grain.

The menu was developed exclusively in yellow, suggestive of the harvest season.

The guests in addition to Miss Randle were Mrs. Robert Randle, Mrs. Robert Hinton, Mrs. Henson Coon, Mrs. Malcolm LaFevre, Miss Helen Grant, Miss Sue Kilgore, Mrs. George Guier, Miss Sara Hammons.

Miss Sara Hammons' bridge honoring Miss Randle was charmingly informal with a few intimate friends present to enjoy courtesies.

Mexican sunflowers in pottery urns formed a colorful background for the placement of the card tables.

Miss Randle received from her hostess a set of crystal goblets.

A confectionery co se was served at the linen covered, silver appointed tables. The ices were heart shaped and the individual cakes embossed in valley lilies.

Hobbs Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The women's auxiliary to the Rodney J. Hobbs post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, met in regular session Thursday night with 20 in attendance. President Blackwell presided.

Satisfactory reports were made by the chairmen of various standing committees for the month of October. A shower of clothing is being prepared for a family of seven children living in Ward 10. The auxiliary has been instrumental in providing cothing for 17 children in the past month. Other necessities have also been provided. The secretary had mailed notices of the election of the 18-month trustee and Mrs. Lena M. Morrow was unanimously elected to the office.

The report regarding receipts from benefit parties was gratifying. The donation to the department hospital fund will be the largest ever made by the auxiliary for one month. The "hobo" party at the home of Mrs. Christine G. Brown was an enjoyable affair and well attended. Games were directed by Mrs. Virginia Butler and added much to the pleasure of the guests. The party next Tuesday night will be at the home of Mrs. T. H. Elliott, Grayling lane. Members are urged to attend.

Planting Of Rigida Pines Is Requested

Members of the Monroe Garden club would like to contribute, even in a small way, to the relief of hay fever, by making suggestions in regard to the planting of Rigida pine seeds. One of nature's greatest panaceas for these ailments is the presence, in close proximity to the sufferer, of a growing Rigida pine tree. The medicinal properties of this remarkable tree have long been known to science. The ozone exuded by these beautiful trees has a marked effect and exceptional curative powers to those afflicted with disorders of the nose, throat or lungs. The Rigida pine may be grown from seed in nearly any latitude.

The Pan-American Society of Tropical Research, P. O. Box 1698, New Orleans, La., offers to the entire civilized world, free seeds of the Rigida pine tree. Applicants for the free seeds are asked to send a stamped, self-addressed envelope. There is no further obligation.

It is a set policy of this society to distribute, without charge, seeds of plants or trees that have a definite value to mankind whenever a sufficient supply is available to make a world-wide distribution. Members of the Monroe Garden club are assisting the society by giving publicity to this offer to humanity.

Open House Held At NYA Project

One of the most interesting as well as enjoyable affairs of the past week was the open house at the NYA resident project at Rayville. This afforded an opportunity for the people of Rayville to show their interest in the splendid work being done by the girls and their supervisors, Mrs. Audrey Dawson and Miss Georgine Murphy.

Over two hundred and fifty guests called during the evening. They were deeply interested in seeing the result of the work. Greetings were extended by the supervisor of NYA, Mrs. A. J. Willis, the two resident supervisors, Mrs. Dawson and Miss Murphy, and the members of the local advisory board, Mrs. E. K. Spiers, Miss Pearl Lefevre, and Mrs. Everett McCoy. The fourth member of the board, Mrs. C. J. Ellis, graciously presided over the punch bowl in the dining hall, where the guests were served delicious punch and sandwiches.

The president of the group, Miss Beatrice Wells, was in charge of the registration of guests. The gift flowers that banked the rooms attested to the interest manifested in this project by friends and business houses. Rayville is justly proud of this group and of the fine work being done by them and their supervisors.

MISS VICTORIAN

Behold the charming lassie
Of eighteen ninety-four.
She's wearing seven petticoats—
Or, maybe, even more.

Of course, it's not all she you see,
It's partly things she wears—
A bustle and a long silk train,
A rat within her hairs.

Her taste in clothes is equal
To her taste in furniture—
Not many springs, no comfort,
But lots of garniture.

She's haughty when she meets young men;
Today, they'd call her "sissy."
Her home with all its doo-dad things
Is very prim and prissy.

II

SWING GAL

Now see her living counterpart
Of nineteen thirty-eight.
She's slim, athletic, natural—
Each eye she has a date.

She isn't going to worry
If her knees should slightly peep
Beneath her single pleated skirt—
That wouldn't make her weep.

Slang slinging, swinging jitterbug,
She never strikes a pose.
Her furniture's as modern
As her two-thread chiffon hose.

Her chair is made for comfort
In simple, graceful lines.
Are you a lass of ninety-four
Or one of modern times?

Marriage Solemnized At Home Of The Bride

Young Couple Leave On Honeymoon Trip To Unannounced Place; To Live In Texas

White cathedral tapers in tall white seven-branched candelabra were lighted in the home of Mrs. Robert O. Randle of West Monroe, Wednesday night at 6:30, for the wedding of her daughter, Miss Helen Randle, who became the bride of Mr. Hirschie Johnson, son of Mrs. Hulda H. Johnson of San Antonio, Tex., in a ceremony characterized by charm and simplicity.

Superb white chrysanthemums and southern smilax formed the decorative background for the ceremony, performed by Rev. W. C. Scott, pastor of the Monroe First Methodist church, at one end of the reception suite before an improvised altar. The wedding party stood on a white covered dais facing a floor length mirror hedged in with flaming tapers in floor candelabra alternating with Marie Antoinette baskets overflowing with white chrysanthemums.

A pre-nuptial concert was rendered by Mrs. H. B. Barnes, pianist. Miss Louise Barnes, of San Antonio, sang impressively, "At Dawning," and "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," accompanied by Mrs. Barnes. Mrs. Raymond Spence played Schubert's Serenade when the tapers were lighted by Mr. R. M. Johnson, brother of the bridegroom. Lohengrin's wedding march was rendered as the bride and her attendant descended the ivy-entwined stairs.

The bride's attendant, her sister, Miss Sarah Elizabeth Randle, wore a Schiaparelli model of trumpet gold moire taffeta with square neckline, tight-fitting bodice and hooped skirt. A trumpet gold moire bonnet with bronze-colored ostrich tips was worn. Her bouquet was fashioned of golden hued chrysanthemums tied with long lengths of gold ribbon.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Henry B. Barnes of San Antonio, Tex., wore a distinctive Emily model of ivory moire taffeta with high pointed neckline, and long tight-fitting sleeves. It was fashioned along Princess lines and buttoned down the back with self-covered buttons. The skirt, full at the bottom ended in a sweeping train. A finger tip veil of bridal illusion was caught to the hair with a chaplet of valley lilies and orange blossoms. She carried a superb bouquet of valley lilies and orchids. For something old she wore the pearls her father presented to her mother on their wedding day. The handkerchief she carried was of rose point and has been in the family for generations. Of lovely sentiment, also, was the wedding date which fell on the wedding anniversary of the bride's mother.

Mr. Johnson was attended by Mr. Gabriel French of San Antonio, Tex.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Mrs. Randle greeted her guests in a Burgandy lace and chiffon model with orchid corsage. Mrs. Johnson, the bridegroom's mother wore a plum-colored crepe model with corsage of Pernet roses. Mrs. Randle was assisted in serving ices and individual wedding cakes by Mrs. Gordon Morgan, Mrs. Henson Coon, Mrs. Robert Hendricks, Mrs. Robert Hinton, Mrs. George Guier, Mrs. Malcolm LeFevre, Mrs. R. L. McHenry, Mrs. Garnett Anderson, Mrs. Fred Mitchell, Mrs. W. L. Mitchell, Miss Helen Grant, Miss Sue Kilgore, Miss Lallage Feazel and Miss Sara Hammons.

The bride cut the wedding cake, a luscious confection, embossed with a spray of valley lilies across the surface. She was a source of comfort, of canny wisdom, of wide-eyed interest to her grandchildren.

Grandmothers of today are like the grandmothers of yesterday in name only. And who would have them any different? They are companionable, they are progressive, they are mentally alert, abreast of the times and smartly dressed. Mrs. T. F. Causey is the perfect example of today's grandmother. She maintains her own home, where she entertains guests and is always prepared to offer a cup of tea. She thinks nothing of hopping on a train for some distant point and attends the weddings of her nieces and nephews and cousins. She writes an occasional bit of verse in her free moments and grows superb flowers in her garden. She isn't a short-skirted, permanent-waved grandmother but she is typical of the age in which we live.

Breakfast Party Given For Bride-Elect

Claiming prominence among the charming affairs honoring Miss Helen Randle during her engagement days was the breakfast party in the Cameo room of the Virginia hotel with Miss Lallage Feazel and Mrs. Raymond Spence as hostesses.

The harvest season was reflected in the mound of purple grapes, Japanese persimmons, red-cheeked apples, encircled with tall yellow tapers festooned with grain.

The menu was developed exclusively in yellow, suggestive of the harvest season.

The guests in addition to Miss Randle were Mrs. Robert Randle, Mrs. Robert Hinton, Mrs. Henson Coon, Mrs. Malcolm LaFevre, Miss Helen Grant, Miss Sue Kilgore, Mrs. George Guier, Miss Sara Hammons.

Miss Sara Hammons' bridge honoring Miss Randle was charmingly informal with a few intimate friends present to enjoy the courtesies.

Mexican sunflowers in pottery urns formed a colorful background for the placement of the card tables.

Miss Randle received from her hostess a set of crystal goblets.

A confectionery course was served at the linen covered, silver appointed tables. The ices were heart shaped and the individual cakes embossed in valley lilies.

Hobbs Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The women's auxiliary to the Rodney J. Hobbs post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, met in regular session Thursday night with 20 in attendance. President Blackwell presided.

Satisfactory reports were made by the chairmen of various standing committees for the month of October. A shower of clothing is being prepared for a family of seven children living in Ward 10. The auxiliary has been instrumental in providing cothing for 17 children in the past month. Other necessities have also been provided. The secretary had mailed notices of the election of the 18-month trustee and Mrs. Lena M. Morrow was unanimously elected to the office.

The report regarding receipts from benefit parties was gratifying. The donation to the department hospital fund will be the largest ever made by the auxiliary for one month. The "hobo" party at the home of Mrs. Christine G. Brown was an enjoyable affair and well attended. Games were directed by Mrs. Virginia Butler and added much to the pleasure of the guests. The party next Tuesday night will be at the home of Mrs. T. H. Elliott, Grayling lane. Members are urged to attend.

Planting Of Rigida Pines Is Requested

Members of the Monroe Garden club would like to contribute, even in a small way, to the relief of hay fever, by making suggestions in regard to the planting of Rigida pine seeds. One of nature's greatest panaceas for these ailments is the presence, in close proximity to the sufferer, of a growing Rigida pine tree. The medilnal properties of this remarkable tree have long been known to science. The ozone exuded by these beautiful trees has a marked effect and exceptional curative powers to those afflicted with disorders of the nose, throat or lungs. The Rigida pine may be grown from seed in nearly any latitude.

The Pan-American Society of Tropical Research, P. O. Box 1698, New Orleans, La., offers to the entire civilized world, free seeds of the Rigida pine tree. Applicants for the free seeds are asked to send a stamped, self-addressed envelope. There is no further obligation.

It is a set policy of this society to distribute, without charge, seeds of plants or trees that have a definite value to mankind whenever a sufficient supply is available to make a world-wide distribution. Members of the Monroe Garden club are assisting the society by giving publicity to this offer to humanity.

Open House Held At NYA Project

One of the most interesting as well as enjoyable affairs of the past week was the open house at the NYA resident project at Rayville. This afforded an opportunity for the people of Rayville to show their interest in the splendid work being done by the girls and their supervisors, Mrs. Audrey Dawson and Miss Georgine Murphy.

Over two hundred and fifty guests called during the evening. They were deeply interested in seeing the result of the work. Greetings were extended by the supervisor of NYA, Mrs. A. J. Willis, the two resident supervisors, Mrs. Dawson and Miss Murphy, and the members of the local advisory board, Mrs. E. K. Spiers, Miss Pearl Lefevre, and Mrs. Everett McCoy. The fourth member of the board, Mrs. C. J. Ellis, graciously presided over the punch bowl in the dining hall, where the guests were served delicious punch and sandwiches.

The president of the group, Miss Beatrice Wells, was in charge of the registration of guests. The gift flowers that banked the rooms attested to the interest manifested in this project by friends and business houses. Rayville is justly proud of this group and of the fine work being done by them and their supervisors.

'BLACK BEAUTY'

Here's an ideal dress for important informal events of the social season. Of black crepe with an intricately draped bodice and short sleeves laden with dazzling beads and paillette embroidery in cupid's pink, it is right for dinner, small parties, cocktails or tea. Charles Armour, American designer, created it.

PORTRAITS IN RHYME

By the Monroe Furniture Company's Home Furnisher

I

MISS VICTORIAN

Behold the charming lassie
Of eighteen ninety-four.
She's wearing seven petticoats—
Or, maybe, even more.

Of course, it's not all she you see,
It's partly things she wears—
A bustle and a long silk train,
A rat within her hairs.

Her taste in clothes is equal
To her taste in furniture—
Not many springs, no comfort,
But lots of garniture.

She's haughty when she meets young men;
Today, they'd call her "sissy."
Her home with all its doo-dad things
Is very prim and prissy.

II

SWING GAL

Now see her living counterpart
Of nineteen thirty-eight.
She's slim, athletic, natural—
Each eve she has a date.

She isn't going to worry
If her knees should slightly peep
Beneath her single pleated skirt—
That wouldn't make her weep.

Slang slinging, swinging jitterbug,
She never strikes a pose.
Her furniture's as modern
As her two-thread chiffon hose.

Her chair is made for comfort
In simple, graceful lines.
Are you a lass of ninety-four
Or one of modern times?

Other portraits in rhyme will appear on this page next Sunday.

Miss Sadye Lou Peters Is Guest Of Honor At Reception-Tea In Selig Home

Affair Is Among Many Given For Bride-Elect

Wedding Of Popular Monroe Girl Will Be Prominent Event Of Week; Mrs. Pracher Entertains

Beautiful flowers, mellow candlelight, delectable confections and throngs of beautifully gowned guests were the outstanding features of Mrs. Dean Selig's reception-tea Thursday afternoon honoring Miss Sadye Lou Peters, whose marriage to Mr. Credille Calhoun will be a fashionable event of this week.

Mrs. Selig was wearing a peacock blue lace evening gown with corsage of Token roses. Miss Peters wore a diaphanous model of white chiffon with rhinestone clips and a corsage of white valley lilies. Mrs. A. L. Peters, mother of the honor guest, wore a charming pink chiffon model with short cape of pleated chiffon. Miss Ella Rose Crawford, also a member of the receiving party, wore a peach colored chiffon model with low decolletage and long, full skirt.

Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Harry Moore in fuchsia colored velvet model, Miss Marjorie Gremillion in white satin evening model, Miss Shirley Ross in beige taffeta, Mrs. Irving Wolff in black lace, floor length evening model, Mrs. W. D. Ross in black velvet evening model. They passed among the guests with silver trays laden with pastry puffs, assorted gateaux, cream puffs and flower petal mints.

The oval tea table, overlaid with Italian linen cut work and lace, had for central floral adornment a wide spreading plaque of pink roses and orchid colored chrysanthemums flanked by pink tapers in silver candlesticks.

Mrs. C. Credille and Mrs. A. B. Calhoun of Bastrop, presided over the silver urns placed at either end of the table. Mrs. Calhoun was wearing a white crepe and lace model and Mrs. Credille was wearing black velvet and lace model. Both wore exquisite corsages, presented to them by their hostess.

Seventy-five or more guests called during the appointed hours.

Claiming prominence on last week's calendar of events honoring Miss Peters was Mrs. John Pracher's luncheon at her home in Fairview.

A beautifully embossed, circular wedding cake formed the central decor of the luncheon table, serviced with handsome hand-painted china.

Mrs. Pracher took this opportunity to present Miss Peters with a lovely linen luncheon set.

Courtesies were extended on this occasion to Miss Peters, Mrs. A. L. Peters, Mrs. Irving Wolff, Mrs. Ray Rhymes, Mrs. A. S. Tidwell, Mrs. Louis Peters, Mrs. Fred Seaman, Mrs. Buck Staples, Mrs. C. Tidwell, Mrs. C. S. Swain, Miss Ella Rose Crawford, Miss Mary Mulhern, Miss Gerry Trichel.

A luncheon table covered with handsome white satin damask and with a central decor of superb white roses and white chrysanthemums in beautiful arrangement, was presided over by three gracious hostesses, Mrs. A. S. Tidwell, Mrs. A. R. Tidwell and Mrs. Newton Perdue, in the private dining room of the Frances hotel with Miss Sadye Lou Peters the guest of honor, on Thursday at 1 o'clock.

A corsage of bride's roses tied with silver ribbons marked the cover reserved for Miss Peters, who wore a smart black velvet tailleur with small close-fitting hat of black. She pinned the corsage at her throat with charming effect. A miniature doll dressed in full bridal regalia was the favor presented to Miss Peters by her hostesses. Each guest was favored with a corsage of white chrsyanthemums tied with silver ribbons.

Four delicious courses were served with the dessert course, individual portions of baked alaska, unusually delectable.

Fourteen guests, including the guest of honor and her mother, Mrs. A. L. Peters, and the three hostesses, were present.

Sara Anita Cook Feted At Supper

Miss Sara Anita Cook, wearing a flattering satin evening gown in a delectable shade of ashes of roses, with flowers in her blonde hair worn high on the head, was the center of attraction at the buffet supper Thursday night in the Cameo room of the Virginia hotel with Miss Clara Virginia Terzia as hostess.

Miss Cook and her fiance, Mr. Joseph Hebert, Jr., enjoyed a conversational hour with a group of intimate friends, before the serving of supper. Cocktails and a bewildering array of hors d'oeuvres, were passed at this time.

Miss Terzia, a charming figure in pink net evening model fashioned with a long, full skirt and tight basque, selected a pink color theme for the supper table covered with handsome pink satin damask and centered with a Dresden epergne overflowing with pink chrysanthemums.

Many novel dishes, including a silver tray laden with vegetables fashioned into flowers, were served from the spacious buffet.

Small tables grouped near the fireplace were adorned with silver trays containing individual wedding cakes, supporting miniature pink tapers. Pink satin ribbons attached to lucky symbols led to each cover.

Twenty guests from Rayville in addition to the guests of honor the hostess and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Felix Terzia and Mr. and Mrs. James Trousdale of this city were present.

Books For Cooley Sanatorium Sought

"National Book Week" November 13-19, will be observed by The Welcome Branch Book club by collecting appropriate books for the G. B. Cooley sanatorium. They will sponsor a "book tea," to be given at the Y. W. C. A. Friday, November 18, between the hours of 3-5 p. m. One of the main projects each year of this club is to supply the sanatorium with additional books. This year the public will be given the privilege of sharing in this project by making contributions.

Mrs. Dudley Stone, chairman of the library board calls the attention of book donors to the type of books suitable for hospitals. Books for invalids must be special type. The bindings should be clean and attractive, pages should not be missing and the print should not be fine. Books should not be too heavy to hold. Patients refuse to read "just anything." That they have an unquenchable desire to read everything and anything to while away the time is a mistaken idea. Where public libraries aim to educate, hospital libraries aim to help persons get well. Patients will not read "best sellers," that create disturbing thoughts and turn attention to one self.

What, then, do patients like to read? The lighter the theme, the better. Adventure, western and pioneer stories with plenty of action are the most popular. Love and light mystery books are also appreciated. Something by Bess Streeter Aldrich comes near to being the perfect gift.

Others are "Come and Get It," "Show Boat," "Cimarron," "As the Earth Turns," Joseph C. Lincoln's stories of Cape Cod, "Old Jules," "Miss Bishop," "Little Man, What Now?" "Westward Passage," "Jalna," "Forgive Us Our Trespasses," "Perennial Bachelor," "Gentle Julia," "Barberry Bush," "Angel in the House," "Lantern In Her Hand," "Life With Mother," "Life With Father," "Alice Adams," and "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

Books by Kathleen Norris, Zane Grey, James Oliver Curwood, John Fox, Jr., Nordhoff, Hall Mary Roberts Rinehart and E. Phillips Oppenheim are especially popular with invalids.

The library building will be ready for use in the near future. Patients will come and go but the same types of books will remain popular and the book donors may count themselves as really serving humanity.

Luncheon Given At McGuire Club

Interest in ladies day at the McGuire Golf club increases as the season advances. On Thursday the lounge, banked with beautiful orchid-colored dahlias, was thronging with guests who enjoyed the conversational hour before luncheon was served at tables adorned with bowls of pink Radiance roses.

The charming hostesses, Mrs. Vance Rhodes, Mrs. Scott Spencer and Mrs. Samuel Humphries, were responsible for the atmosphere of congeniality and for the serving of the delicious luncheon.

Noted among the guests were:

Mrs. H. A. McDonald, Mrs. Harry Williams, Mrs. J. C. Steele, Jr., Mrs. W. S. Kendall, Mrs. J. M. Hilton, Mrs. M. C. McDonald Mrs. John Gordon, Mrs. Fred Millsaps, Mrs. A. L. Harrington, Mrs. A. ## Mrs. Blanchard Talks At P.-T. A. Gathering

State President Delivers Inspiring Address At Lake Providence District Meeting

Mrs. Paul Blanchard, Baton Rouge, president of the Louisiana P.-T. A., addressed members of the Fifth District Parent-Teacher association, held in Lake Providence Wednesday, October 26, at the Lake Providence High school.

"The national congress of parents and teachers," stated Mrs. Blanchard, "is an organization over 40 years old and has a membership of two million.

"Problems of safety, maintenance of schools, parent education, child psychology, social hygiene and other problems of modern life are worked out by parent-teacher associations, which have at their disposal material and information on these subjects, prepared by experts in the national organization's office."

Mrs. Blanchard's talk dealt chiefly with the work and mechanism of the local units.

The theme of the meeting was "Partners in Progress" and Mrs. C. L. Couch, Fifth district director, presided. The program was opened with registration and a coffee hour, followed by assembly singing led by Mrs. R. E. McClendon, accompanied by Mrs. H. Schwartz. A vocal selection was given by Miss Mary Burton Mooney.

The invocation was given by Rev. George Nelson, pastor of the Lake Providence Baptist church.

Dr. T. G. Biggs, mayor of Lake Providence, made the address of welcome and Mrs. Jack Castle, welfare chairman of the Ouachita Parish High school, Monroe, gave the response.

After the introduction of the state officers by Mrs. Couch, reports were made by the presidents of the local units.

Other speakers on the program were Mrs. G. A. Aden, president of the Neville High school P.-T. A. Monroe, who spoke on "Publications"; Mrs. G. B. Wilson, state safety chairman; Miss Johnnie Bowles, Baton Rouge, of the state department of education.

An interesting feature of the afternoon session was the presentation of a clever playlet, "Membership," written by Mrs. T. W. LeFevre of the Epps P.-T. A. The characters were portrayed by Mrs. LeFevre and Mrs. T. Y. Wall.

A luncheon for the visiting delegates was held in the Community house in Lake Providence with an invocation by Father Plutz.

St. Patrick's Parochial school and the Lake Providence High school Parent-Teacher associations were cohostesses during the meeting.

Committees officiating were: Registration, Mrs. C. R. Evans, Mrs. J. H. Guenard; coffee, Mrs. J. P. Davis, Mrs. C. R. Brown, Mrs. Joe Hamley, Miss Elizabeth Howard and girls of the high school; arrangements, Mrs. John Nelson, Mrs. C. Hart, Mrs. F. Reginald; luncheon, Mrs. W. F. Trieschman, Mrs. W. F. Booker; table decorations, Mrs. E. L. Voelker; music, Mrs. Ethel Atkinson; pages, Mrs. William Moore, Miss Tonie Voelker, Miss Annie Catherine Moore, Miss Isabel Voelker, Miss Naomi Hamley, Miss Thelma Callender, Miss Marmay Booker, Miss Grace Nelson; programs, Mrs. C. A. Rose, scouts.

Mrs. S. A. Seegers was general chairman.

Georgia Tucker

An executive meeting of the Georgia Tucker P.-T. A. was held in the principal's office of the school Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Elmer Richards, president, presided and plans of the standing committees for the year's work were submitted.

Mr Joe Durrett, chairman of the program committee, presented the following program for 1938-1939:

October, "Health"; November, "School and the New Trend of Education," Miss Marjorie Oliver; "The Georgia Tucker Library," Mrs. S. Solomon; December, "Public Safety Demonstration"; February, "Our Children" and Founder's day program; March, "Democracy," "Children's Character," "The American Child", April, "Parent Education and Home Making," "Teaching Thrift At Home" and a "Forum of Neighborhood Activities"; May, "Recreation and Hobbies of Children."

Mrs. C. B. Braun submitted a program sponsoring a state-wide poster contest, a series of safety letters to parents, graded safety posters in the class rooms, safety exhibits in December and a monthly exhibition of safety posters to be shown at P.-T. A. meetings.

Mrs. B. B. Handy reported a membership of 279 members.

Mrs. Preston Fergus, finance chairman, reported on the progress of the annual carnival to be held Thursday, November 3.

The executive board made a motion to go on record as endorsing and cooperating with the Ouachita parish health program.

It was also voted by the board to have a social period at each P.-T. A. meeting without refreshments, the money to be used for worthy causes.

Mrs. Marvyn Johnson was appointed chairman for the mother singers of Georgia Tucker and wishes to announce that anyone interested in singing with the group to get in touch with her.

Mrs. Sand Smith was appointed publication chairman.

The Georgia Tucker P.-T. A. met Thursday afternoon in the school auditorium with Mrs. Elmer Richards presiding. Mrs. Richards gave a report of the Fifth District P.-T. A. meeting held in Lake Providence Wednesday, stating that the Georgia Tucker Parent-Teacher association had the largest membership of any group in the district.

Mrs. X. Holt, secretary, read the minutes and Mrs. B. B. Handy, membership chairman, reported that the association had 281 members. Mrs. Handy expressed her appreciation for the assistance given her by the teachers and members.

Mrs. Preston Fergus, financial chairman, stated that the annual carnival would be held Thursday night, November 3, at 7 p.m.

A splendid safety program was submitted by Mrs. C. B. Braun, chairman of the safety committee.

An interesting talk on tuberculosis and communicable diseases was made by Miss Bernice Wright, secretary of the T. B. Association.

Mr. Lucius Hughes, director of the Ouachita public welfare work, outlined his program and projects.

Mrs. King Hunt, president of the Twin City council of Parent-Teacher associations, spoke on "What We Get From the State and National P.-T. A."

At the close of the meeting, Miss Myrtle Rogers, principal of the Georgia Tucker school, paid a tribute to the late Mrs. Hattye Levy and Mrs. Henry Haas, who was a former president of the Georgia Tucker P.-T. A.

Lida Benton

Mrs. C. L. Couch was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of Lida Benton P.-T. A., held Thursday in the school auditorium, taking for her subject, "The State and National Congress, Partners in Progress." Mrs. Couch, in her talk, showed the supreme purpose of the P.-T. A. movement, namely, the welfare of the child. She pointed out that the P.-T. A. is not a money-making machine but is an organization promoting a movement toward constructive achievement. She stated that more than 25,000 communities have been helped by the organization in the development of music, art, health centers and child training courses.

In order to keep before the membership the reasons for belonging to the organization and attending meetings, the members recited in unison "Objects of a P.-T. A."

Mrs. J. H. Moore led the business session. Announcement was made that the annual Halloween party will be held Monday night at 7 p.m., at the school.

Mrs. Couch gave a report of the district convention held recently at Lake Providence, to which the Lida Benton P.-T. A. sent nine representatives, the second largest number of visitors from any school in the district.

Awards for the most mothers present at the meeting were given to the first and sixth grades.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served, with Mrs. Cummings, hospitality chairman, in charge.

St. Matthew's

The regular monthly meeting of St. Matthew's P.-T. A. was held in the school auditorium Friday with good attendance.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. T. Morris. The president, Mrs. Charles Guerriero, presided over the business session. The second grade and seniors won the room awards. Friday, November 18, will be Father's night. Members will be privileged to hear the newly-formed band, which the P.-T. A. is sponsoring for St. Matthew's school this year. The annual Halloween party which was held Thursday night was highly successful. The money raised at this party will be used for the underprivileged children of St. Matthew's school. One of the main features of the party was a floor show, directed by Mrs. Stanley Hodges.

Several dance numbers, by pupils of Winnie McCoy's dancing school, songs by the first grade, a group recitation by the high school boys and a tableau, by four high school girls concluded the evening's entertainment.

Thirteen members of St. Matthew's P.-T. A. attended the Fifth district meeting at Lake Providence. This number includes all officers of the association.

Barkdull Faulk

The Barkdull Faulk P.-T. A. was represented at the Fifth district meeting in Lake Providence on October 26 by Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. J. E. Bryan and the president, Mrs. C. R. Tidwell.

Fairbanks

The Fairbanks P.-T. A. held its regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon with a very interesting program.

Mrs. "Doc" Worley gave an instructive report on the district P.-T. A. meeting at Lake Providence. Those at this meeting from Fairbanks were Mrs. Doc Worley, Mrs. Vane Brazil, Mrs. Spurgeon Welch and Mrs. J. W. Moore.

The P.-T. A will sponsor an oyster supper Friday night, November 4, at the Fairbanks cafe. Other plans for the year were discussed.

The following program was given at the close of the business meeting:

P.-T. A. songs, Mrs. Vane Brazil, scripture reading, Mrs. George Clarke; prayer, Mrs. O. A. Sinquefield; talk on "It Is Worthwhile," Mrs. Borden Bradley; one-act play entitled "Ah," given by Durwood Sewell, Jack Mulhearn and La Given Cole from the sixth grade room.

Marion

The Marion P.-T. A. held its regular meeting Wednesday, October 26, 1938. The theme, "Health and Recreation as Partners in Progress," was demonstrated in a play presented by the sixth grade.

After the devotional was given by Mrs. Mattie Lou Everette, Miss Alethia Cole supervised the playing of two recreational games.

Reports were given by the different chairmen, a good one from the home room chairman. The tenth grade pupils wish to thank Mrs. Dennis for the bulletin board.

Mrs. B. K. Wren's room, the sixth grade, won the room award.

Mrs. J. D. Landers, president, Mrs. Tom Gibson, Mrs. W. Albritton and Mrs. C. W. Salmon were selected to represent the association at the district meeting in Sharon.

After the business meeting the members enjoyed refreshments at the home economics cottage.

Miss Clayton Weds Joseph M. Dufresne

Marriage Solemnized At Home Of Bride's Parents In Jonesboro On October 22

A wedding claiming the attention of a wide circle of friends was that of Miss Ruth Virginia Clayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Clayton of Jonesboro, and Mr. Joseph M. Dufresne son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dufresne of Wallace, La., which was solemnized at 9 o'clock in the morning Saturday, October 22, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. J. F. Roberts of the Jonesboro Methodist church officiated.

The reception suite was beautifully decorated with ferns and baskets of roses placed at vantage points. Southern smilax formed an arch over the improvised altar where single myrtle tapers burned.

A pre-nuptial concert was rendered by Mrs. Howard Hearne played "Liebestraum" by Liszt, and Mrs. J. C. Baker sang Cadman Jacobs Bond's "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Hearne played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" by Wagner for the processional and for the recessional, Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Miss Jacqueline Shows served as bridesmaid, and Miss Christine Sutton, maid of honor. Miss Shows was attractively gowned in delphinet crepe with black accessories. She carried a lovely bouquet of pink and white rose buds. Miss Sutton wore a teal blue crepe with black accessories, carrying a bouquet of pink rose buds.

Carolyn Austin, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. She was attractively dressed in blue velvet adorned with rosettes of ribbon and rosebuds. Horace Austin, nephew of the bride, ring bearer, wore a navy blue suit.

The bride wore a beautiful duchonnet taffeta with lace fingertip veil. Attractive matching duchonnet accessories were worn. Her bouquet was of roses and white lilies.

An informal reception was held immediately following the ceremony. A beautiful wedding cake centered the attractively decorated table. Iced frappe and cakes were served.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Dufresne will make their home in Jonesboro.

Wedding Of Popular Monroe Girl Will Be Prominent Event Of Week; Mrs. Pracher Entertains

Beautiful flowers, mellow candlelight, delectable confections and throngs of beautifully gowned guests were the outstanding features of Mrs. Dean Selig's reception-tea Thursday afternoon honoring Miss Sadye Lou Peters, whose marriage to Mr. Credille Calhoun will be a fashionable event of this week.

Mrs. Selig was wearing a peacock blue lace evening gown with corsage of Token roses. Miss Peters wore a diaphanous model of white chiffon with rhinestone clips and a corsage of white valley lilies. Mrs. A. L. Peters, mother of the honor guest, wore a charming pink chiffon model with short cape of pleated chiffon. Miss Ella Rose Crawford, also a member of the receiving party, wore a peach colored chiffon model with low decolletage and long, full skirt.

Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Harry Moore in fuchsia colored velvet model, Miss Marjorie Gremillion in white satin evening model, Miss Shirley Ross in beige taffeta, Mrs. Irving Wolff in black lace, floor length evening model, Mrs. W. D. Ross in black velvet evening model. They passed among the guests with silver trays laden with pastry puffs, assorted gateaux, cream puffs and flower petal mints.

The oval tea table, overlaid with Italian linen cut work and lace, had for central floral adornment a wide spreading plaque of pink roses and orchid colored chrysanthemums flanked by pink tapers in silver candlesticks.

Mrs. C. Credille and Mrs. A. B. Calhoun of Bastrop, presided over the silver urns placed at either end of the table. Mrs. Calhoun was wearing a white crepe and lace model and Mrs. Credille was wearing black velvet and lace model. Both wore exquisite corsages, presented to them by their hostess.

Seventy-five or more guests called during the appointed hours.

Claiming prominence on last week's calendar of events honoring Miss Peters was Mrs. John Pracher's luncheon at her home in Fairview.

A beautifully embossed, circular wedding cake formed the central decor of the luncheon table, serviced with handsome hand-painted china.

Mrs. Pracher took this opportunity to present Miss Peters with a lovely linen luncheon set.

Courtesies were extended on this occasion to Miss Peters, Mrs. A. L. Peters, Mrs. Irving Wolff, Mrs. Ray Rhymes, Mrs. A. S. Tidwell, Mrs. Louis Peters, Mrs. Fred Seaman, Mrs. Buck Staples, Mrs. C. Tidwell, Mrs. C. S. Swain, Miss Ella Rose Crawford, Miss Mary Mulhern, Miss Gerry Trichel.

A luncheon table covered with handsome white satin damask and with a central decor of superb white roses and white chrysanthemums in beautiful arrangement, was presided over by three gracious hostesses, Mrs. A. S. Tidwell, Mrs. A. R. Tidwell and Mrs. Newton Perdue, in the private dining room of the Frances hotel with Miss Sadye Lou Peters the guest of honor, on Thursday at 1 o'clock.

A corsage of bride's roses tied with silver ribbons marked the cover reserved for Miss Peters, who wore a smart black velvet tailleur with small close-fitting hat of black. She pinned the corsage at her throat with charming effect. A miniature doll dressed in full bridal regalia was the favor presented to Miss Peters by her hostesses. Each guest was favored with a corsage of white chrsyanthemums tied with silver ribbons.

Four delicious courses were served with the dessert course, individual portions of baked alaska, unusually delectable.

Fourteen guests, including the guest of honor and her mother, Mrs. A. L. Peters, and the three hostesses, were present.

Sara Anita Cook Feted At Supper

Miss Sara Anita Cook, wearing a flattering satin evening gown in a delectable shade of ashes of roses, with flowers in her blonde hair worn high on the head, was the center of attraction at the buffet supper Thursday night in the Cameo room of the Virginia hotel with Miss Clara Virginia Terzia as hostess.

Miss Cook and her fiance, Mr. Joseph Hebert, Jr., enjoyed a conversational hour with a group of intimate friends, before the serving of supper. Cocktails and a bewildering array of hors d'oeuvres, were passed at this time.

Miss Terzia, a charming figure in pink net evening model fashioned with a long, full skirt and tight basque, selected a pink color theme for the supper table covered with handsome pink satin damask and centered with a Dresden epergne overflowing with pink chrysanthemums.

Many novel dishes, including a silver tray laden with vegetables fashioned into flowers, were served from the spacious buffet.

Small tables grouped near the fireplace were adorned with silver trays containing individual wedding cakes, supporting miniature pink tapers. Pink satin ribbons attached to lucky symbols led to each cover.

Twenty guests from Rayville in addition to the guests of honor the hostess and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Felix Terzia and Mr. and Mrs. James Trousdale of this city were present.

Books For Cooley Sanatorium Sought

"National Book Week" November 13-19, will be observed by The Welcome Branch Book club by collecting appropriate books for the G. B. Cooley sanatorium. They will sponsor a "book tea," to be given at the Y. W. C. A. Friday, November 18, between the hours of 3-5 p. m. One of the main projects each year of this club is to supply the sanatorium with additional books. This year the public will be given the privilege of sharing in this project by making contributions.

Mrs. Dudley Stone, chairman of the library board calls the attention of book donors to the type of books suitable for hospitals. Books for invalids must be special type. The bindings should be clean and attractive, pages should not be missing and the print should not be fine. Books should not be too heavy to hold. Patients refuse to read "just anything." That they have an unquenchable desire to read everything and anything to while away the time is a mistaken idea. Where public libraries aim to educate, hospital libraries aim to help persons get well. Patients will not read "best sellers," that create disturbing thoughts and turn attention to one self.

What, then, do patients like to read? The lighter the theme, the better. Adventure, western and pioneer stories with plenty of action are the most popular. Love and light mystery books are also appreciated. Something by Bess Streeter Aldrich comes near to being the perfect gift.

Others are "Come and Get It," "Show Boat," "Cimarron," "As the Earth Turns," Joseph C. Lincoln's stories of Cape Cod, "Old Jules," "Miss Bishop," "Little Man, What Now?" "Westward Passage," "Jalna," "Forgive Us Our Trespasses," "Perennial Bachelor," "Gentle Julia," "Barberry Bush," "Angel in the House," "Lantern in Her Hand," "Life With Mother," "Life With Father," "Alice Adams," and "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

Books by Kathleen Norris, Zane Grey, James Oliver Curwood, John Fox, Jr., Nordhoff, Hall Mary Roberts Rinehart and E. Phillips Oppenheim are especially popular with invalids.

The library building will be ready for use in the near future. Patients will come and go but the same types of books will remain popular and the book donors may count themselves as really serving humanity.

Mrs. Blanchard Talks At P.-T. A. Gathering

State President Delivers Inspiring Address At Lake Providence District Meeting

Mrs. Paul Blanchard, Baton Rouge, president of the Louisiana P.-T. A., addressed members of the Fifth District Parent-Teacher association, held in Lake Providence Wednesday, October 26, at the Lake Providence High school.

"The national congress of parents and teachers," stated Mrs. Blanchard, "is an organization over 40 years old and has a membership of two million.

"Problems of safety, maintenance of schools, parent education, child psychology, social hygiene and other problems of modern life are worked out by parent-teacher associations, which have at their disposal material and information on these subjects, prepared by experts in the national organization's office."

Mrs. Bianchard's talk dealt chiefly with the work and mechanism of the local units.

The theme of the meeting was "Partners in Progress" and Mrs. C. L. Couch, Fifth district director, presided. The program was opened with registration and a coffee hour, followed by assembly singing led by Mrs. R. E. McClendon, accompanied by Mrs. H. Schwartz. A vocal selection was given by Miss Mary Burton Mooney.

The invocation was given by Rev. George Nelson, pastor of the Lake Providence Baptist church.

Dr. T. G. Biggs, mayor of Lake Providence, made the address of welcome and Mrs. Jack Castle, welfare chairman of the Ouachita Parish High school, Monroe, gave the response.

After the introduction of the state officers by Mrs. Couch, reports were made by the presidents of the local units.

Other speakers on the program were Mrs. G. A. Aden, president of the Neville High school P.-T. A. Monroe, who spoke on "Publications"; Mrs. G. B. Wilson, state safety chairman; Miss Johnnie Bowles, Baton Rouge, of the state department of education.

An interesting feature of the afternoon session was the presentation of a clever playlet, "Membership," written by Mrs. T. W. LeFevre of the Epps P.-T. A. The characters were portrayed by Mrs. LeFevre and Mrs. T. Y. Wall.

A luncheon for the visiting delegates was held in the Community house in Lake Providence with an invocation by Father Plutz.

St. Patrick's Parochial school and the Lake Providence High school Parent-Teacher associations were cohostesses during the meeting.

Committees officiating were: Registration, Mrs. C. R. Evans, Mrs. J. H. Guenard; coffee, Mrs. J. P. Davis, Mrs. C. R. Brown, Mrs. Joe Hamley, Miss Elizabeth Howard and girls of the high school; arrangements, Mrs. John Nelson, Mrs. C. Hart, Mrs. F. Reginald; luncheon, Mrs. W. F. Trieschman, Mrs. W. F. Booker; table decorations, Mrs. E. L. Voelker; music, Mrs. Ethel Atkinson; pages, Mrs. William Moore, Miss Tonie Voelker, Miss Annie Catherine Moore, Miss Isabel Voelker, Miss Naomi Hamley, Miss Thelma Callender, Miss Marmay Booker, Miss Grace Nelson; programs, Mrs. C. A. Rose, scouts.

Mrs. S. A. Seegers was general chairman.

Georgia Tucker

An executive meeting of the Georgia Tucker P.-T. A. was held in the principal's office of the school Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Elmer Richards, president, presided and plans of the standing committees for the year's work were submitted.

Mr Joe Durrett, chairman of the program committee, presented the following program for 1938-1939:

October, "Health"; November, "School and the New Trend of Education," Miss Marjorie Oliver; "The Georgia Tucker Library," Mrs. S. Solomon; December, "Public Safety Demonstration"; February, "Our Children" and Founder's day program; March, "Democracy," "Children's Character," "The American Child", April, "Pr t Education and Home Making," "Teaching Thrift At Home" and a "Forum of Neighborhood Activities"; May, "Recreation and Hobbies of Children."

Mrs. C. B. Braun submitted a program sponsoring a state-wide poster contest, a of safety letters to parents, graded safety posters in the class rooms, safety exhibits in December and a monthly exhibition of safety posters to be shown at P.-T. A. meetings.

Mrs. B. B. Handy reported a membership of 279 members.

Mrs. Preston Fergus, finance chairman, reported on the progress of the annual carnival to be held Thursday, November 3.

The executive board made a motion to go on record as endorsing and cooperating with the Ouachita parish health program.

It was also voted by the board to have a social period at each P.-T. A. meeting without refreshments, the money to be used for worthy causes.

Mrs. Marvyn Johnson was appointed chairman for the mother singers of Georgia Tucker and wishes to announce that anyone interested in singing with the group to get in touch with her.

Mrs. Sand Smith was appointed publication chairman.

The Georgia Tucker P.-T. A. met Thursday afternoon in the school auditorium with Mrs. Elmer Richards presiding. Mrs. Richards gave a report of the Fifth District P.-T. A. meeting held in Lake Providence Wednesday, stating that the Georgia Tucker Parent-Teacher association had the largest membership of any group in the district.

Mrs. X. Holt, secretary, read the minutes and Mrs. B. B. Handy, membership chairman, reported that the association had 281 members. Mrs. Handy expressed her appreciation for the assistance given her by the teachers and members.

Mrs. Preston Fergus, financial chairman, stated that the annual carnival would be held Thursday night, November 3, at 7 p.m.

A splendid safety program was submitted by Mrs. C. B. Braun, chairman of the safety committee.

An interesting talk on tuberculosis and communicable diseases was made by Miss Bernice Wright, secretary of the T. B. Association.

Mr. Lucius Hughes, director of the Ouachita public welfare work, outlined his program and projects.

Mrs. King Hunt, president of the Twin City council of Parent-Teacher associations, spoke on "What We Get From the State and National P.-T. A."

At the close of the meeting, Miss Myrtle Rogers, principal of the Georgia Tucker school, paid a tribute to the late Mrs. Hattye Levy and Mrs. Henry Haas, who was a former president of the Georgia Tucker P.-T. A.

Lida Benton

Mrs. C. L. Couch was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of Lida Benton P.-T. A., held Thursday in the school auditorium, taking for her subject, "The State and National Congress, Partners in Progress." Mrs. Couch, in her talk, showed the supreme purpose of the P.-T. A. movement, namely, the welfare of the child. She pointed out that the P.-T. A. is not a money-making machine but is an organization promoting a movement toward constructive achievement. She stated that more than 25,000 communities have been helped by the organization in development of music, art, health centers and child training courses.

In order to keep before the membership the reasons for belonging to the organization and attending meetings, the members recited in unison "Objects of a P.-T. A."

Mrs. J. H. Moore led the business session. Announcement was made that the annual Halloween party will be held Monday night at 7 p.m., at the school.

Mrs. Couch gave a report of the district convention held recently at Lake Providence, to which the Lida Benton P.-T. A. sent nine representatives, the second largest number of visitors from any school in the district.

Awards for the most mothers present at the meeting were given to the first and sixth grades.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served, with Mrs. Cummings, hospitality chairman, in charge.

St. Matthew's

The regular monthly meeting of St. Matthew's P.-T. A. was held in the school auditorium Friday with good attendance.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. T. V. Morris. The president, Mrs. Charles Guerriero, presided over the business session. The second grade and seniors won the room awards. Friday, November 18, will be Father's night. Members will be privileged to hear the newly-formed band, which the P.-T. A. is sponsoring for St. Matthew's school this year. The annual Halloween party which was held Thursday night was highly successful. The money raised at this party will be used for the underprivileged children of St. Matthew's school. One of the main features of the party was a floor show, directed by Mrs. Stanley Hodges.

Several dance numbers, by pupils of Winnie McCoy's dancing school, songs by the first grade, a group recitation by the high school boys and a tableau, by four high school girls, concluded the evening's entertainment.

Thirteen members of St. Matthew's P.-T. A. attended the Fifth district meeting at Lake Providence. This number includes all officers of the association.

Barkdull Faulk

The Barkdull Faulk P.-T. A. was represented at the Fifth district meeting in Lake Providence on October 26 by Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. J. E. Bryan and the president, Mrs. C. R. Tidwell.

Fairbanks

The Fairbanks P.-T. A. held its regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon with a very interesting program.

Mrs. "Doc" Worley gave an instructive report on the district P.-T. A. meeting at Lake Providence. Those at this meeting from Fairbanks were Mrs. Doc Worley, Mrs. Vane Brazil, Mrs. Spurgeon Welch and Mrs. J. W. Moore.

The P.-T. A will sponsor an oyster supper Friday night, November 4, at the Fairbanks cafe. Other plans for the year were discussed.

The following program was given at the close of the business meeting:

P.-T. A. songs, Mrs. Vane Brazil; scripture reading, Mrs. George Clarke; prayer, Mrs. O. A. Sinquefield; talk on "It Is Worthwhile," Mrs. Borden Bradley; one-act play entitled "Ah," given by Durwood Sewell, Jack Mulhearn and La Given Cole from the sixth grade room.

Marion

The Marion P.-T. A. held its regular meeting Wednesday, October 26, 1938. The theme, "Health and Recreation as Partners in Progress," was demonstrated in a play presented by the sixth grade.

After the devotional was given by Mrs. Mattie Lou Everette, Miss Alethia Cole supervised the playing of two recreational games.

Reports were given by the different chairmen, a good one from the home room chairman. The tenth grade pupils wish to thank Mrs. Dennis for the bulletin board.

Mrs. B. K. Wa[illegible]'s room, the sixth grade, won the room award.

Mrs. J. D. Landers, president, Mrs. Tom Gibson, Mrs. W. Albritton and Mrs. C. W. Salmon were selected to represent the association at the district meeting [illegible]sboro.

After the business meeting the members enjoyed refreshments at the home economics cottage.

Miss Clayton Weds Joseph M. Dufresne

Marriage Solemnized At Home Of Bride's Parents In Jonesboro On October 22

A wedding claiming the attention of a wide circle of friends was that of Miss Ruth Virginia Clayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Clayton of Jonesboro, and Mr. Joseph M. Dufresne son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dufresne of Wallace, La., which was solemnized at 9 o'clock in the morning, Saturday, October 22, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. J. F. Roberts of the Jonesboro Methodist church officiated.

The reception suite was beautifully decorated with ferns and baskets of roses placed at vantage points. Southern smilax formed an arch over the improvised altar where single myriad tapers burned.

A pre-nuptial concert was rendered. Mrs. Howard Hearne played "Liebestraum" by Liszt, and Mrs. J. C. Baker sang Carrie Jacobs Bond's "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Hearne played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" by Wagner for the processional and for the recessional, Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Miss Jacqueline Shows served as bridesmaid, and Miss Christine Sutton, maid of honor. Miss Shows was attractively gowned in dubonnet crepe with black accessories. She carried a lovely bouquet of pink and white rose buds. Miss Sutton wore a teal blue costume with black accessories, carrying a bouquet of pink rose buds.

Carolyn Austin, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. She was attractively dressed in blue velvet adorned with rosettes of ribbon and rosebuds. Horace Austin, nephew of the bride, ring bearer, wore a navy blue suit.

The bride wore a beautiful dubonnet tailleur with fox fur lapels. Attractive matching dubonnet accessories were worn. Her bouquet was of roses and white lilies.

An informal reception was held immediately following the ceremony. A beautiful wedding cake centered the attractively decorated table. Iced frappe and cakes were served.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Dufresne will make their home in Jonesboro.

Federated Clubs Hold Meeting At Tallulah

Conference Presided Over By Mrs. A. D. Tisdale And Mrs. J. Norman Coon Of Monroe

The second club institute of Louisiana Federated Women's clubs was held in the Fifth district at Tallulah last Wednesday. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. Norman Coon, state chairman of club institutes, and Mrs. A. D. Tisdale, Fifth district president. The morning session was opened with the assembly club song, "Louisiana," sung in unison. The welcome was given by Miss Lillie May Long of Tallulah, past president of Fifth district. The response was given by Mrs. J. D. Petty of Monroe.

Mrs. A. D. Tisdale stressed the importance of club institutes. She stated that during the convention at Kansas City this year a club institute was held every day. She also stated that club institutes develop self-expression.

Mrs. H. C. Shinn of St. Joseph spoke on election of officers and their duties, stressing the importance of naming a program chairman early in the club year in order that she may select material for the year's program.

Mrs. J. A. Jurt of Epps discussed "Qualifications of Officers," bringing out the point that they should abide by the "collect" and have a sound mind, heart and body, and they should also understand community needs, should be able to convince others and above everything else they should be genuine and fair in all dealings. She also spoke of the ideal committee chairman and the importance of preparedness.

Mrs. Martian Hamley of Lake Providence, chairman of club publications, gave special recognition to a club in the Fifth district that has subscribed 100 per cent to the General Federation Club Woman magazine. The Welcome Branch Book club of Monroe, with Mrs. Dudley Stone as club chairman of G. F. W. C. magazine, is this outstanding club.

A panel discussion was held in the afternoon with the nine departments of the state federation being ably presented by the department chairman of the Fifth district.

In closing Mrs. Tisdale urged every club to send delegates to the state convention to be held in Baton Rouge on November 3 and 4.

The presence of Mrs. R. K. Boney, past state president, created additional interest.

Ruston

National Founders' day was celebrated by the Alpha Chi chapter of Kappa Delta at Tech. The ceremony, impressive in every detail, was led by Miss Rosalind Lindsey, president of the sorority.

One of the interesting features of the celebration was an inspirational talk given by Mrs. Stuart Hunt, a K. D. alumna and former Tech student. Mrs. Hunt chose for her subject, "The Founders of Kappa Delta."

Miss Ellen Gulley entertained with a much-loved sorority song, "Memories of Mother Alpha." Miss Gulley was accompanied at the piano by Miss Lillie McKinney.

After a short talk by the president, the "Loving Cup" ritualistic service was performed.

Tech scored a fashion triumph to offset the loss on the gridiron to Normal. Coeds donned their most becoming outfits and went to the game in fashion mannequin style.

Particularly noticeable among the beautifully dressed at the game was the queen and her attendants.

Serving as maid of honor, Miss Donna Gene Green was becomingly attired in a modish cape and dress ensemble of wine color.

Kappa Delta pledges have elected the following members as officers: Wanda Hewitt, president; Mary Holt Barnes, vice-president; Edwina Wade, secretary; Frances McDonald, treasurer; Alexa Lawler, parliamentarian.

Socially prominent among the events of the week was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fox in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Clarkson, of Minden.

Mrs. Louise Morgan presided at the table where she poured coffee from a beautiful silver coffee service and served canapes and cakes.

The floral decoration was a centerpiece of dahlias.

Guests attending were the Episcopal students of Tech, members of that denomination who live in Ruston, and the ministers of other churches in town and their wives.

Chairman of activities for Kappa Delta pledges are: Mary Holt Barnes, social; Margaret Mulhearn, social service; Carolyn Ford, program; Eve Cardwell, scholarship chairman.

Patronesses of Theta Upsilon sorority at Tech were entertained with an oyster supper given by the sorority.

Allergies Popular Conversation Topic

Almost Everybody Nowadays Has List Of Forbidden Food; Entertaining Becomes Problem

It is no longer fashionable to talk about one's operation. Everyone now is talking about allergies. One must have one to be really fashionable.

In the good days, before the allergic guest came into being, it was fun to plan for company. It was such fun to plan a menu and try out something new and have everyone enjoy the food. Even weight control had not become stylish. No problem of calories confronted the hostess. "Eating is my favorite indoor sport," husbands often declared.

Years ago Mary, for instance, was the only one in the crowd who couldn't eat eggs. Such attention for Mary! No salad dressing, no cake with her dessert—and how we pitied her!

Today there is a club in Monroe of which four of its eight members are allergic. One would expect them to eliminate luncheon but that has never occurred to them. They love to eat. One cannot eat wheat flour, one can have no potatoes or corn, including corn meal. Chocolate and nuts are taboo for another. They have to have fish on Friday even though one member is allergic to sea food of all kinds. Rice, however, comes into its own. It seems to be a harmless little grain.

Desserts become a problem when wheat flour cannot be used. Even a birthday cake can be evolved. Mold a Bavarian cream into a birthday cake pan, turn it out and frost it with whipped cream and candy confetti. Wonderful.

There is a family of four that really tests a hostess' reserve even for Sunday night tea. No egg for John, no fruit for his father. Nuts, chocolate, fish and pineapple are taboo for the mother. And the cat must be shut in the basement as the daughter is allergic to animals.

Some may remember the eggless, wheatless, sugarless cakes and meatless meals of World war days. One resourceful soul dug into the archives for war menus and fed her allergic acquaintances successfully.

Occasionally allergies are a help. One pour soul is an easy one to entertain. She can have no wheat flour and no roughage. One asks her over and opens a can of creamed soup. Lunch is ready. A dish of gelatine is the customary dessert.

It is truly tragic for the budget when the adolescent daughter goes in for allergies. All the well-known short cuts for budget stretching are taboo. No beans. No cabbage. "Why, mother, cabbage is high in iodine content." Bananas, horrors! Cocoa for breakfast. "Mercy, no!" Peanut butter sandwiches. "My dear, my skin!" And our children were brought up to believe that it was smart to like everything!

In spite of sniffles, pimples, hives and headaches, food continues to be a large item on our budgets. Thank heaven growing, active youngsters cannot hold the allergic pose for more than a day.

Now one needs to be a dietitian, a statistician and a magician to be a perfect hostess. Of course one can still plan a luncheon and remain conveniently blind when one guest leaves her sandwiches and another her tomato aspic while another bravely resists the potato chips and a fourth doesn't drink her coffee.

Mangham

Delegates from Mangham who attended at Tallulah a meeting of the Fifth district clubs of the State Federation of Women's clubs were Mrs. J. W. DeMoss, Sr., Mrs. E. E. Randall, Mrs. W. C. Baker, Mrs. G. W. Humble, Mrs. F. C. Sheppard, Mrs. E. C. Harper and Mrs. S. M. Hixon.

Circle No. 3 of the Baptist Missionary society met with Mrs. H. H. Nash for a study lesson in the book "Europe and the Gospel," taught by Mrs. R. M. Baxter. The hostess served refreshments to Mrs. R. M. Baxter, Mrs. Matt Boughton, Mrs. Mollie Boughton, Mrs. Bill Taylor, Mrs. Templeton, Mrs. T. W. Stark, Mrs. Dougle McCormick, Mrs. Newberry, Mrs. I. L. Bruce and Mrs. Nash.

Mrs. B. N. Hixon entertained members of her bridge club at her home. Following the bridge games, refreshments were served to Mrs. S. M. Hixon, Mrs. C. E. Tillman, Mrs. F. C. Sheppard, Mrs. E. E. Randall, Mrs. E. C. Harper, Mrs. Mattie Gaulden, Mrs. Alex Watson and Mrs. Hixon.

The young people's class of the Methodist church met at the home of Miss Ada Preston. At the conclusion of the lesson, refreshments were served to Miss Ethel Watson, Miss Mattie Laura Adams, Miss Sybil Tillman, Mrs. Mable Nash, Miss Edith Wooten, Miss Olivia Lee, Mrs. E. D. Baker, Mrs. W. C. Baker, Mrs. Everette Wilder, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Kathleen Baskin, Miss Bessie Noble, Miss Ada Preston, Mrs. M. D. Preston and Mrs. J. W. DeMoss.

Mrs. M. D. Preston entertained her missionary society at her home with a social. Those present were Mrs. C. E. McConnell, Mrs. B. O. Griffing, Mrs. F. D. Childress, Mrs. Effie Underwood, Mrs. Rich, Mrs. Perry.

Mr. Fred Baker of Illinois was a recent guest in the home of Mrs. E. D. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Baker.

Railways of Ireland have laid off many hands recently because of falling business, and the unemployment and railway problems of the country threaten to become serious.

Ruston

National Founders' day was celebrated by the Alpha Chi chapter of Kappa Delta at Tech. The ceremony, impressive in every detail, was led by Miss Rosalind Lindsey, president of the sorority.

One of the interesting features of the celebration was an inspirational talk given by Mrs. Stuart Hunt, a K. D. alumna and former Tech student. Mrs. Hunt chose for her subject, "The Founders of Kappa Delta."

Miss Ellen Gulley entertained with a much-loved sorority song, "Memories of Mother Alpha." Miss Gulley was accompanied at the piano by Miss Lillie McKinney.

After a short talk by the president, the "Loving Cup" ritualistic service was performed.

Tech scored a fashion triumph to offset the loss on the gridiron to Normal. Coeds donned their most becoming outfits and went to the game in fashion mannequin style.

Particularly noticeable among the beautifully dressed at the game was the queen and her attendants.

Miss Virginia Frazier, presiding as queen of the event, was smartly attired in a mustard-colored swagger suit model with fur trim.

Serving as maid of honor, Miss Donna Gene Green was becomingly attired in a modish cape and dress ensemble of wine color.

Kappa Delta pledges have elected the following members as officers: Wanda Hewitt, president; Mary Holt Barnes, vice-president; Edwina Wade, secretary; Frances McDonald, treasurer; Alexa Lawler, parliamentarian.

Socially prominent among the events of the week was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fox in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Clarkson, of Minden.

Mrs. Louise Morgan presided at the table where she poured coffee from a beautiful silver coffee service and served canapes and cakes.

The floral decoration was a centerpiece of dahlias.

Guests attending were the Episcopal students of Tech, members of that denomination who live in Ruston, and the ministers of other churches in town and their wives.

Chairman of activities for Kappa Delta pledges are: Mary Holt Barnes, social; Margaret Mulhearn, social service; Carolyn Ford, program; Eve Cardwell, scholarship chairman.

Patronesses of Theta Upsilon sorority at Tech were entertained with an oyster supper given by the sorority.

The supper given in the banquet room of the home economics building was an annual event given in honor of the sorority sponsors.

Allergies Popular Conversation Topic

Almost Everybody Nowadays Has List Of Forbidden Food; Entertaining Becomes Problem

It is no longer fashionable to talk about one's operation. Everyone now is talking about allergies. One must have one to be really fashionable.

In the good days, before the allergic guest came into being, it was fun to plan for company. It was such fun to plan a menu and try out something new and have everyone enjoy the food. Even weight control had not become stylish. No problem of calories confronted the hostess. "Eating is my favorite indoor sport," husbands often declared.

Years ago Mary, for instance, was the only one in the crowd who couldn't eat eggs. Such attention for Mary! No salad dressing, no cake with her dessert—and how we pitied her!

Today there is a club in Monroe of which four of its eight members are allergic. One would expect them to eliminate luncheon but that has never occurred to them. They love to eat. One cannot eat wheat flour, one can have no potatoes or corn, including corn meal. Chocolate and nuts are taboo for another. They have to have fish on Friday even though one member is allergic to sea food of all kinds. Rice, however, comes into its own. It seems to be a harmless little grain.

Desserts become a problem when wheat flour cannot be used. Even a birthday cake can be evolved. Mold a Bavarian cream into a birthday cake pan, turn it out and frost it with whipped cream and candy confetti. Wonderful.

There is a family of four that really tests a hostess' reserve even for Sunday night tea. No egg for John, no fruit for his father. Nuts, chocolate, fish and pineapple are taboo for the mother. And the cat must be shut in the basement as the daughter is allergic to animals.

Some may remember the eggless, wheatless, sugarless cakes and meatless meals of World war days. One resourceful soul dug into the archives for war menus and fed her allergic acquaintances successfully.

Occasionally allergies are a help. One pour soul is an easy one to entertain. She can have no wheat flour and no roughage. One asks her over and opens a can of creamed soup. Lunch is ready. A dish of gelatine is the customary dessert.

It is truly tragic for the budget when the adolescent daughter goes in for allergies. All the well-known short cuts for budget stretching are taboo. No beans. No cabbage. "Why, mother, cabbage is high in iodine content." Bananas, horrors! Cocoa for breakfast. "Mercy, no!" Peanut butter sandwiches. "My dear, my skin!" And our children were brought up to believe that it was smart to like everything!

In spite of sniffles, pimples, hives and headaches, food continues to be a large item on our budgets. Thank heaven growing, active youngsters cannot hold the allergic pose for more than a day.

Now one needs to be a dietitian, a statistician and a magician to be a perfect hostess. Of course one can still plan a luncheon and remain conveniently blind when one guest leaves her sandwiches and another her tomato aspic while another bravely resists the potato chips and a fourth doesn't drink her coffee.

Mangham

Circle No. 3 of the Baptist Missionary society met with Mrs. H. H. Nash for a study lesson in the book "Europe and the Gospel," taught by Mrs. R. M. Baxter. The hostess served refreshments to Mrs. R. M. Baxter, Mrs. Matt Boughton, Mrs. Mollie Boughton, Mrs. Bill Taylor, Mrs. Templeton, Mrs. T. W. Stark, Mrs. Dougle McCormick, Mrs. Newberry, Mrs. I. L. Bruce and Mrs. Nash.

Mrs. B. N. Hixon entertained members of her bridge club at her home. Following the bridge games, refreshments were served to Mrs. S. M. Hixon, Mrs. C. E. Tillman, Mrs. F. C. Sheppard, Mrs. E. E. Randall, Mrs. E. C. Harper, Mrs. Mattie Gaulden, Mrs. Alex Watson and Mrs. Hixon.

The young people's class of the Methodist church met at the home of Miss Ada Preston. At the conclusion of the lesson, refreshments were served to Miss Ethel Watson, Miss Mattie Laura Adams, Miss Sybil Tillman, Mrs. Mable Nash, Miss Edith Wooten, Miss Olivia Lee, Mrs. E. D. Baker, Mrs. W. C. Baker, Mrs. Everette Wilder, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Kathleen Baskin, Miss Bessie Noble, Miss Ada Preston, Mrs. M. D. Preston and Mrs. J. W. DeMoss.

Mrs. M. D. Preston entertained her missionary society at her home with a social. Those present were Mrs. C. E. McConnell, Mrs. B. O. Griffing, Mrs. F. D. Childress, Mrs. Effie Underwood, Mrs. Rich, Mrs. Perry.

Mr. Fred Baker of Illinois was a recent guest in the home of Mrs. E. D. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Baker.

Railways of Ireland have laid off many hands recently because of falling business, and the unemployment and railway problems of the country threaten to become serious.

DISTANT PASTURES NOT ALWAYS GREENEST

Monroe and West Monroe, like most other places, need their share of community contentment.

By community contentment, we mean satisfaction with worthwhile things accomplished, recognition of advantages enjoyed by the towns and gratefulness for opportunities available within or near the municipalities.

In the offices of one of the leading business executives of Monroe hangs a picture. Two fence-separated mules in meadows of equal richness are looking longingly into each other's pasture. Beneath them is this inscription: "The other fellow's pasture is always greenest."

This picture has a moral for Monroe and West Monroe. Sunny California and golden Florida have their lure. The oil fields of Texas and Oklahoma cast their spell of riches and great enterprise. There's the enchantment of the unknown beyond the horizon. We lose sight of the advantages immediately at hand in our haste to depart for new lands of opportunity. Distance lends beauty to the view.

We go. But, sooner or later, we return. We are always glad to get back; usually sorry that we ever left.

Monroe and West Monroe are wholesome, hospitable and friendly communities. In either, you can live a thoroughly useful, healthful, prosperous, satisfying American life. Opportunities are just as prevalent in either as anywhere else. More so than in thousands of other places.

Just read the newspapers—earthquakes . . . tornadoes . . . undeclared wars . . . revolutions . . . persecutions . . . dissension . . . plagues . . . pestilences . . .

Monroe and West Monroe have never experienced a major catastrophe. Earthquakes and tornadoes have struck elsewhere (in California and Florida, for instance), but in neither of these communities. Fortunately, they have escaped all forms of irreparable disasters, have never experienced mass suffering.

Monroe and West Monroe get no pleasure from reading of the misfortunes of others, of course; but they can at least be glad they have been spared.

Monroe and West Monroe have much to be proud of—the fertility of the fields that surround them; the natural resources of the surrounding area, particularly natural gas; the industries that contribute to the economic well-being of their residents; the educational advantages offered by their schools; the recreational facilities of the municipalities, just to mention a few things.

Monroe and West Monroe are great cities in a great parish, progressive communities in a progressive state. They have made greater forward strides in the past two decades than any other places in Louisiana. And they are still moving ahead, destined for full participation in the industrial growth planned for the state.

So be contented with Monroe and West Monroe. Sublimate your restlessness by putting your excess energy to work toward making the communities bigger and better.

Check up on Monroe and West Monroe! Grow and go with Monroe and West Monroe!

Just read the newspapers—earthquakes . . . tornadoes . . . undeclared wars . . . revolutions . . . persecutions . . . dissension . . . plagues . . . pestilences . . .

Monroe and West Monroe have never experienced a major catastrophe. Earthquakes and tornadoes have struck elsewhere (in California and Florida, for instance), but in neither of these communities. Fortunately, they have escaped all forms of irreparable disasters, have never experienced mass suffering.

Monroe and West Monroe get no pleasure from reading of the misfortunes of others, of course; but they can at least be glad they have been spared.

Monroe and West Monroe have much to be proud of—the fertility of the fields that surround them; the natural resources of the surrounding area, particularly natural gas; the industries that contribute to the economic well-being of their residents; the educational advantages offered by their schools; the recreational facilities of the municipalities, just to mention a few things.

Monroe and West Monroe are great cities in a great parish, progressive communities in a progressive state. They have made greater forward strides in the past two decades than any other places in Louisiana. And they are still moving ahead, destined for full participation in the industrial growth planned for the state.

So be contented with Monroe and West Monroe. Sublimate your restlessness by putting your excess energy to work toward making the communities bigger and better.

Check up on Monroe and West Monroe! Grow and go with Monroe and West Monroe!

'You Can't Take It With You' To Open At Paramount

Mickey Rooney shifts from his happy-go-lucky Andy Hardy roles to play one of the most serious and dramatic roles of his career in "Boys Town," story of Father Flanagan's famous juvenile community in Boys Town, Neb. Co-starred with him in the new picture is Spencer Tracy with whom Rooney scored one of his greatest film triumphs in "Captains Courageous." "Boys Town" opens at the Paramount theater next Friday for a three-day engagement.

That's Frank Capra, director of "You Can't Take It With You," seated on a ladder before the fence on which is seated the principal members of the cast. The film is a Columbia production, based on the George S. Kaufman-Moss Hart Pulitzer prize play. Reading from left to right, the cast of "You Can't Take It With You," which opens a four-day run starting Monday at the Paramount theater, are Halliwell Hobbes, as a fireworks-manufacturing iceman; Donald Meek as a mask-making clerk; Mary Forbes and Edward Arnold, the snooty Kirbys; James Stewart, their rebellious son, and Jean Arthur, his secretary. To the right of Capra are Lionel Barrymore, as Grandpa Vanderhof, who believes in having fun; Ann Miller, the dancing fudge-maker; Mischa Auer, her Russian ex-wrestler ballet instructor; Spring Byington, painter and playwright; Samuel S. Hinds, her husband, who also makes fireworks; Dub Taylor, xylophone player and amateur printer, and Lillian Yarbo and Ed Johnson, the Vanderhof servants.

A top-flight cast of well-established stars brings to the Capitol screen Tuesday an outstanding dramatic comedy which provides healthy entertainment for all classes of audiences. The picture is "A Desperate Adventure," and in the leading roles are Ramon Novarro and Marian Marsh with Margaret Tallichet, Eric Blore, Ernie Verebes, Andrew Tobes, Tom Rutherford and Michael Kent in support.

Prize Play Picture Is Slated Here

Jean Arthur, James Stewart, Lionel Barrymore And Edward Arnold Starred

HAILED as another Capra triumph, Columbia's screen version of the George S. Kaufman-Moss Hart Pulitzer prize play, "You Can't Take It With You," opens tomorrow at the Paramount theater with a cast which includes Jean Arthur, James Stewart, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold, Mischa Auer, Ann Miller and numerous others.

"You Can't Take It With You" was produced and directed by Frank Capra from the screen play by Robert Riskin. These Columbia film-makers have been lauded time and again for their "It Happened One Night," "Lady For a Day," "Lost Horizon" and "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town." "You Can't Take It With You," based on the stage success for which Columbia paid $200,000, is said to exceed even the previous efforts of the two brilliant collaborators.

The new film deals with the lovable and perfectly delightful Vanderhof family, which believes in doing whatever it wants whenever it wants to.

In their old New York home, presided over by Grandpa Vanderhof, this uninhibited group reveals a heart-warming attitude toward life in a marry melange of comedy, flavored with romance and tinged with pathos.

"You Can't Take It With You," is concerned, in part, with the proud aristocratic Kirbys, as well as with the carefree Vanderhofs. Kirby's monumental plan to form a huge munitions merger, a move which requires the purchase of all property within an area of 12 city blocks, is halted when Grandpa refuses to sell the Vanderhof home at any price. The plan of Kirby's son to marry Alice Sycamore, his secretary, is blocked when the boy brings his parents to dinner one night, only to discover the Vanderhof family engrossed in its various eccentric affairs.

The romance and merry-mad conflict of the two families, coupled with the enjoyable hobbies of the Vanderhofs and their many friends, is declared to make "You Can't Take It With You" one of the outstanding productions of the season.

Prominent in the supporting cast of the new Capra film are Spring Byington, Samuel S. Hinds, Dub Taylor, Donald Meek, H. B. Warner, Halliwell Hobbes, Eddie Anderson and Lillian Yarbo. Dimitri Tiomkin composed the musical score.

George Brent, Gloria Dickson and Humphrey Bogart play the leading roles in "Racket Busters" which plays today and Monday at the Capitol theater.

The artist who drew this picture of the Ritz Brothers in Damon Runyon's "Straight, Place and Show," which will be the Halloween midnight show attraction Monday night at the Paramount theater, wanted to call it "Still Life." He says if there's still life left in him he's going to see the picture again and die laughing. As a special Halloween treat a spaghetti eating and apple ducking contest is to be held on the stage. Halloween favors for all.

Charlie McCarthy, Edgar Bergen, Andrea Leeds and Adolphe Menjou are all featured in "Letter of Introduction" which plays Friday at the Capitol theater.

TECH PROFESSOR JOINS HONORARY FRATERNITY

RUSTON, La., Oct. 29.—(Special)—Miss Ruth Richardson, assistant professor of home economics at Louisiana Tech, has recently been initiated into the Sigma chapter of Phi Upsilon Omicron, national honorary professional home economics fraternity, it is announced.

The Sigma chapter, the only one in the state, is located at L. S. U., where Miss Richardson received her master's degree.

The award of a bid to the fraternity is based upon scholarship, professional attitude, outstanding achievements, personality and number of school activities participated in.

Miss Richardson teaches classes in textiles and clothing at Tech.

INSPECTOR OKAYS WORK OF EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

H. R. Bishop, field supervisor of the Louisiana State Employment service with headquarters at Baton Rouge, returned to that city yesterday after making a two-day inspection trip here to observe the operations of the local unit at 230 South Grand street under the management of R. E. Young. He stated, after making a careful study, that the office is well-managed and is performing a widely useful service, not only in this parish but in adjacent parishes.

Also he found that an increasing number of private employers are using the facilities of the employment service to secure workers and they report that the employes thus secured have proved of a high order.

When your heart skips a beat, it is really beating twice very rapidly.

Gang Film Will Open At Capitol

'Racket Busters' Stars George Brent In Intriguing Crime Story

THOSE who are familiar with New York's commission districts—those streets and areas to which the farmers of Long Island, New Jersey and upstate bring their vegetables and produce early each weekday morning—are going to be pleasantly surprised when they see the Warner Bros.-Cosmopolitan melodrama; "Racket Busters," which opens today at the Capitol theater.

Intensely life-like reproductions of the shops and sidewalks wherein are piled many thousands of crates of lettuce, celery, tomatoes, squash and the like were constructed especially for the picture. And the vegetables themselves were all real—so real, indeed, that when they had ended their usefulness as subjects for the camera of Cinematographer Arthur Edeson, they were carted to the hospitals and relief stations of Hollywood and Los Angeles.

"Artificial vegetables wouldn't have been any good at all," — Director Lloyd Bacon. "These crates of produce figured in too many close shots for that. And it probably would have cost the studio quite as much if not more to create the imitations."

Four good-sized blocks on what is called, at Warner-Cosmopolitan, the "tenement street," were especially constructed. They had the familiar fire-escapes up and down their fronts, and the familiar clothes-lines running from house to house and carrying family wash of all descriptions. The highways were noisy, dirty—and altogether familiar . those who have ever seen them in the metropolis.

For many years rackets involving the importation and sale of produce in the sidewalk markets of New York City have flourished. The underworld has taken its toll from both the farmers who raise the vegetables and the commission men who sell them.

"Racket Busters," as its title indicates, is a story of how the produce racket was smashed by an honest truckman, George Brent, and a capable special prosecutor, Walter Abel, after it had long flourished under the leadership of Humphrey Bogart, big-time racketeer.

PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN BY SCHOOL MUSIC GROUP

OAK GROVE, La., Oct. 29.—(Special)—C. Solon King, parish supervisor of music in West Carroll schools, announced that the Oak Grove High school music department will present on Thursday night, November 3, a program in the new auditorium with the proceeds going to the school's piano and music fund.

The program will include a group of American songs and hymns rendered by a chorus of 60 mixed voices, a group of piano, violin and clarinet solos, quartets and other small ensembles.

The school band will conclude the program with a group of overtures, marches and other appropriate compositions.

TABLE TENNIS CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED THURSDAY

A meeting has been scheduled for the Monroe recreation center, Thursday at 6:30 p.m. to organize a table tennis club. Men and women who are interested in this adult group are invited to attend.

It is proposed to promote tournaments for this indoor sport which is proving highly popular. These tournaments will be similar to those that are conducted on lawns in regulation tennis events.

All who are interested in forming a club are invited to be present.

Another project, announced by the recreation department is that of the formation of a doll club. A meeting of all interested, of any age, are invited to meet at the recreation center 124 1-2 DeSiard street, Saturday at 2 p.m.

Because of expansion and contraction of iron and steel in the chassis, there is a difference of more than an eighth of an inch between the length of an automobile on a hot summer day and on a cold winter day.

A scene from "Too Hot to Handle" which plays today at the Paramount theater. Clark Gable and Myrna Loy are starred in this thrill-packed action tale of a death-defying newsreel cameraman and a famous aviatrix.

INSPECTOR OKAYS WORK OF EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

H. R. Bishop, field supervisor of the Louisiana State Employment service with headquarters at Baton Rouge, returned to that city yesterday after making a two-day inspection trip here to observe the operations of the local unit at 230 South Grand street under the management of R. E. Young. He stated, after making a careful study, that the office is well-managed and is performing a widely useful service, not only in this parish but in adjacent parishes.

Also he found that an increasing number of private employers are using the facilities of the employment service to secure workers and they report that the employes thus secured have proved of a high order.

When your heart skips a beat, it is really beating twice very rapidly.

'Racket Busters' Stars George Brent In Intriguing Crime Story

THOSE who are familiar with New York's commission districts—those streets and areas to which the farmers of Long Island, New Jersey and upstate bring their vegetables and produce early each weekday morning—are going to be pleasantly surprised when they see the Warner Bros.-Cosmopolitan melodrama; "Racket Busters," which opens today at the Capitol theater.

Intensely life-like reproductions of the shops and sidewalks wherein are piled many thousands of crates of lettuce, celery, tomatoes, squash and the like were constructed especially for the picture. And the vegetables themselves were all real—so real, indeed, that when they had ended their usefulness as subjects for the camera of Cinematographer Arthur Edeson, they were carted to the hospitals and relief stations of Hollywood and Los Angeles.

"Artificial vegetables wouldn't have been any good at all," said Director Lloyd Bacon. "These crates of produce figured in too many close shots for that. And it probably would have cost the studio quite as much if not more to create the imitations."

Four good-sized blocks on what is called, at Warner-Cosmopolitan, the "tenement street," were especially constructed. They had the familiar fire-escapes up and down their fronts, and the familiar clothes-lines running from house to house and carrying family wash of all descriptions. The highways were noisy, dirty—and altogether familiar . . . those who have ever seen them in the metropolis.

For many years rackets involving the importation and sale of produce in the sidewalk markets of New York City have flourished. The underworld has taken its toll from both the farmers who raise the vegetables and the commission men who sell them.

"Racket Busters," as its title indicates, is a story of how the produce racket was smashed by an honest truckman, George Brent, and a capable special prosecutor, Walter Abel, after it had long flourished under the leadership of Humphrey Bogart, big-time racketeer.

PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN BY SCHOOL MUSIC GROUP

OAK GROVE, La., Oct. 29.—(Special)—C. Solon King, parish supervisor of music in West Carroll schools, announced that the Oak Grove High school music department will present on Thursday night, November 3, a program in the new auditorium with the proceeds going to the school's piano and music fund.

The program will include a group of American songs and hymns rendered by a chorus of 60 mixed voices, a group of piano, violin and clarinet solos, quartets and other small ensembles.

The school band will conclude the program with a group of overtures, marches and other appropriate compositions.

A scene from "Too Hot to Handle" which plays today at the Paramount theater. Clark Gable and Myrna Loy are starred in this thrill-packed action tale of a death-defying newsreel cameraman and a famous aviatrix.

Ginger Rogers and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., in a scene from "Having Wonderful Time," the feature to be shown Wednesday at the Capitol theater.

ELECT OFFICERS

NEW 'Y' BOARD MEMBERS NAMED

Annual Membership Meeting Conducted; Reports Are Submitted

The following board members of the Young Women's Christian association were elected at the annual membership meeting held at the residence, 904 Jackson street, Thursday night: Mrs. George Snellings, Mrs. J. R. White, Mrs. C. C. Colvert, Mrs. J. S. Drew, Mrs. Courtney Oliver, Mrs. R. B. Henry, Mrs. William Feazel and Mrs. Stanley Blower.

The new members will take office in January. Plans will be made for a training period for the new members. The regular monthly board meeting will be held November 3 at 10 a.m. A formal program was given at Thursday night's meeting and reports were rendered.

Mrs. J. B. Kugler, president, rendered her annual report which showed improvement of the residence, reorganization of Girl Reserves and the Business and Professional Girls' club, and employment of a new secretary as major projects.

A budget submitted calls for an expenditure of the total sum of $3,884.68 next year, which will be realized, it is expected, as follows: Income from residence, $1,761.78, and amount of drive fund (Community Chest), $2,122.

The only salaries paid are those of the general secretary, $1,500 and of the residence secretary, $600.

Miss Ivo Wilson became general secretary on September 1 and Mrs. John D. Coats is residence secretary.

The statement for the past year showed that finances are in good shape with a balance in the bank October 1, 1938 of $621.32.

FARMERS GET COTTON ADJUSTMENT CHECKS

TALLULAH, La., Oct. 29.—(Special)—The first checks for cotton price adjustment payment aggregating $33,502.39 and covering 141 farms with 506 producers have been received by J. A. Seab, parish administrative assistant.

It is expected that the adjustment payments to Madison parish producers who produced cotton in 1937 and cooperated in the 1938 program will receive approximately $150,000.

NO HALLOWEEN PARTY

Past matrons and past patrons of the Order of the Eastern Star, have cancelled the Halloween party that was planned for Monday night because of the death of Mrs. Henry Haas, a former past matron.

ELMER DOES DOUBLE DUTY

That old saw, "busy as a one-armed paperhanger," has given way in Washington to "busy as Elmer Andrews"—and his two hands and two ears seem none too many in this picture. The much-questioned administrator of the wage-hour law speeds up his listening by jamming phones against both ears as queries pour in on the operation of the new law.

CHURCHES

ASSEMBLY OF GOD

Central Baptist enters into a series of revival services today, Dr. W. E. B. Lockridge, pastor of the First Baptist church, Ruston, will be here to lead in the meeting. This eminent preacher has distinguished himself in our great Southern Baptist convention as a very honored minister of the gospel in every sense of the word, and we are looking forward to a great revival under his leadership. He will arrive in the city in time to preach at the evening service upon this Lord's day and we extend an invitation to all friends and citizens in this district to worship with us at all these services through the days of this meeting. The pastor will speak upon the subject: "Some Prerequisites to a Spiritual Revival," at the morning worship hour. All the church membership is expected to be present for this, the opening service of the meeting unless prevented by sickness or other providential hindrances.

The worship services during the week days will be 10 to 11 a. m. and 7:30 p.m., all prayer groups meeting prior to these services.

Sunday is "Brotherhood day" in our church. Sponsored by our local Brotherhood, Mr. H. K. Litton, president, the goal of attendance at the morning service has been set at 500 men. Mr. Lawrence Pettit is chairman of publicity committee that is working hard to reach the goal set. The pastor will bring a timely message to men on "Anchored Until Daybreak," based upon the Scripture, "Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast anchors . . . and wished for the day." Acts 27:29. A large chorus of men will sing "My Anchor Holds." Everybody is invited. We want this to be the greatest day for men in the history of the First Baptist church. Come to the Sunday school and remain for this special service. The other usual services will be held, B. T. U. and Brotherhood at 6:15, followed by the evening worship. The pastor will bring a warm, spiritual, Scriptural evangelistic message.

"On Finding It Hard to Believe in God" is the theme of our morning message. Certain happenings tend to upset and trouble people. Are you among the group? Are you assailed by doubts and questions? We may be able to help you.

"The Ascension of the Christ" is the topic about tonight. Did Jesus ascend into heaven? Why do we believe He did? What does it mean to us today? This is one in a series of talks based upon the Apostles' Creed. Great believers are needed today. Your presence will mean much to us in our approach to one of Christendom's marked documents.

A most cordial invitation is extended you to worship with us.

QUINTS MAKE MARK IN HOLLYWOOD

Ten tiny footprints of five famous girls, the Dionne quintuplets, were impressed in the fresh cement in front of Grauman's Chinese theater, with Actor Jean Hersholt, shown here, acting as proxy for his five little friends. The quints' five sets of shoes, worn in their newest movie, "Five of a Kind," were flown from Callander, Ont., for the ceremony.

PROPOSE GROUP TO AID SAFETY

Chamber Of Commerce Plans To Impress 24 In Service For Cause

As a junior board Chamber of Commerce activity, a special safety group of 24 men will be impressed into service as quasi-policemen in an endeavor to minimize traffic violations and to report to the chamber the violations they have observed.

Car numbers, time and place of violations will be noted and the cases will be reported, not to the police, but to the Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber of Commerce secretary then will write a letter to the automobilist who was responsible for the violation and he will be urged to be more careful in observing traffic regulations in the future.

This group of men will initiate their duties but not until after the close of the present Twin City Community Chest campaign, it was stated.

FARMERS GET COTTON ADJUSTMENT CHECKS

TALLULAH, La., Oct. 29.—(Special)—The first checks for cotton price adjustment payment aggregating $33,502.39 and covering 141 farms with 506 producers have been received by J. A. Seab, parish administrative assistant.

It is expected that the adjustment payments to Madison parish producers who produced cotton in 1937 and cooperated in the 1938 program will receive approximately $150,000.

NO HALLOWEEN PARTY

Past matrons and past patrons of the Order of the Eastern Star, have cancelled the Halloween party that was planned for Monday night because of the death of Mrs. Henry Haas, a former past matron.

ELMER DOES DOUBLE DUTY

That old saw, "busy as a one-armed paperhanger," has given way in Washington to "busy as Elmer Andrews"—and his two hands and two ears seem none too many in this picture. The much-questioned administrator of the wage-hour law speeds up his listening by jamming phones against both ears as queries pour in on the operation of the new law.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD
West Monroe
E. L. Tanner Pastor

The fifth Sunday fellowship meeting will meet with this church Sunday. Pastors and members of the various churches of this section are expected to be in attendance. Services will begin with Sunday school at the usual hour 9:45 a.m. Rev. L. L. Riley, who is conducting a revival meeting at this time, will speak at 11 a.m. Lunch will be served in the basement of the church at noon, and a number of visiting ministers will be on the program to speak in the afternoon. Evangelistic services at 7:30 p.m. The general public is cordially invited to attend these special services. The revival meeting will continue through November 13, services each evening at 7:30.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
St. John And Grammont Streets
L. T. Hastings, Pastor
D. C. Black, Pastor's Associate

Sunday is "Brotherhood day" in our church. Sponsored by our local Brotherhood, Mr. H. K. Litton, president, the goal of attendance at the morning service has been set at 500 men. Mr. Lawrence Pettit is chairman of publicity committee that is working hard to reach the goal set. The pastor will bring a timely message to men on "Anchored Until Daybreak," based upon the Scripture, "Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast anchors . . . and wished for the day." Acts 27:29. A large chorus of men will sing "My Anchor Holds." Everybody is invited. We want this to be the greatest day for men in the history of the First Baptist church. Come to the Sunday school and remain for this special service. The other usual services will be held, B. T. U. and Brotherhood at 6:15, followed by the evening worship. The pastor will bring a warm, spiritual, Scriptural evangelistic message.

"Would aught on earth my wishes share?
Though dear as life the idol be,
The idol from my breast I tear,
Resolved to seek my all in thee.
Whate'er I fondly counted mine,
To thee, my Lord, I here restore;
Gladly I all for thee resign;
Give me thyself, I ask no more."
—Charles Wesley.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

Vernon C. Grosse, Pastor

Sunday school meets at 9:30 a.m. Bible class at 10:30 a.m. Church service at 10:45 a.m. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated at this service. We extend a cordial invitation to everyone.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Grammont At Catalpa
Ernest Holloway Pastor

The Sabbath school has been established to the enrichment of men and women. You are urged to attend the class of your choice. If you will attend, all records will be broken. The men's class meets in the Paramount theater, the other classes in the church buildings.

"On Finding It Hard to Believe in God" is the theme of our morning message. Certain happenings tend to upset and trouble people. Are you among the group? Are you assailed by doubts and questions? We may be able to help you.

"The Ascension of the Christ" is the topic about tonight. Did Jesus ascend into heaven? Why do we believe He did? What does it mean to us today? This is one in a series of talks based upon the Apostles' Creed. Great believers are needed today. Your presence will mean much to us in our approach to one of Christendom's marked documents.

A most cordial invitation is extended you to worship with us.

QUINTS MAKE MARK IN HOLLYWOOD

SCIENCE CLUB OF O. P. H. S. HOLDS MEET

The second meeting of the Science club of the Ouachita Parish High school was called to order by Lloyd Leonard, chairman, the past week. Officers present were Lloyd Leonard, president; Edward New, secretary; Phyllis Jean Arsenau, treasurer; Fred Stricklin, sergeant-at-arms; Derwood Brooks, reporter.

F. D. Doane, faculty sponsor, read a letter from Mr. Murdough, requesting students to study closely the migration of birds and animals.

Following the business session, the entire club went by bus to the Georgia Tucker school, where they saw two motion pictures through the courtesy of Miss Myrtle Rodgers, principal.

The club will be divided into groups according to their scientific hobbies. These groups will make trips to various parts of the state where they will study natural formations and industrial plants.

The next meeting will be held November 22.

BARKDULL FAULK P.-T. A. TO GIVE PARTY MONDAY

The Barkdull Faulk P.-T. A. will conduct a Halloween party and skating tournament on the school campus Monday at 7 p.m. There will be present all sorts of goblins, witches and all the rest that goes with such an occasion.

The skating party will be held on the tennis court and young and old are invited. There will be good music by the band and prizes will be given for the best exhibition of skating.

MASONS OF AREA WILL MEET TODAY

The Fourth Masonic District lodge, comprising the parishes of Ouachita, Caldwell, Franklin, Catahoula, Concordia and Tensas, will be entertained by the Masonic lodges of Monroe and West Monroe at the ninth communication of the organization at the Masonic Temple here today at 2 p.m.

The lodges that will act as hosts are the Western Star lodge No. 24, Graham Surghnor No. 383 and the West Monroe No. 419.

All Master Masons are invited to attend and refreshments will be served at the close of the exercises.

Mayor H. H. Benoit of Monroe will deliver the address of welcome and the response will be by State Representative John James of Columbia. There will be other addresses by Charles F. Ratcliff of Baton Rouge, grand master of Masons of Louisiana, and J. Luther Jordon of Alexandria, grand high priest of Royal Arch Masons of Louisiana.

The officers of the district lodge include John James, district deputy grand master; Dr. Joseph Whitaker of St. Joseph, master of the district lodge, and Robert W. Cretney, secretary.

COTTON GINNINGS REPORTED

TALLULAH, La., Oct. 2.—(Special)—There were 15,686 bales of cotton ginned in Madison parish of the 1938 crop prior to October 18 as compared with 15,316 bales for the crop of 1937, according to Frank S. Thomas, special agent for the department of commerce, bureau of the census.

PROPOSE GROUP TO AID SAFETY

Chamber Of Commerce Plans To Impress 24 In Service For Cause

As a junior board Chamber of Commerce activity, a special safety group of 24 men will be impressed into service as quasi-policemen in an endeavor to minimize traffic violations and to report to the chamber the violations they have observed.

Car numbers, time and place of violations will be noted and the cases will be reported, not to the police, but to the Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber of Commerce secretary then will write a letter to the automobilist who was responsible for the violation and he will be urged to be more careful in observing traffic regulations in the future.

This group of men will initiate their duties but not until after the close of the present Twin City Community Chest campaign, it was stated.

WHERE ARE YOU, JIM?... ARE YOU ALL RIGHT?

YEAH.. I'M AS WELL OFF AS YOU ARE, I GUESS.

WE'RE AT THE BOTTOM OF WHAT APPEARS TO BE AN OLD MINING SHAFT—APPROXIMATELY 40 OR 50 FEET BELOW THE SURFACE.

HOW DID WE SURVIVE THAT POISON GAS?

WHEN THE EXPLOSION KNOCKED YOU OUT AND I REALIZED WHAT WE WERE IN FOR, I CLAMPED MY HAND OVER YOUR NOSE AND MOUTH, HELD MY OWN BREATH AND STAGGERED BLINDLY AWAY FROM THE PLANE.

SUDDENLY WE BOTH FELL INTO SPACE, BUMPING AGAINST ROCKS, FLANKS AND DIRT, AND FINALLY LANDING HERE IN FOUR FEET OF WATER.

HOW DO YOU ACCOUNT FOR THE FACT WE'RE ALIVE?

ALLEY OOP

TH' SOLVING OF THAT CROWN-JEWEL ROBBERY CASE SURE ADDED PLENTY OF LABOR TO OUR ROAD GANG

YEP - OFFICER OOP SURE BROUGHT THOSE THREE THIEVES TO JUSTICE IN A HURRY!

BUT I CAN'T UNDERSTAND WHAT MADE "G-MAN" FOOZY BLOW UP AN' GIT INTO TROUBLE

AW - HE PROB'LY GOT SORE 'CAUSE OOP SOLVED TH' CASE INSTEADA HIM

C'MON, YOU THUGS - GIT THEM HAMMERS SWINGIN'!

I'D LIKE TO BUST THAT WISE COPPER A COUPLE!

TAKE IT EASY, PAL - WE'LL GIT A CHANCE T'SQUARE UP WITH HIM FOR PUTTIN' TH' SCREWS ON US FER STEALIN' THEM JEWELS!

YAH, TH' BIG DOPE! SAY - HAVE Y'HEARD THAT TH' KING IS HAVIN' A BLOW-OUT FOR HIM? THEY'RE GONNA GIVE 'IM A MEDAL!

AW, FER--! IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THAT LITTLE GUY WITH TH' LONG NOSE, HE'D NEVER HAVE FOUND US!

HEY! HERE COMES TH' LITTLE GUY NOW - AND SAY! HE'S A PRISONER, TOO!

HOW COME HE'S IN STIR? WASN'T HE TH' "G-MAN" DETECTIVE WHO FOUND OUR HIDEOUT?

SURE HE IS! IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR HIM, OL' TWO-AXE OOP NEVER WOULDA PUT TH' FINGER ON US!

HMM! DIDN'T YOU SAY SUMPIN ABOUT 'EM GIVIN' OOP A MEDAL?

YEP! IT'S COMIN' OFF THIS AFTERNOON

OKAY! HERE'S WHERE WE GET OUR FIRST CRACK AT OOP! HEY, GUARD - C'MERE!

SO - LATER, AT THE FESTIVE BOARD...

GENTLEMEN - WE'RE GATHERED HERE TODAY TO REWARD A MAN WHOSE UNTIRING EFFORTS RESULTED IN THE RECOVERY OF THE CROWN JEWELS -- AND THE CAPTURE OF THE THIEVES ---

GEE, OL' OOP LOOKS NERVOUS, DON'T HE?

WELL, WOULDN'T YOU BE NERVOUS IF THEY WERE GONNA HANG A MEDAL ON YOU?

--- NO AMOUNT OF PRAISE WE MAY BESTOW UPON THIS QUIET, UNASSUMING HERO CAN EXPRESS OUR APPRECIATION FOR HIS RELENTLESS PURSUIT OF THESE VICIOUS MALEFACTORS -

TO ALLEY OOP, WHO ACTUALLY BROUGHT IN TH' PRISONERS AND THEIR LOOT, WE OFFER TH' JUST PRAISE DUE AN OFFICER OF TH' LAW IN TH' PERFORMANCE OF HIS DUTY --

-- BUT, DUE TO TH' SWORN STATEMENT OF TH' PRISONERS THEMSELVES, TH' FULL CREDIT FOR THEIR APPREHENSION MUST GO TO ---
